Ford's Grand Opera House-- Last Week of the Beason--June 16th, the Carleton Opera Company in Two Great Operas. "Nanon" and "Queen's Lace Handkerchief."-The Carleton Opera Company, notwithstanding the intense neat of last week, met with substantial success and the leading members were cordially greeted every evening and had to respond to numerous enores; they were so well up in the opera- as to make the performance of more than usual enjoyment. The Opera House was refreshingly cool and comortable, owing no doubt to the fact that no gas is used in its lighting and a almost perfect system of ventilation prevailing throughout the entire house. This week, during the first three nights, the company will appear in "Nanon," a melodious and a | St Luke, at Sparrow Point, of which the Rev utiful opera, in which Mr. Carleton and his associates have won distinguished popularity. On Thursday, Friday and Saturday there will be a revival of the "Queen's Lace Handkerchief." in which all the company appear with especial advantage. The lobby at Ford's with its potted plants, viner, ferns, fountains, etc., is a scene of loveliness, and during the intermissions many gentlemen stroll in to talk and to listen to Prof. Fisher's delightful olos on the plano. The prices have been placed on the summer scale of 25 cents admission; 50 cents reserved seats. This week closes the regular season at Ford's Grand Opera House, when it will undergo various i improvements for the regular Fall and Winter sea-

Short Turn and Sharp Sentence .- Rail road companies have suffered so much from petty thieving that a sharp example once in a while may do some good. On the 10th inst. a young man, 22 years old, who gave his name as Joseph Griffin, but who proved to be Joseph Gasson and who had been an inmate of the House of Refuge until he was 21 years of age, was tried before Judge Burke on the parge of stealing a brass box from a car of the altimore and Ohio Railroad Company at a siding near Mt. Winans. From the testimony it appears near Mt. Winans. A Serious Accident to Mrs. Geo. Thatcher -A telegraphic dispatch from Plainfield, N. J atates that Mrs. Geo. Thatcher, wife of the well known minstrel, while driving out in a village cart with her little child, on Monday evening, 9th inst., met with a serious accident. The horse became frightened at a passing train and ran away; the horse struck a fence and Mrs. Thatcher and the child were thrown over the fence, Mrs. Thatcher escaping with but a slight hurt while the little girl it is stated received fatal injuries. By a letter received from Mr. Thatcher by his relatives in Towson, it is learned that the little girl received but slight injury, while Mrs. Thatcher is rapidly recovering.

Destruction of Fox Hounds.-The pack of fox hounds, numbering 30, belonging to the Radnor Kennel, at Bryn Mawr, on the line of the Pennsylvania Railroad, a short distance from Philadelphia. have been poisoned with strychnine. During a hunt some weeks since one of the pack had strayed off and had been bitten by some mad dog. As the infected dog had returned and was with the pack. and showed signs of rables, he was promptly killed. t was soon thereafter developed that others of the pack were also affected. So it was determined that the entire pack should be killed. As it was desired to make the death as merciful as possible, Dr. Hui-dekoper prescribed strychnine, which killed them

We Are Pining for It On the York Road.-Both branches of the City Council on Tuesday night 10th passed resolutions granting permission to the Baltimore, Pimlico and Pikesville Railway Company to erect poles for an overhead electric system for the propulsion of its cars from Retreat street over the entire route within the city limits. The people out on the York Road are pining for just such an order for the York Road Railway .-Neat iron posts in the city and ordinary poles in the county will be acceptable out the York Road. and spirited manner, reflecting much credit upon Anything, gentlemen, anything to get rid of the present slow time and interminable dust.

Baltimore county adjoining and in the vicinity o

the Arlington Driving Park, on the Reisterstown Road, at Arlington, just without the city limits, that "pool playing," which was broken up in the city, by the recent legislative enactment has been established at the Park. There are now three races each week, upon which occasion the Western Maryland Railroad Company runs an extra train. Thus far it is said about one hundred and fifty person attend each race. It is stated that "pool" in all ts glory is played before and during the races .-Though the citizens of the locality named may dislike it that pools are thus made and sold, yet by the annexed law passed by the Legislature it will be seen the members seem to have the right to "It shall be unlawful for any person or persons, or association of persons, to bet, gamble or make books and pools on the result of any trotting race or running race of horses, or race of any kind, or cocking main, or any base ball match or contest of any kind, or to establish, keep, rent, or use, or knowingly suffer to be used or occupied any house. building or portion of a building, vessel or place on land or water, for the purposes of making or selling therein any book or pool, or otherwise betting or gambling, or of permitting gambling or betting therein or thereon upon the result of any trotting race or running race of horses, or race of any kind, or cocking main, or any base ball match, or any election or contest of any kind: Provided, however, that nothing in this section shall prevent pool-making, book-making or betting on horse races on the grounds of any Agricultural Association in this State during the days on which the fairs of such Association shall actually be held, or upon any race course or driving parks in this State. Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be subject to a fine not exceeding $500, one half to go to the informer, or imprisemment in fail for a period of not less than ix months nor more than one year." Notwithstanding the above (especially the words intended that the wretched pool rooms which were broken up in Baltimare city, should be transplanted anywhere in the State. We learn that the residents of the neighborhood of Arlington are determined to test the law in the Courts. There is a formidable array of them and they comprise many of the most prominent citizens of that locality. Church Dedication at Sparrow Point .- On Sunday last, 8th inst., the new Catholic Church o Thomas D. Leonard is the pastor, was dedicated with appropriate religious ceremonies by Cardinal Gibbons. The Cardinal was met on his arrival at the Point by Maj. Luther S. Bent, Col. W. S. Franklin, Rufus K. Wood and Father Lanahan and conducted to the hotel, where refreshments were served. The Cardinal then proceeded to the church, where he was received by the uniformed societies. The latter formed into a circle as the Cardinal, having donned his vestments, proceeded slowly around the church sprinkling holy water on the walls and blessing the edifice. He was preceded by acolytes bearing candles and chanting the "Te Deum." The Cardinal was escorted by Monsignor Edward Mc-Colgan and Revs. John T. Gaitley, Owen B. Corrigan, George W. Devine, J. D. A Mission at St. Francis' Church.—The Rev. First Criminal Case .- On the 10th inst. a Father Timothy, of the Passionist Monastery, on the a sermon each morning and a sermon and bene-diction at night through the week, concluding with high mass on to-morrow, (Sunday) at 10.30 A. M. Father Timothy is a member of one of the most austere orders in the Catholic Church. They live on the plainest food and in the plainest manner their studies. This is regrettable. A new branch ailroad is being surveyed from the Baltimore and Harrisburg Road at a point near Alesia to Rockdale Mill, a distance of four miles. The following are the Directors of the new road : Messrs. G. V Hoffman, Charles Zeigler, J. B. Brown, J. W. Hoffman, G. M. Fultz, J. A. Frederick, W. E. Hoffman and J. F. Shaver. Rockdale Paper Mill is one of the leading establishments of this kind in the State; therefore it is readily seen the advantage of such

There is a considerable amount of building going on in the District. We suppose our good people are being encouraged by the "Silver Bill" in Congress. Messis, J. B. Kidd, J. H. Trabert, C. S. Kidd, Wm. Zeigler, P. S. Cross and R. N. Trabert are each erecting new barns. Mr. J. W. Gore is putting quite an attractive ad dition to his dwelling house, as also is Mr. T. J. Our census enumerators are progressing rapidly with their work. They expect to complete their arduous labors within the prescribed time. They are men of tact and consequently will be ready for any emergency which may arise. The first pic-nic of the season was held at Middletown by the M. E. Sunday School on last Saturday. There were two visiting schools in attendance-the Baptist School of Eklo. and the U. B. School of Rayville. Speeches were made by the of the work: Rev. W. F. Roberts and Dr. Monroe, of Parkton .-A very enjoyable occasion was had. Children's Day was celebrated at the Baptist Church, Eklo, on last Sabbath. The exercises were in charge of Mr. Jesse N. Daily, Superintendent, Mr. H. M. Gore as Musical Director. Miss Bailey presided at the organ. With such a degree of perfection were the recitations rendered that to make special mention of any in particular without naming all would be injustice, and as space will not allow this, therefore we refrain. As Mr. Gore is acknowledged as one who knows just how to manage this part of a program, therefore the singing was not a whit behind the recitations in its perfec Children's Day will be duly observed at the M. E Church, Middletown, on next Sabbath. This will also be another intellectual treat to those who appreciate this grand cause. Therefore, we would say to the public in this community, "turn out," and thus encourage the "little folks" in their work of labor and love.

Dear Journal :- As the correspondence of the ith and 8th Districts have made their bow in the family history roll, your correspondent thought it proper to make some mention of the worthy farmers and neighbors of Highlands, south of Fair-The The Murray's Farms, now owned and occu pied by B. Murray Gill, lie on the Sunny Hill and Woodensburg Roads, and consists of about 250 acres. It occupies a most elevated position of the Grampian Hills and commands an extensive view for many miles in every direction. The lands are in prime condition. The mansion and outbuildings have lately undergone repairs. This estate was a grant from Lord Baltimore to Christopher Murray in 1775. Since that time it has remained in by intermarriage, thus antedating the Revolutionary times and showing a strength of purpose on the part of these worthy descendants to maintain this good old family honor intact to date. While the Gills are all more or less connected from a family standpoint, still this branch of the family name and reputation in Gill netting. The Murray | trip North. Well, I must tell you that the Norrisville Silver Cornet Band held a fontival at New Park, York county, on Saturday, 7th inst., which eclipsed any gathering that ever was held in this locality. I am sorry to say that the raven of hatred, malice and spite croaked most dismally and predicted direful things, and a few familiar faces of this place were conspicuously absent-nothing more. But the young men with their fair companions turned out en masse from far and near, and as your correspondent entered the greve he was "tooken down," not expecting to see anything but probably a hundred persons or so, but when he saw the spacious woods filled to repletion and yet more coming, his enthusiasm got the better of his judgment and gave a regular old-fashion rebel yell. The crowd was vast in proportions and good-natured, except a certain "Jack" who yelled lustily for the boys to come and buy.—
The cream and strawberries vanished like ice under a July sun, and likewise the money in our pockets, and as the hour of midnight advanced very rapidly the Sunday School auctioneer sold a small balance of strawberries, candy and cakes, the whole amounting to $101.00. When the end of the festival came the boys discovered that they had achieved a brilliant success, and as they had gone from home under a cloud they entered "My Maryland" with sweet Luna beaming down upon them with her sweetest mile, and found that they were as happy and proud as Capsar when returning from his greatest achievement. Success to you boys, and may you keep on

So one of the Board want to the books, over which they poured two to three hours, ported convalescing. The law should be imperative, that when a man sells a piece of property he should be required to notify the County Commissioners thereof: to whom sold; how much sold and the price. The County Commissioners can then enter the same upon their books, and the proper owner receive the bill for him. He has now gone to Cumberland City for a taxes. This would save a vast amount of trouble, few days where he is engaged to give a number of all harsh feelings, and sometimes some very ugly words.

The Germania Riding Club.-The Germania Riding Club had their usual summer opening day at the Club grounds at Parkville, on the Bel Air Road, on the 8th inst. They were thirty-eight members mounted in line under command of Capt. Jacob Klein. They presented an attractive appearance on the road in their summer outfits of blue-braided coats, white trousers, leather leggings and linen helmets. On horseback were: Captair Colonel H. C. Fireworks were sent off in the afternoon, and a band of music enlivened the occasion. Later in the evening a number of gentlemen happened to drop in on the members, though the affair was only for those in the organization with their families. Among these were: Messrs. Harry C. Cox, Colonel Parry Lee Downs, John Henry Keene, Francis Denmead, Charles Hildebrand, George Wiessner and others, some of whom are passive members of the Club. A good dinner was served on the lawn, and all seemed to enjoy them-A shooting match with small rifles was the most interesting feature of the day. Handsome prizes were given the ladies, and useful ones to the men. The successful ones were: Ladies—lat prize, Miss Bauernschmidt; 2d Miss, Elia Schwartz; 3d, Miss Peters; 4th, Miss Amelia Bauernschmidt; 5th, Miss Vallmer, and 6th, Miss Baker. —The family of the late George Hawkins Williams have had a tombstone of unique design and artistic conception carved, the handiwork of Mr. Geo. Harris, a young man who has shown a wonderful proficienty in his chisel work in marble. He is in the employment of the well known marble works of Merses. Hugh Sisson & Son, Baltimore. The following description of the monument taken from the Ballimore Sun will give some idea of the excellence "The headstone has just been completed. It is in the form of a large white cross imbedded in a base of rocks. Clustering thickly over it are stalks of superb Easter lilies. The material is of pure white Attituary marble from Vermont, and the whole de sign is cut from a single block. It is a splendid piece of relief work, and is considered by Mr Sisson the finest specimen of its kind he has ever had executed. Resting against the cross are two slender, leaty stalks, bursting at the top into fullbloom and budding lilies. Over the footstone a great bunch of the flowers falls gracefully. The blossoms are remarkably natural-looking and are grouped with exquisite grace. Those on the main stone are substantial in their carving, more so, most likely, than they would have been if designed from an art work merely instead of being subjected to the uncertainties of the weather. In the purity of the marble in its present state the exquisite fair ness of the lilies is brought out strikingly, while the creamy tint in the depths of the petal-cups adds even more to the effect. Their graceful repose is perfect, yet they look as if ready to wave in the breeze. The carver has also done good work as a sculptor of figures, but his forte is flowers, and his

Sunday Base Ball Near Baltimore.-The first game of professional base ball ever played on Sunday in the vicinity of Baltimore, took place on Sunday 8th inst. at Acton's Park, Anne Arundel county, which is reached by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, as well as by the Blue line of cars across the Long Bridge. Over 8,000 spectators were present. It is stated action will be taken by the Anne Arundel authorities in reference to the matter, and it is likely the players may be arrested .-The Baltimores and the Washingtons from Washington, D. C., engaged in the contest. The score was—Washington 5, Baltimore 4. It is stated to be the opinion of Attorney General Whyte that the participants can be held for a violation of the Sun day laws, on the charge of "working on Sunday."
If both clubs were arrested it would number abou about 25, and if a 85 fine for working on Sunda was imposed on each person it would amount $125.00. As everybody was compelled to pay cents admission the receipts would be over $4,000. The managers would thus be very glad to pay $125 fine in order to make $3,875. Working on Sunda is all that could likely be made out of it, and it not known that this even can be done. The Baltimore Presbytery .- The members of the Baltimore Presbytery met at Catonsville Church ho past week. The members were entertained by the Rev. J. G.
