A Protest Against Some Rowdy-Dowdy at Upper Falls .- Editor JOURNAL :- After so much evil and even murders committed with impunity n our neighborhood in consequence of carrying fire arms and other weapons by low and abominable tavern-visitors. I feel myself justified in expressing my indignation as an American citizen by ionna Road in front of old St. Stephen's Church and in the direction of same church and my sitting-Not suspecting anything wrong I was, as usual, an imperturbed hermit reading. Shooting, Dear Editor, and any kind of cursing on the road here is of a frequent occurrence, especially on Saturday night. I keep late hours and I hear what is going on outside. It was only this morning when I went for my mail that I found out the malicious shooting of last night. My private post office box had three bullets imbedded in it, and one was extracted by me with some difficulty from the key-hole. keep the ball for the jacquerie memorandum. I look upon this dastardly act, first, as a personal insult to me, for quite often in the dark night, even at 1 o'clock, I drop letters in the box; secondly, take that guilty act as an insult to the whole Catholic congregation; thirdly, as an insult to the upright neighbors who, no doubt, are indignant themlives to have in the night on their public roads these eastern despicable cowboys, the rowdydowdy revolver shooters, endangering their life and that of their dear wives and children. And here, Dear Editor, may I not take this opportunity to express my conviction concerning the outrage perpetrated almost daily on the people by the Courts of justice. Is it not time now for the citizens of this glorious country to uprise and enforce with their mighty power the administration of just laws enacted for the protection of the commonwealth. This done, there would be an end to ynching, a degredation for the United States. The powerful voters, indeed, ought firmly to guard their just laws which, to-day, alas! are despised and made a mockery in public Courts by officials as well as by lawyers in search of distinction in wrongly defending criminals and even guilty murdenses. For the demonstration of pistel search of the demonstration of the demon derers. For the demoralization of pistol-carriers and tavern-hunters, I am, with regards and thanks, your humble servant. the waters of which we constantly read about as to their medicinal virtues. Rogers Lithia Springs, in Green Spring Valley, have been known for years to possess curative properties of great value, but it has Misses Sance, near Black Horse. The price paid we only recently entered into the mind of the proprietor, Col, Chas. B. Rogers, to spread their virtues before the people, and the analysis given is an ample demonstration that these springs are of the greatest value as a health-giving tonic. These sparkling waters, with a flow of 18 gallons a manute, issues into light from a bed of solid rock; every 281 cubic inches, or gallon, besides the mineral ingredient i solution, is charged by nature with 17.8 cubic inches of natural gasses. THE ADVENT DAWN. [Last Sunday was the begining of Advent, the great preparation for the birth of Christ, which is observed with particular religious services in the Catholic and Episcopal churches.] O! heaven, thou art beautiful On this love's dawn of the years:

Ol love, be thou still dutiful Until Christ, thy Lord appears. Let the stars go hide their faces Before the reseate glow Of the new light, which effaces

All our darkness here below. Fly fast, ye heralds of morning; The light shines upon your wings— Shall end all sorrow and scorning In a song love always sings. O! listen, ye endless spaces: O! listen, ye ceaseless years, To the deep music that graces The dawn of the song of tears.

And come. Of love, in thy splendor:

Thou heart of eternal day; Come fill our life with thy tender

Light, for the rest of the way.

Ceres-Mrs. C. Lyon Rogers. Lady Assistant Sleward-Mrs. Wm. Rupert. The Gunpowder Agricultural Club.-A meeting of the Gunpowder Agricultural Club held on Saturday, 80th uit., at Mr. Edwin Scott's, in the 8th District, there was a large attendance of the members, and the principal subject under discussion was the road question and how to improve them. The Club also took action on the question of compulsory weighing of hay, and a committee consisting of Col. Walter S. Franklin and Messrs. Fam'l M. Price and Lewis M. Bacon was appointed to go before the Legislature at its January session and ask that the compulsory feature be stricken out: and also ask at the same time that the license laid on dealers in hay and straw be abolished Head Radly Cut.-Dr. H. A. Jarrett was called on Thursday night to attend Joshua Gilbert, col. in Sandy Bottom, who had his head badly cut by some unknown person. Josh, was loaded up with beuzine and could not tell who hurt him. The cuts looked like they had been made with some sharp instrument. Josh, has been subject of persecution since the last election because he publicly voted the Democratic ticket. A vigorous search will be made to find out who his assailant was and the party will zet a sharp sentence. Handsome Calendars.—We are in receipt of a new and beautiful designs on calendars for the year 1890, from Messrs, Geo. S. Vibbert & Co., of Clintonville, Ct. They are artistic in the highest degree, one being a Century Calendar, which is easily arranged for any year for one hundred years if the owner lives long enough to change it.
