Halethorpe.-The suburban towns are growing apace and "Halethorpe," on the line of the Balti-more and Potomac Railroad, in the 13th District, has made its best bow to the public The tract contains 120 acres, and is the property of Mr. Oregon R. Benson, a member of the Baltimore County School ard, and of Mr. James Rittenhouse, an ex-County Commissioner. The land was formerly the residence of the late Dr. T. B. Hall. With a view of making "Halethorpe" a desirable place for people moderate means to secure a home or an investment, the tract of land has been laid out in lots fronting on graded avenues. The lots range in size from 50 by 125 feet up. Several cottages are in course of erection. The avenues already constructed are lined with beautiful shade trees. Fiftysix trains pass the place daily, and the time is 2 minutes from Calvert Station. It also lies contiglous to the Baltimore and Ohio Road, and is near the Station on that road known as Quarantine. new station called Halethorpe is building on the Saltimore and Potomac Railroad. A large number of lots have been sold at fair prices and the place ids fair to become a pleasant and attractive villa.

He "Borrowed" from Uncle Sam's Post Office.—John Emmel, Jr., Cashier of the Money order Division of the Baltimore Post Office, was arrested on Tuesday 6th inst by Inspectors Smith and larrison, of the Post Office Department upon the charge of "borrowing" $591.86 of the funds of his office and devoting a portion of it to the payment of a note of $230 due upon his property. It is the old, old story—he merely "borrowed" it for a short time, when he expected to pay it back and so thought he would not be discovered. Berreda Furner, Superintendent of the Money Order Divis on, discovered the shortage. On Tuesday morning Turner was at his office earlier than Emmel and told him to go into the vault and there coun in his presence the cash. Emmel then confesse that he had taken the money to pay a note and expected to put it back. Emmel was taken before United States Commissioner Rogers, who held him in $2,000 bail. Emmel was appointed a clerk by I. Parker Veazey and is a Democrat. Any employee who attempts to steal money from the Post Office is sure to be caught, eventually, there is no escape. Emmel is under $10,000 bond, and his bonds men will make the amount good. An Arctic Region in Summer.—Mr. Chas. Meister, who is a pushing and energetic pork packer at Clifton, has recently added extensive improvements to his establishment at that place. The improvements cost about $90.000. OBITUARY.

Mrs. Archibald Sterling. On Friday, 2d inst., Mrs. Archibald Sterling died suddenly at her residence, "Montrose," near Reisterstown. Her death was the result of injuries received from an accident. On Sunday, April 20th, as Mrs. Sterling was driving home from church in Reisterstown, the horses ran away and threw her out of the carriage, breaking her collar bone. It was thought at the time that she had received other injuries. She never entirely recovered from the accident. On Friday morning she arose shortly before 9 o'clock, and while dressing fell to the floor in an unconscious condition. Her son Edward, who was in the next room, heard her fall and rushed to where his mother lay, but before he reached her Mrs. Sterling was a Miss Anne Steele Lloyd.

daughter of Laniel Lloyd, of Talbot county, Maryland, who was descended from Edward Lloyd of Wyc, who came to Maryland from Virginia in 1650. She was the granddaughter on her mother's side of Arthur Upshur, of Accomac county, Virginia, and a daughter of Virginia Lloyd, nee Upshur. Mrs. Sterling is also a sister of ex-Gov. Henry Lloyd .-She was married on June 13th, 1855. She leaves seven children, four sons, Archibald, Upshur, Edward, Charles, and three daughters, Misses Jennie, Annie and Elizabeth. The funeral took place on Monday, 5th inst., from Montrose Chapel, Woodensburg. Arthur J. Rich, Rector of All Saints' Church, oidelated. The body was interred in Greenmount Cemetery. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Joseph M. Cushing

Charles Goldsborough, Dr. Thomas Murdoch,

Pitts, Maj. John M. Barnes and John H. L. Bond. Henry Alt. Henry Alt, one of the most estimable citizens of Towson, a resident of many years standing, died from consumption on the 6th inst. aged 68 years. He was a stonemason by trade and assisted in building many of the foundation walls of the houses in Towson. For several years past he had been in the employ of the Maryland Central Railway as watchman at the crossing of that road and the Hilen Road in the town. He was honest and upright in all his dealings and a quiet and useful citizen.— His funeral took place on Thursday from Trinity P. E. Church, where Rev. W. H. H. Powers, Rector, recited the offices for the dead. The interment ook place at Govane Cemetery, Govanstown, George Ries, Henry Dienstbach, Peter Heck, Richard Parker, Wm. B. Smith, and Frederick Ekas, acting as pallbearers. Mr. Alt leaves a widow, one son and

Dr. Joseph L. Duncan. Dr. Joseph L. Duncan, aged 66 years, a native o Baltimore county and a brother of Mr. J. D. C. Duncan, of Cockeysville, died at Pittsburg, Pa., on the 7th inst. He had been a practicing physician for many years at Pittsburg, but in 1881 he moved to Media. Pa., and at the time of his death he was on a visit to his brother at whose house he died. He was a son of the late William Duncau.

The Baltimore County Agricultural Society and the Nentor Gunpowder Agricultural Club -At a meeting of the Senior Gunpowder Agricultural Club of Baltimore County held at the eautiful farm of Mr. Albert T. Love, on the York Turnpike, above Cockeysville, on Faturday, 3d inst., the following preamble was adopted:
"Whereas, The managers of the Baltimore County Agricultural Society have deemed it their duty allow privileges on the grounds of said Society that we as farmers and members of the Senior Gunpowder Agricultural Club consider wrong and im-We deem it our duty to express our condemnation of such privileges—"the sale of liquor," "pool-selling," and "wheels of fortune"—on said grounds where our wives and children attend.

A Horse and Wagon Gone.-On Wednesday Soth ult., a man who gave his name as J. Thompson, hired a horse and wagon from Mr. John W. Hook, at Mt. Washington, to drive to Baltimore and restarted on the hunt, and soon found that the man instead of going south turned north, and also found that he had traded the wagon for a cart and $8 in cash with Mr. Edward Kelly, at Ashland, in the 8th District, where he represented himself to be a bill-poster for a circus company. The horse was afterwards found in Lancaster, Pa., but the bird had flown. When Officer Starr gets on the track the culprits have to get up a lightning speed. It was through Officer Starr's work that the arrest of the parties who burglarized the Cricket Club House at

Mt. Washington and other places were arrested and lodged in jail to await trial. Accidentally Drowned.-About 9 o'clock on Sunday morning last, 4th inst., Geo. C. Prutz. a resident of Baltimore, was accidentally drowned n Back River, in the 12th District. He in company with a friend named George Walters started out i askiff to fish. A stiff breeze suddenly sprung up, and, without a moment's warning, the skiff was upset and the men thrown into the river. Prutz's legs became tangled up with the lines and he drowned before assistance could reach him. Walters reached the upturned boat and was rescued. Both men were good swimmers. Pruiz's body was recovered about an hour later by Joseph Gebhard, and was sent home Justice John Hevern, of Highland-town, was notified and held an inquest, the jury rendering a verdict of accidental drowning. Withdrew His Application .-- Mr. Michael Farley, who had made an application for a license to sell liquor near Mt. De Sales, at Catonsville, appeared before Judge Burke on Monday, 5th ins and personally withdrew his application. His place was on the road directly opposite to the gate of Mt. De Sales Academy, and he said that as the Sisters were opposed to his keeping a saluon there, he would certainly do nothing in opposition to the wishes of those kind and generous members of an order whose noble deeds of charity and religious work cover the known world. Rosen Ruened .- On Sainrdey night, 2d inst. the barn of Henry Hoen, on the Trimble place, in Dulany's Valley, was destroyed by fire. Mr. Hoer lost a valuable heifer, some farming implements, and a large amount of hay. The barn and its contents were insured in the fire insurance agency of known, but it is thought it was the work of an in-cendiary. Mr Hoen, while working to save his property, broke a small bone in his left wrist, and

t was quite painful for awhile. Bishop's Visit.—The Right Rev. Wm. Paret, P. E. Bishop of Maryland, will visit Trinity P. E. Church, Towson, Rev. W. H. H. Powers, Rector, on Sunday next. 11th inst., and will administer the sacred right of confirmation to a class of persons in the morning, and in the afternoon he will visit the Chapel at Lutherville. We gethered up anough courses a few days ago. We gathered up enough courage a few days ago to go visiting and to stay away for several days—something very unusual and quite out of our line of habits. Upon a pressing invitation we went to Hebbyille, perhaps better known to many as the "White Grounds," in the 2d District, and were delighted as well as astonished at the beauty of that part of the county, thinking, from the name it bore, (White Ground,) to be nothing but a poor barren spot. Our surprise at beholding beautiful level lelds, teeming with nature's richest bounty and and farmhouses, cottages, schools, shops, stores and churches, deposited plentifully and promiscuously over the ground, was great indeed. The people are clever, hard-working, sober, thrifty and intelli gent. We succeeded in visiting several families and would have been pleased to visit more, but the rain put a stop to our efforts. We came away well pleased with our experience of visiting at large. Nothing startling has occurred since our last writing; no fires or floods and no one has died or got married. Our sick, we are sorry to say, are not much better. Mr. Benjamin Zimmerman, whose illness was noticed last week, is still in a serious condition. He is now confined to his room and is very weak.

Mr. Casper Wolf, who resides near Randallstown is lying very ill at his residence of dropsy and heart trouble, and is in the same condition as Mr. Zimmerman. Mr. Wolf is father-in-law of Mr. Henry Buppert, of this place. Rev. C. C. Cronin was unable to fill his appoint ment last Sunday on account of having caught a heavy cold. At this writing he is on the mend We notice that some snake stories have been going the rounds in the columns of the Journal We are determined not to be outdone. Mr. Joseph R. Pierpont killed a large member of the Ophidia amily on his place one day last week. Its length, breadth and thickness was not stated, but to use Mr. Pierpont's own language in describing it, "he was a whopper."
Mr. John F. Heisse, of Monkton, spent last Sunday with us. Although the weather was very bad, he managed to make several calls and seemed to have a good time. We will be pleased to have him come again. The truckers license is still a daily topic of con versation. One of them told your correspon that he has some regular customers, and if he is not allowed to deliver his goods from his wagon, he will carry them butter in his pocket. We are bound to be ahead every time. Dont yot see that there is no use in trying to head us off. Zeus. Rossville Items .- Corn planting has been an is in order now. The early corn in the "Necks" is now growing rapidly. Putting out tomato, plants s also upon the program. The recent hallstones did much damage to the plants under sash, besides destroying glass. Messrs. Jacob Gross and W. J. McCormick, of this community, were among the many who sustained severe losses Mr. Geo. W. Gross, whose illness has been reported, is slowly convalescing. Fabbath School at Hall Chapel seems to be quite a popular movement. The attendance is augmenting. The school has purchased some new books and pamphlets in addition to its old library. Mrs. John S. 1700-1800. Maryland Commendery No. 1, Masonie Knights Templar, Celebrates its Com-tennial. For several months past Maryland Commandery, No. 1, Knights Templar, has been making prepara-tions to celebrate the contennial anniversary of its organization which took place in Baltimore in May, 1790. It is, therefore, the oldest Commandery in the United States, as is evident from documentary The Commandery appointed the following General Committee of Arrangements—C. C. Isaacs, Chairman; G. F. Kooke, Secretary; L. R. Kelser, Treasurer, and John B. Kurts, Jacob E. Krebs, Edward T. Schults, Robert K. Martin, Wm. A. Hanway, A. H. Felting, Wm. H. Ruby, L. W. Moody, Wm. D. Weigand. This Committee was ciothed wm. D. Weigand. This Committee was clothed with all power in the premises, and all needed sub-Committees were appointed to carry into effect the wishes of the Commandery.

The Grand Master of Templars in the United States, Gen. J. P. S. Gobin, of Lebanon, Pa., was invited to be present and responded favorably, as also a large number of prominent Templars in the United States, who deemed it a pleasant privilege to pay honor to this venerable and venerated old Commandery.

Such auspices will take place next week, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, 18th, 14th, 15th and 16th. The rates of admission will be $1 to all parts of the grounds, stands and pool lawn, there being no extras.

The Western Maryland Railroad will as usual run trains for the accommodation of all who may wish to attend, trains leaving Hillen Station each day at 12.15 and 1.35 P. M., stopping, going and returning, at Union Station.

The track has been prepared under the personal The festivities commenced on Monday night when a complimentary dinner was tendered to Gradd Master Gobin and invited guests at Lehman's Hail where were assembled about two hundred Templars, including Thos. J. Shryock, Grand Master of Masons of Maryland, with many of the prominent Masons in Maryland.

Limited space prevents us giving but the merest mention of the sentiment which fell from the lips of those who elequently responded to toasts. Mayor Davidson, ex-Mayor Latrobe and others of the city were present and participated in the joyous occacomb and M. C. Hodgdon.

There were in the line—Washington Commandery, No. 1, Washington, D. C., 100 Knights; Columbia Commandery, No. 3, Washington, D. C., 86; St. John's Commandery, No. 1, Wilmington, Del., 130; Beauseant Commandery, No. 8, Baltimore, 30; Palestine Commandery, No. 7, Annapolis, 40; Crusade Commandery, No. 5, Baltimore, 40; Crusade Commandery, No. 5, Baltimore, 40; Monumental Commandery, No. 8, Baltimore, 40; Monumental Comm Commandery, No. 3, Baltimore 75: Baltimore Commandery, No. 2, Baltimore, 100; Maryland Commandery, No. 1, 125:—in all 726. Maryland Commandery then filed into the building, followed by all the Commanderies, which occupled the lower portion of the House, Maryland Commandery being seated upon the stage. The exercises then took place, being prayer by Sir Knight Rev. Alex. D. McClure. The following Centennial Poem was then read, written by Sir James R. Brewer, a member of Beau-

seant Commandery:

Down the vista of the ages gleam the banners of the Lord, O'er the flash of burnished armor and the glint polished sword; Dim and distant are the voices that resound along From the twilight of tradition to the annals But their story comes unbroken and its glory is the same.

Develling Near Relatorstown Burned.—On Saturday night, 3d inst., the fine dwelling of Dr. W. S. Norris, situated on the Reisterstown Turnpike, near the Hannah More Academy, was destroyed by fire. No one was living in the house, except a col-ored man. Nothing was saved, except the piano and some of the parlor farniture. The family expected to move into it next week. The loss was $5,000. The house and furniture were fully insured in the insurance agency of Mr. Henry L. Bowen, of Towson. The cause of the fire is unknown. Revenue to the County.—Mr. John W. Shanklin, Clerk of the Circuit Court for Baltimore County, on the 6th inst. paid to Mr. Geo. W. Yellott, Tressurer of Baltimore County, for the use of the County Commissioners, $10,000 on account of monies reseived from the license for the sale of liquors in Temperance Tabernacie.—There will be a Prohibition meeting in the Tabernacie next Monday evening, to be addressed by Hon. Samuel Fix, of Baltimore. All are cerdially invited to citend these meetings.

Alms House, we made an incorrect statement, which we take pleasure to correct. It was Mr. Todd who recommended the name of Mr. John Smith, Jr., and Mr. Magruder promptly voted for him, Mr. Smith not voting or proposing his name. We were misinformed in regard thereto. Mr. Smith is a practical farmer, and a kind and humane man, and will no doubt make an acceptable Superintendent of this important branch of the county sovernment.

E. hurch on the 30th ult., on motion the following committee was appointed to draw up suitable resolutions expressive of the said Board and teachers of our deceased member, Mr. John Williams: Wm. H. Rimmey, J. T. Phelps and Miss M. Davis.

WHEREAS, Ap All-Wiss Providence has seen fit. WHEREAS, An All-Wise Providence has seen fit ince our last meeting to remove from our midst Mr. John Williams,

Therefore be it Resolved. That in the death of the said John Williams we lose a friend esteemed, a man looked up to and beloved, Impressed by his example while among us to elevate humanity, to alleviate suffering and dignify labor, the Powhatan Sunday School Board and teachers place on record this memorial;

And be it further Resolved. That his amiable traits common with the community deplore deeply the loss his death occasions, we feel here especially the weight of the blow which deprives us of friendly council, interest and devotion to the Sunday School Resolved, That to his stricken family we extend our heartfelt sympathy in this great bereavement and in testimony of our unfeigned sorrow this action is to be spread upon the minutes of our proceedings.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family. President of Board. J. T. PHELPS, Superin't of School. WILLIAM H. RIMMEY.
