AMUSEM ENTS. Ford's Grand Opera House. - November 11th, Evans & Hoey's Great Comedy, "The Parlor Match."-Evans and Hoey, the popular foung comedians, will appear at Ford's Grand Opera House during the week of November 18th in their roaring comedy, "A Parlor Match." clever little play abounds in so many modern customs and personalities, dealing satirically and comically with the ridiculous side of nature. The book agent and tramp are conspicuous figures, and as impersonated by Evans & Hoey are simply great. Hoey has a splendid voice and renders some topical songs with thrilling effect. Evans makes one happy only to look at him. Miss Minnie French as Innocent Kid" is the personification of precocious childhood. The play is interspersed with songs, dances, and the interest and merriment continues until the fall of the curtain. Matinees Wednesday and Saturday. Nov. 25th-Mr. and Mrs. Kendall, the English Crushed to Death .- At an early hour on Sunday morning, 10th inst., Henry Nichols, a fireman in the employ of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. was killed on the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad, near Bayview Junction. It appears that Nichols attempted to get on a passing engine in order to go to his home in Baltimore. Engineer Thos. Palmatory, of the P., W. & B., states that it was pitch-dark when he felt some one jump on the cab step. Instantly he heard a body fall and above the din made by the locomotive he distinetly heard an agonizing shrick. Turning quickly he saw something between the tender and the engine. The next moment it disappeared under the tender. Nichols had jumped, missed his hold, and gone down between the locomotive and he tender and was crushed and torn to death .-The head was mashed at the back so that the brains oozed out. A deep gash at the throat told where the wheel had struck, but the head slipped out before the neck was passed over. The left breast was crushed, and the shoulder and arm hung only by a few shreds. There was hardly a bone in the body that was not broken. Nichols was unmarried, and lived along the line of the Western Maryland Railroad, some distance from Baltimore. His aged parents are alive. Justice J. P. Dorsey, of Canton, was notified soo after the accident. A jury met at Canton Station House on Funday night and rendered a verdict of accidental death. Improvements at Hannah More Academy -The new addition to the Hannah More Academy which is the gift of Mr. John Wyman, of New York city, has just been fluished at a cost of $5,000 by Mr Robert Caron, a builder of this town. The building is a handsome addition to the school grounds. tis a very pretty three story brick building, with manuard roof and a two-story back building frame. This addition embraces a very large, bright airy dining room, a recreation room, pantry and citchen. On the first floor, a clothes room, three bed rooms, a large infirmary with nurse's room. bath room and water closets. In the third story there are three bed rooms, a large studio with skylight and a tank room. The building reflects a great deal of credit upon Mr. Caron as a builder and the men employed by him. Mr. Bowersox, o Pikesville, did the painting, while Mr. George W. Moore, of Hagerstown, did the plumbing and put in two large boilers to heat the new and main buildings. Having cold and warm water in the building and having it heated by steam are great conveniences and improvements to this school, which evidently has a good future before it, and which has been steadily year by year extending its sphere of usefulness under its Principal or Rector, Rev. Arthur J. Rich, who has been in charge of it Arthur Suit are the sureties for the accused. for more than 30 years, and has worked zealously for it.—Reisterstown Register, 9th.

Nearly all of the heavy grading between Stafford and the point of junction with the line from Conowingo to Clayton has been The remaining light work, if done now, would be greatly damaged by the winter rains, causing increased expense to restore it to a proper condition in the spring. The contractors, therefore, from motives of economy, have determined to cease operations during the winter. Timber for the tresties is still arriving, and in about ten days all of it will be on hand ready to be used early next spring.

Baker, left on Wednesday for Norfolk, Va., to visit his brothers. He will return to California in about three weeks.—Bet Air Ægis.

Bishop Wingfield is a brother of the late Dr. T. H. Wingfield, of Towson. There was a scurry among the cotton-tails of Har ord county the past week which was occasioned by the visit of Dr. Harry S. Jarrett, Sanitary Officer for Towson, and his uncle, Mr. Wm. Spottswood, of Washington, D. C., on a hunting expedition. Mr. Daniel Alder, who takes an interest in every thing pertaining to the material welfare of Balti more county, paid a visit to Towson the past week. He was more than pleased with the late political victory achieved by the Democratic party against one of the most venomous campaigns made by the Fusionists. Among the visitors to Towson the past week was Col. Walter 8. Franklin, who is the Superintenden of the Pennsylvania Steel Works at Sparrow's Point. Col. Franklin says the place is about to grow to huge proportions in the course of years, and is desined to become one of the largest industries in the

He left for his new post of duty on Tues-Among the visitors to Towson the past week was Mr. S. Merryman Anderson, of New Freedom, Pa., tormerly of Towson. He loves his old home and can't be kept away any great length of time, but tries to drop in upon us unawares and cheer us with his pleasant smile and good wishes. He states that the religious fires are burning brightly upon the altars in his community. Mr. Anderson is a great lover of Sunday School work, and, from force of habit, is always found in the school room on Sunday morning. He attended the revival meetng now in progress in the Towson M. E. Church on Thursday night and was met with a warm reception by his many friends. It seemed like former times to see him among the people. He certainly enjoyed the meeting. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Spottswood, of Washington, D. C., were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. James H. Jarrett, of Towson, the past week. vrs. Pennsylvania Pupils in the Public Schools of Baltimore County .- The Board of School Commissioners of Baltimore County some time since passed an order that no pupils, citizens o Pennsylvania, should be admitted to the public schools of Baltimore county, unless by express permission of the Board. This order applies only to such children as reside near the State line and could attend a public school in Baltimore county. The public schools of York county commence of the 1st of October and end the 1st of April-a six months' course. It will be readily seen that a pupil would prefer a ten month to a six months' course. The order had to be issued on account of the large number of pupils that were flecking into the schools in Baltimore county. Our Board of School Commissioners have determined that their order musi be obeyed, or they will hold each teacher who ad mits a pupil, not a citizen of Maryland, for $4 per term for each pupil and deduct the amount from the teacher's salary. Hyland atrick Gallagher, Road Commissioners, and B ferman, a disinterested tax-paver, appointed by the County Commissioners for the widening of Townsend avenue near Lake Roland, because, as he avers, no necessity exists for the widening of the same, and because it will also be an additional cost on the tax payers of the county for a road which is now maintained by the Water Board of Baltimore city. The matter of the objections will come up for date to be hereafter named. A Close Call .- On Sunday last, 10th inst., while Mr. M. J. Peterson, of Baltimore, was driving a pair of horses to a light carriage on the Mt. Carmel Road, in the 12th District, the horses took fright at a passing railroad train and ran away. They arrived in Clinton street. Canton, just as a train of the B. & Os was leaving the slip. They also paid him $1,000 on account of the building fund for 1889, and $2,000 in full for all sums due the School Board for public school purposes out of the levy of 1888, taking into consideration the fact that $15,000 was uncollected by the School Commission ers, and was placed by the County Commissioners to the credit of the general levy for taxes of 1889. Their Bail Forfeited .- Billy Young, Samuel Kline, Frederick Muller and Samuel Miller, the parties who were under indictment for participating in a prize fight on Sunday, 28th of July, and wh when their cases were called on Tuesday, 12th inst., when their recognizances were declared forfeited and their sureties will be required to produce the wide. It is a high point overlooking the city as well as the Chesapeake Bay for miles. The avenue is entirely within the city limits. Instead of 50 feet wide it should be not less than 150 for so elevated a point.

OBITUARY. Nicholas M. Brian.

Nicholas Morton Brian, a prominent citizen of the 12th District, died on the 10th inst. at his residence, Rossville, aged 66 years. Many years since he was a School Commissioner for the 12th District. A Curious Episode. - Recently, while Mis-Eudocia Stansbury, of Eudowood, was driving in Towson a pigeon alighted on the head of her horse. The animal shook his head vigorously and the bird flew off, but alighted on the horse's head again in a few seconds, and stuck to his place until driven off with the whip of Mrs. Stansbury. In R. Out | Travellers.—The winter schedules

Monkton Items .- One of the most quiet and Monkton Items.—One of the most quiet and unostentations weddings that ever took place around here was celebrated on Thursday last, 7th inst., at the residence of Mr. Elihu Cuddy, residing about 2 miles east of this place. The bride-elect was Miss Mary F. Cuddy, a daughter of Mr. E. Cuddy, and the groom was Mr. Orville Bernoudy, of White Hall, Baltimore county. The Rev. Samuel M. Alford, of Hereford Circuit M. E. Church, performed the ceremony. No invitation were extended, and the matter was kept a profound secret until all was the matter was kept a profound secret until all was over. It is currently reported that Mr. Bernoudy has bought the farm, stock and crops belonging to Mr. Cuddy. The young and happy couple have settled down and gone to work, attending to their own business as though nothing unusual had hap-Mr. Jacob M. Pearce and part of his family, from "My Lady's Manor," 10th District, have moved on St. Paul street, near Union Station, Baltimore, to Mr. Henry Stutzky and family, formerly residing near Piney Hill, Baltimore county, have moved into this neighborhood. The remains of the late Robert G. Merryman, who died here on May 18th last, and who was buried temporarily in the church yard of the Monkton M. Church, was taken up on last Friday, 8th inst., and reinterred in the new cemetery adjoining the church, which was bought recently by the Trustees of the church. A very handsome tombstone made by Mr. Taylor, of Jarrettsville, Harford county, has been placed over his remains. Gunners are out in large force now, scouring through the country in search of game. While a ew succeed sometimes in bagging a poor little rabbit or bird, the majority very often come back tired and disgusted, with nothing for their trouble. A few days ago a gentleman, an Israelite in whom there is no guile, or something of that sort, arrived here from Baltimore, encased in a handsome suit of new clothes, and an oily tongue, and engaged board for a fortnight with one of the families of this place. He claimed to be a representative of one of the leading mercantile houses on Baltimore street, but being overworked came out from the busy mart obtain rest and recreation, to have a good time generally, spend some of his surplus cash lavishly, paint the town a sunset hue and show the Monk tonians a pattern of the true gentleman. Mr. Frank Riley, a young blacksmith in the em-ploy of Mr. James A. Shepperd, of this place, met with a very painful accident on Monday morning, lith inst. He was in the act of tearing off old shoes from a young mare belonging to Mr. John Perdue, (the animal being always considered very quiet and gentle) when, for some reason unknown, she began to kick with both hind feet striking Mr. Riley n a number of places, badly mashing his left hand and otherwise bluising his body very severely. He suffers greatly from the kicks received, and is much prostrated. It will be some time before he will be $91.47. able to go to work again. Eva, the young daughter of Mr. E. A. Merryman, residing on the Hereford and White Hall Road, about 3 miles from here, has exchanged his farm of about '100 acres for one of like dimension, situated in Anne Arundel county, Mr. M. will remove there shortly. A mill, consisting of only one round, was fought on the 12th inst. at Blue Mount Station, two miles north of this place, which was about as ridiculous for cause as it was funny in finish. Two well known white men (neighbors) had a falling out about the ownership of a pile of flint rock. Both became much excited and the lie was quickly passed which was followed by other sulphuric smelling cuss words, when the taller one of the two, with head lowered in true bull fashion, made for his antagonist and poked him square into the pit of the stomach, laying the little one flat on his back, he trying to catch some of the pure air of heaven which had been knocked out of him. Farmers have cause to be greatly discouraged at the almost incessant rains which have fallen. There is a great deal of corn out yet which cannot be gotten in and is rotting in the shocks. Brown, of Alta, Iowa, who visited friends here last summer, writes: "They had quite a snowstorm on the 1st inst., five inches deep, but it only laid a few days." Mr. Brown gives the market report for Alta, as follows: Butter, 11 to 15 cts. per pound; eggs, 16,cts. per dozen; flour, $1.30 to 1.60 per sack; potatoes, 15 cts. per bushel; wheat, 50 to 60 cts. per bushel; oats, 13 cts. per bushel; corn, (dry) 16 to 20 cts. per bushel; hogs, $3.50 per hundred; cattle feeders, $2.06 to $2.50 per hundred He further states that the farmers have good crops his year, and notwithstanding the low prices they will handle considerable money anyhow. Winter is nigh; let us reflect: have we made some preliminaries for his austere presence? Yes; the corn is nearly all shucked and well put away .-Some is at the mill: we will soon have our corn cakes, and hominy. The porkers are looking well, for 1889 was $15.38. Teachers are required to report but I can assure you they are reducing the cornpile. When the scowling winds of December are i a list in each quarterly report of all pupils attend ing school from other counties of the State, from predominating the good fat porksteak and hominy will be an acceptable dish. He was one of the School Commissioners for Baltimore county a few years ago. Mr. Brian was only ill a short time, and his sudden death was quite a shock to his family. Cancer of the liver was the cause of death. He had many business qualities, and the community will greatly niss him. He leaves a widow and two sons. Mr B. was 66 years of age. The interment took place on the 12th inst. at 2 P. M. in the family cemetery on the home farm. Quite a concourse of friends and relatives attended the funeral. The family have the sympathy of all.

Norrisville Notes .- Dear Journal :- Harford sends greeting, as glad tidings of great joy have been waited from one end of this great land of freelom to the other, and the great Democratic party has arisen in the majestic power of her mighty wrath and hurled with Titanic strength the cravens who have ridden iron-shod over two great States from the zenith of their power. Foraker and Mahone did not see the handwriting on the wall, but like one of Jupiter's thunderbolts, it fell with terriffic crash from a cloudless sky upon their doomed heads and they have been signally de feated in the battle of the ballots. Thank God! is was r giorious victory, long to be remembered,-Away off from the great Northwest. Iowa shout out her redemption in stentorian tones; and still a hearing before the County Commissioners at a further, Colorado booms her vells of gladness; Nev Jersey gives us noble courage, while New York wipes away her stain of disgrace to the tune of 21. 000 majority. Pennsylvania has fallen off in her big vote, and Maryland stands as firm as a rock of adamant. Fowler and Burke are elected, prais the Lord! and now no moke jurymen for fifteen years to come. The Eastern Shore has carried itself with matchless glory and well, and Harford has sprung into its chosen arena like a gladiator of old and throttled its sneaking enemy, even unto death.

We have been too easy up here and allowed the foe to steal an office now and then; but, oh my! such day as November 5th will long be remembered by the Rads. Chairman Archer blew the slogan, and from crag and glen, from hill to valley, from footpath and byways, the yeomanry sprung until the vote was polled and counted, and 933 majority was flashed from the wires astounding friend and for alike; and now the Rads, glide along with scared looks and blanched faces, with trembling steps and faltering voices, as they slip into their holes and pull the holes in after them. WHAT SHE CAN DO. What can a helpless female do? . . . . . . Can live in one room with an invalid cousin. Or sew shop shirts for a dollar a dosen, Or please some man by looking sweet, Or please him by giving him things to eat, Or please him by asking much advice,

And thinking whatever he does is nice.

Visit the poor under his supervision;
Doctor the sick who can't pay a physician;
Save men's time by doing their praying,
And other odd jobs there's no present pay in.

To Those Who Pay for Advertising .- Ofter it is that some small merchant-small in ideas small in calibre, small in stock and small in every thing, thinks he will gull the public by a sensa-tional advertisement. On this small scale of ideas he hunts around for the cheap papers, gets the most for his money, according to his idea, fails to make connection with the purchasing public and then says that advertising does not pay. We say frankly o the merchant of repute and good standing that-Advertising fictitious bargains is a failure. A small business and large expenses is a failure. l'oor clothing and big advertising is a failure.

Night trade is a failure. Two prices is a failure. A low price in the window and a high price in the store is a failure. Old styles and condemned fabrics (no matter how cheap) are a failure. Shoddy clothing advertised and sold as wool is failure. Cheap and inattentive salesmen (hired on commission) are a failure. Bargains in the newspaper and apologies in the Large profits and small sales is a failure. Running down your competitors is a failure, be sides being mean. Advertising goods "at less than cost" all the year round is a failure and a lie in the bargain. Stick to a legitimale business. Advertise sensibly and keep the stock you advertise and you are bound

Crape on the Door .-- Thursday night some Republicans, whose joy at the result of the recent election in this county was greater than their good case, amused themselves by putting crape on the doors of the offices of a number of our Democratic citizens. The Gazette office was not overlooked .--We shall keep the ornament and return the compliment (?) in '92. A local poet muses thus:

There's crape on your door, Prince George's, For woe Democratic, alack! Yet the victors in all their orgies Can flaunt but a banner that's black. Those votes were imported, Prince George's, That set you so many years back ; And over your fields and gorges

Now floats a banner that's black But the day will dawn, Prince George's When purchasable votes will lack. And voters perceive what forges Their chains 'neath the banner that's black. I here's hope for you yet, Prince George's, With Mahone and Foraker aback. And over your fields and gorges

Will float a banner not black. | Mariboro' Gazelle Towson M. E. Church.-A very successful re vival has been in progress in this church the past six weeks. Ever since the first Sunday in October, vice for their deliverance from all the financial embarrassments which so long overshadowed them, the blessings of God has been poured out upon this 34 persons have professed conversion and there are others still at the altar. The Pastor, Rev. Page Milburn, has labored earnestly in this work -He has been assisted by the members of his church and others. On Sunday next, 17th, there will be Sunday School at 9.30 A. M.: preaching at 11 A. M.; Missionary Meeting at 2.30 P. M.; Young People's Meeting at 6.30 P. M. and preaching and revival services at 7.30 P. M. The public is cordially invited to all these services. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon there will be a meeting held especially for men and all the men of the town are earnestly requested to be present. A Memento for Sheriff Trucey.—Elizabeth Calligan, a woman who is confined in the Jail and who is demented, recently handed Sheriff Tracey what she said was a gift, but which the Sheriff thought was a package of rags. He took it and was about to throw it in the stove when curiosity prompted him to unwrap it, and he found inside the package an old pocket-book which contained 8710 in money. On the 12th inst. a jury de lunatico inquirendo was held in her case by order of the Court and she was declared non compos mentis. A committee will be appointed to take charge of her property, and she will be sent to Spring Grove Asylum, at Catonsville. Ruicide of a Sexton in a Church.—Wm. Griffith, aged 70 years, residing with Mrs. A. Clark, 1132 Cathedral street, was found dead in a small room on the first floor of Strawbridge Church, Park avenue and Wilson street, Baltimore, about 3.80 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon, 12th inst. He had turned on the gas and was consequently suffocated About two years since Mr. Griffith's wife died, since which time he was despondent and showed signs very disagreeable as well as a disadvantage to the | of mental derangement. Rapid Transit.—The air in Baltimore is almost sulphurous with the smoke of rapid transit for Kendree Church took place on last Sunday, 10th street car lines. There seems to be heap of peeping inst. The church was packed full of people who at the various systems, and it seems hard to decide what system to take-very like the ass between two stacks of hay. It looks as though the horse would still be master of the situation for some time to come. Our faith is lost in sight.

Burglars at Work .- At an early hour on Sunday morning last, 10th inst., the dwelling of Mr. Charles M. Gosnell, on the York Road in the city annex, was entered by burglars and a lot of small articles and $2 in money was taken. M. P. Church Notes .- A number of persons joined Epsom M. P. Church, Towson, last Sabbath morning. An interesting revival is in progress at Poplar M. The election has now become one of the things of the past. Oh! what a victory for the Democrats. Tuesday, 5th inst., was certainly a good day for the regulars. The wind blew just right. We believe that there is a better day a coming.

The office-seekers knew not the whereof of his whereabouts.

THE MEMORY OF JAKE SHARP. We scarcely expected justice would be done o the memory of Jake Sharp so soon after his almost tragic death, as has just been done in New York. Mayor Grant and the City Council | Sam'l S. Sands, on have given free consent that a company shall operate the Broadway Railroad by rapid transit of some kind, most likely a cable road. We all recollect how poor Jake Sharp was arrested and nearly convicted of buying up the renowned Aldermen to allow him to operate even a horse street car line upon Broadway! We all 8 know how New Yorkers, at least Broadwayites almost sacredly clung to the clumsy old stages, but when Jake banished the stages and laid commodate the crowds which wished to use it. Jake was only a little previous in his day and generation. Jake paid the Alderman boodle to do the same thing that is now openly done, and he paid the city for the use of the street, $150,000 per annum, for the privilege of the street. Poor old Jake, a monument should be built to his memory, a triumphal arch would be better, under which every car would have to pass; and Jachne, and the boodlers in Sing Sing should be turned loose at once. Here is Broadway, New York, about to have rapid transit, but we do not see a sign of it on the York Road, the most beautiful and susceptible suburban road leading from any city in the United States. On the 9th inst. at Princess Anne, Md. Levin B. Hall and Sarah G. Hall were sontenced to be confined in the penitentiary for ten years-the shortest sentence that could be passed for arson. The sentence was passed by Chief Justice Irving at the jail, as Miss Hall was not able to leave her bed. It was passed in the presence of the counsel for the defense, State's Attorney Dixon, Clerk Lankford and Judge Irving. The accused were tried and convicted of burning the storehouse of Cox & Miles, in Fairmount, Somerset county, Md., on September 2d, 1889. Mr. Hall appeared very cool and collected, but Miss Hall burst in

"RATS" AND "NIGGERS."-A leading Repubican of Talbot county, being asked the cause of the Republican defeat said "one reason is, so many of the rats went back on us." Being asked what he meant by rats, he said "niggers." C RAND JURY REPORT. SEPTEMBER TERM, 1880 To the Honorable the Judges of the Circuit Court for | We respectfully report that the Grand Jury has been in session for 85 days; have docketed 138 cases, examined 302 witnesses, found 62 presentments found 62 true bills, ignored 3 cases, dismissed 7 cases and referred 3 cases to the next Grand Jury.

We visited the Jail and found it in a neat and or dorly condition; the numbers confined therein 22;

recommended the release of 13 persons confined in In compliance with the special charge of the Honorable Court we have investigated all violations of the Sunday law brought to our notice in the 12th District, known as the "shell Road," and other tributaries leading out from Baltimore, and notwithstanding the great reluctance of witnesses we have succeeded in finding presentments against quite a number of parties for open violations of the Sunday law. From information we recognize in 'The Law and Order Society," composed of lawabiding citizens and tax-payers, a desire to promote the peace and quietness of the Sabbath by having brought to justice violators of the law, and we therefore recommend that the County Commissioners appoint a Special Sunday Police Force, and that compensation be allowed said Police Force as shall compensate them for their service. A Committee was appointed to examine the Treasurer's Books, and the report of the Committee i herewith annexed. We extend our sincere thanks to the Court and its officers for their uniform kindness and courtesy.

GEORGE B. HAMPSHIRE, Committee on Treasurer's Books. Geo. B. Hampshire, Foreman Grand Jury: The undersigned, Committee appointed to examine the Books of the Tressurer, have performed that duty so far as our limited time would permit. We found the books kept in a very plain, systematic manner, showing with very little examination the course of each order or account presented n the office. The system of keeping the different accounts and their entry upon the books certainly reflects great credit upon the author, Mr. J. Harman Schone, the resent Chief Clerk. Our examination extends from May 1st to September 30th, 1889, inclusive, which please fine appended
