Ford's Grand Opera House--Commencing Week of June 9th—The Carleton Opera Com-pany--•Mynheer Jan" and The Mikado."— The great success of the Carelton Opera Company. headed by the celebrated Carleton himself, last week at Ford's, bids fair to continue during the week of June 9th, when, for the first three nights. the delightful Opera of "Mynheer Jan" will be prosented with all the force of superior talent, appropriate characterization, scenic effects and picturesque costumes. All of Mr. Carleton's superb Company will appear in the Opera, with his splendidly trained choristers, which the Washington Press gives the praise of coming very near Grand Opera. Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings will be devoted to the production of the favorite Mikado as sung by this famous Company, which presentation has never been excelled for strength of voice, and true artistic conception of the authors meaning.-Ford's Grand Opera House has become a perfect bower of summer loveliness, with its charming arrangement of beautiful flowers and brilliant lights. The prices will be on the summer scale, the general admission to all parts of the house 25 cents, with reserved seats in either circle at that price; orchestra seats 50 cents. This will be a splendid opportunity to hear the best conception of popular opera summer prices given with the same careful attention to all detail, musically, scenically and costuming.

Next week—Two different operas by The Carletou Opera Company. Three Bables at One Birth .- On the 30th Mrs. Harrison Deavely, of Canton, Baltimore county, presented her husband with three babies at one birth-two girls and one boy. An Addition to Trinity Church, Towson. At the morning service on Sunday 1st inst. at Triuity Church, Towson, Rev. W. H. H. Powers, Rector, eferred to that day as the eighth anniversary o his pastorate, which commenced in 1882, giving ar account of the great prosperity of the church for the past eight years, and the urgent need for additional sittings, there being now no vacant pews.-The Rector referred in the tenderest manner of his love for his holy work and his desire for the onward progress of the church. He proposed that an addition be made to the building so as to make t cruciform. This would give additional room fo about 125 persons. He believed the sum of $10,000 would be needed. The Vestry had considered the matter and appointed a committee to solicit subscriptions. The contributions of the congregation for all church purposes the past year were over

A Birthday Anniversary.—On Monday last, 2d inst., Marie, aged 10 years, daughter of Judge N. ('Burke, celebrated her birthday by giving a lawn party to a number of her youthful friends. A Case by Default.-The case of George Wise against George F. Walker, formerly Sheriff of Harford county and his bondsmen for damages laid at $25,000 for false arrest and imprisonment, came up for trial in the Circuit Court for Baltimore County, where it had been removed for trial from Harford county. There was no response from the defendant when the case was called, nor had any appearance been entered by counsel. A judgment was then taken by default and a jury impannelled to assess the damages. Geo. Y. Wise testified that he had been arrested in Bel Air without a warrant and was lodged in jail where he was detained for several hours. There being no other testimony the case was submitted to the jury without argument, who returned a verdict asseming the damages at $1,000. Col. D. G. McIntosh appeared as counsel for Wise, the plaintist. On the 5th inst. counsel for the defendants filed a motion for a new trial, also a motion to strike out judgment and set aside the

A GALA DAY FOR TOWSON. Monday, 2d inst., will no doubt prove to have have been a veritable red-letter day in the future annals of Towson, as it was the day of a gathering of the capitalists who recently purchased "Aig-burth Vale," the splendid estate of the late John E. Owens, adjoining Towson on the south, to look over and consult upon its future prospects. The purchase was made by Messrs. John Hubner, Joseph M. Cone, William A. Hanway, Levi Z. Condon and Frederick Rice for the sum of $45,000, cash. The mansion was thrown open and the visitors explored every nook and cranny, and many were the stories told about the jolly, good-natured comedian, who has left his impress behind him.

There was an ample lunch set out under the spreading branches of a huge oak tree standing on the lawn, and Harris, the Baltimore caterer, found a taithful coterie of devotees to the good things he had provided; and there was plenty of Mumm's Extra Dry provided to give zest to the substantials.
When the lunch was finished Judge N. C. Burke, being called on, said he was there only in an extra judicial capacity and did not think it was his time to make a decision in the case. However, he would say that, in the words of a man who lived back here in the woods, "The purchase of this property by you gentlemen was one of the greatest events in ountry since the landing of Columbus," and we all give you a hearty welcome among us, and you may be assured of our sympathy and hearty co-operation in the further improvements to be carried on by you.

Col. D. G. McIntosh being called upon, said: I believe, Mr. Speaker, that in this affair you have shown your sagacity and shrewdness in the acquisition of such a fine property, and we all wish you your usual good luck. Mr. Hubner in reply, said: I feel that we are welcome and are among friends. I cannot say much about the sagacity and all that sort of thing. but we come here to make money and we will liven up this section if work and thrift can accomplish it. We have looked around in other places before purchasing, but we found no spot that offered such an inviting aspect as we have here, and when we have our plans perfected and worked out the good people of Towson will have no cause to complain, nor will any one regret our coming here. And I say to you that this modest lunch is Mr. Cone's idea, and is a tribute to the spirit of the departed and much lamented John E. Owens, and I feel assured that you would like to hear what he has to say.

Mr. Cone responded that he was the silent member of the firm and only took part in the lighter exercises of the day.

Judge A. B. Patterson said : Gentlemen, you have a welcome from Towson which I am sure is heartfelt and sincere, and I know that there will be response from Baltimore of no uncertain sound. Every one approves your choice in the selection of this beautiful place for your venture, and the only regret I have is that, with my friend, Mr. Henry l I did not get a commission on the sale There is here a combination of capital, brains, energy and workmen, and what is planted here will and the estate of the late John E. Owens ould not have fallen into better hands. Mr. H. L. Bowen said, in reply to Judge Patterson: That although we did not get a commission yet we are both happy, as we are all gratified to have this company of gentlemen come here to wake up improvements. There is no finer spot in the county, as within easy driving distance you have Loch Raven, Lakes Clifton, Montebello, Roland and ery soon Guilford, as well as any number of beautiful drives radiating, I might almost say, from "Alg-Mr. Wm. H. Ruby said: We have been waiting, looking, hoping and praying for these many years for the advent of such men as bave now purchased this beautiful property, and in John E. Owens' life time the effort was made to have this place cut up into villa lots, but the times did not seem propitious and the plans fell through. We have gentlemen among us now, however, who mean business, and who know no such word as fall, and the whole ommunity will give you a royal welcome. I trust that the indomitable spirit which animates Mr. Jos. M. Cone and his worthy associates may take root and permeate our entire community. Col. D. G. McIntosh begged leave here to offer a us at present, Mr. Sol. King, who proved his friend-ship to his dead and gone friend. John E. Owens, by his disinterested acts after his death. He belied the saying of Goldsmith, who asked: "What is friendship but a name,

Here is a man who, a year or more since, at a sacrifice to himself, stepped in and purchased this property when it was forced into the market and eld it until he could realize something out of it for Mis. Owens; and he said to her if there is anything in this property over and above the indebted ness you shall have every cent of it. And, gentlemen, I propose the health of Mr. King, who has proven that he has a heart in him not controlled by sordid impulse, but actuated by the honest impulse of a noble and generous mind. Mr. King was visibly affected at the tribute paid After some pleasant conversation on various topics the company adjourned. In addition to Messrs. Hubner, Cone, Hanway, Condon and Rice, there were present from Baltimore Judge A. B. Patterson, Messrs, Geo. M. Bokee, Sol. King, J. B. Parkinson and J. Y. Brattan, of the Baltimore Sun: J. Wesley Guest, Cashler of the Cit-izens' National Bank: Wm. M. McIntyre, E. D. Crook, George Baker. From Towson-Judge N. C. Burke, Samuel J. Robinson, Wm. H. Ruby, Wm. M. Isanc, Capt. Charles B. McClean, County Surveyor R. M. Isaac, Henry L. Bowen, S. C. Tomay, John W. Shanklin, Clerk of the Court.

Church held a fair and festival in the vacant dwelling adjoining the residence of Dr. James ii. Jarrett, on Allegany Avenue, the past week which was liberally patronized by the citizens of the town, and was a success financially as well as in other respects. The ladies feel especially grateful to all who gave them assistance, whother by gifts or otherwise. The several rooms in the house were gaily decorated with flowers, evergreens, ribbons, banners, &c., and the whole presented a very attractive appearance. The numer ous tables were well and ably officered by a full corps of matrons and young ladies who graced the flair with their charming presence each night. The tables and those in charge were as follows:

Shane Items.—We are having some very pleasant weather. The farmers are still planting corn. Some are working their corn the second time and others are not done planting. Wheat is looking well. No army worm in this section, but plenty of hog cholers.

Mr. John Gailey, of Harford county, while trying to break a yoke of young oxen, broke the neck of one of them, but did not break the other worth a cent. A short time after his son was riding a horse when it fell down and broke its neck. He don't feel so "gayly" now.

Two men from near Shane started on last Friday for Bush River to catch crabs. They returned on Bunday. One of them said them returned on a strumental and vocal, was a feature of the program. Sunday. One of them said they were fishing a unpowder Bridge, on the B. & O. R. R. How that for a fish story? Mr. John Royston, near Spark's Station, has had his handsome dwelling house re-painted and papered. E. S. Miller & Son did the work. Some of our farmers are busy taking off bark .-

What is the use of keeping dogs and doing the barking themselves? It was a mistake in regard to the lest dog "Bogus" being found. The dog that was found belonged to Mr. Nathan Rutledge. No smile from E. S. Miller. The following is the weather record for May: Warm; thunder gust in evening. Clear and cool. Warm, with rain showers. Heavy rain; warm. Clear and warm. Monkton Items.—Mr. Charles W. Kay, a well-known engineer on the N. C. R. R., and Mr. James Albert Kay, of Freelands, have been here on a visit to their aged mother, Mrs. Nancy Kay.
We are glad to state that Mrs. Ida Merryman, of his place, who has been critically ill the past fortnight, is now recovering and able to sit up at times. Mr. Howard Krout, also of this place, an operator on the N. C. R. R., who has been very low with inflammation of the bowels, is slowly getting around Mr. Frank Pitts, a young fireman on the N. C. R. likewise of this place, who had a severe attack measles, will be able to go to work in a few days. The many friends of Mrs. Daniel Alder, of Corbett Station, a lady well known and much respected in the county, will be sorry to learn of her extreme illness. She was taken some time ago with a grippe, which developed in other diseases. The aged sufferer is constantly attended by Drs. r. D. Mitchell and son, and everything that human science can suggest is done for her relief. She is somewhat easier at this writing, but exceedingly Miss Laura Boyd, of Baltimore, paid a flying visit to some friends here on last Sunday and hastened back to the city on Monday. The strawberry festival and entertainment which was held here on Thursday and Friday nights, May 29th and 30th ult., for the benefit of the Sunday School and Loyal Temperance Legion was a venture was returned. The act recently passed by the Legislature giving magistrates in Baltimore county increased jurisdicion in petty cases will prove beneficial to the taxpromptly. A few days ago a colored boy was arrested for assault and battery upon a white man, the State officer having waived his right of trial in the case. The boy confessed a plea of guilty of common assault, the prosecuting witness not being anxious to appear, and the youth of the defendant (he being only 16) and his previous good record and his promise to be a better boy in the future, inf this station for the month of May to the Company, shows that the income from freight and the sale of tickets amounted to nearly thirteen hundred dollars. Black Horse Items .- Mr. Wm. H. Norris has and a beautiful and costly monument erected over the grave of his daughter, Miss Clara Norris, at Wesley Chapel Cemetery. She is the first one buried in the new and beautiful grave yard. There were meetings held at Bethel several days last week. Large congregations were present each Mr. Edward Amos, who resided near here not ong since, but now living in Baltimore, had his norse stolen one day last week. He found him five miles out of town. Fortunately We acknowledge the kind invitation to the commencement of the Law Class at Lyceum Hall Charles St., extended to us through C. Ross Mace, Esq. Mr. Mace was one of the members of the Graduating Class, and his wide circle of friends most heartly congratulate him, likewise trusting he may succeed in business. Rev. J. H. S. Clarke, Messrs, Jos. Volz and C. R. Maco are engaged at the census work in this District (12th.) SANCHO. Rosedale News .- The rainsform of the 26th ult. lestroy ed a bridge on the farm of Mr. Patrick Sinnott; moved the bridge on the Philadelphia Pike, at Kahler's, six feet from its moorings, and washed away the abutments of the new bridge over the stream crossing the Red House Road, which has recently been opened to the public. The bridge over the stream crossing the Pike was repaired im-mediately by Mr. Fred Bohlen, and it is hoped by the residents hereabouts that the Road Supervisors will have the last-named bridge repaired at once, as the road is now closed to the public.

On the same evening Mr. Michael Gegner met with a sad accident. Mr. G. was returning from the city in his market wagon and while passing over a rough part of the road the wagon joited and he was thrown under the wheels, which passed over his face cutting it in several places. He is still seriously ill, but hopes are entertained of his recovery.

Drunk and Disorderly in Towson,-On Wednesday, 4th inst., two men who gave their names as Harry Biggs and John Barron were arrested by Officers Sylvester Bowen and James Hutchins on the charge of being drunk and disorderly. They were taken before Justice A. W. Perrie, where they became somewhat abusive and were disposed to resist the officers, but were cautioned against resistance. Finally Barron went bail for the appearance of Biggs before the Justice to answer the charge on Monday next. Barron made oath that he was the owner of real estate in Towson for which he paid $275, and the improvements thereon had run up to $1,000. Another party went security for Barron's appearance to answer the charge. It is stated by parties that the language and behavior of two drunken men-white and black-on the public street in Towson on Tuesday night, about 9 o'clock, was reprehensible in he extreme. The oaths uttered were of the most filthy character, and could be plainly heard by ladies and others who were compelled to listen or securely close their houses. No officers appeared in sight anywhere at the time, but learning of it hortly after found who they were. On Wednesday morning warrants were secured for Biggs and Charles Johnson, colored. They were taken before Justice Perrie who released them upon bail. There were two charges against Johnson—one for drunk and disorderly, and another for resisting the officer. Towson Lodge, 79, I. O. O. F.—In accordance with the previsions of law, Towson Lodge, 79, held its election for officers in their Hall, Towson, on Phursday night, 5th inst., with the following re Noble Grand—George P. DeBaugh.

Vice Grand—John H. Bevans.
Recording Secretary—W. Gill Smith.
Marshal—Wm. P. Cole. haplain-Thomas Murray. r-James Phipps.

The first three will be installed on the first meeting night in July, (3d,) by District Deputy Grand Master James E. Green. Somewhat Hurried.—On Wednesday night, 4th inst., about 12 o'clock, a young man put in an appearance at Towson and hunted up one of the Clerks of the Circuit Court and wanted him, whether or no, to go to the Court House and issue a marriage license for him. The Clerk, while of presented a commission from the Governor, appointing him a member of the Board of Trustees of at. Mary's Industrial School for Boys of the city of Baltimore.

Clerk Green administered the required oath to each gentleman, after which each one signed the test book as a record thereof. COMMENCEMENTS.

DOAD NOTICE. For the Opening of a Public Road in the W. L. DOUGLAS' $2.25 Shoe, 19th District, Baltimore County. OFFICE OF BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS) OF BALTIMORE COUNTY, Towsontown, Md., May 27th, 1890.

Notice is hereby given, that a petition has been presented to this Board by Messrs. Adam Heinlein, J. A. Sheridan, John S. Bramble, Joseph Earice, J. V. Crouch, and other taxable inhabitants of Baltimore countymore county—
For the opening of a Public Road in the 12th District of Baltimore county, the road lying south of the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad, and leading from near Chase's Station to a point in the Middle River Neck, near the 14-Mile Crossing on said railroad, recently built by the said Baltimore Baltimore Baltimore Baltimore Baltimore Baltimore Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad Company; said road is about 1½ miles long, and is in excellent condition, being shelled its entire length, and has been built complete without any expense to the county or the taxpayers thereof. A plat of said road is filed in the office of the County Commissioners. By the opening of said road as a county road the public convenience will be greatly benefitted, as it avoids and does away with two very dangerous railroad crossings on the old county road. Your petitioners also pray to have the old county to the 14-Mile or Stone's Crossing, as to continue said road any longer as a county road would be a useless expense to the county, the new road having entirely taken the place of the old one.

It is thereupon, this 27th day of May, 1890, ordered that Messrs. William H. Walters, James J. Jones and John S. Hays, three disinterested taxpayers of the 12th District of Baltimore county, be and they are hereby appointed Examiners on the road named in the aforegoing petition, to meet on the premises. on Thursday, June 19th, A. D. 1890, At 10 o'clock A. M., Make an examination and report to this Board whether or not the public convenience requires the granting of said petition in accordance with the
