Election, Tuesday, November 4th, 1890. CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO CANAL. Under the recent able opinion of Chief Justice Alvey, of the Court of Appeals, the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal will soon be sold. Messrs. John K. Cowen and S. Teackle Wallis, counsel for the bondholders of 1878, and Attorney-General Whyte visited Hagerstown on Wednesday, when Judge alvey signed a decree for the sale. The Board of Public Works passed an order recommending Mr. Thomas M. Lanahan of Baltimore as one of the trustees to make

Judge Alvey's opinion stated that the bondholders of 1844 had no claim upon the corpus of the Canal, merely upon its revenues. And as there are no revenues, they would seem to be cut out. Whether there will be an appeal from the decree by the bondholders of 1844, or whether the contest of these bondholders will take place over the distribution of the pur chase money after the sale, remains to be seen. There is some talk that the Washington and Cumberland Railroad Company will abandon the benefits of the Act of 1890, transferring to them the State's interest in the canal. This is not unlikely, as the Act itself is exceedingly questionable, and then it involves the payment of certain sums to the bondholders of 1844, who, under Judge Alvey's decision have no interest. It is likely that the Cumberland and Washington Company will take no steps to get possession of the State's mortgage until after the sale. If the price of the Canal is not run up over the $600,000 required to pay the mortgage of 1878, then the law of 1890 will be abandoned. If the price goes up beyond what the Washington and Cumberland Company would have to pay under the Act, then the attempt will probably be made to use it. INSINCERE REPUBLICANS.

Last winter when the Election and Austra lian ballot reform bills were before our Legislature the Republicans had a spasm of virtue and demanded a new election law, as well as the Australian ballot law, and now that we have both, the Republican Executive Committee of Baltimore City are about to take steps to test the constitutionality of the law before the Courts. There is no complaint that both | dinner at McDonald's Hotel previous to the Conthe above laws are not proper and will very fairly carry out the wishes of the people. Mr. John M. THE TAX ON TIN.

The people of the United States pay into the National Treasury annually $10,000,000 as a tax upon the tinware they use, and now the Republican party has increased that tax to the amount of $25,000,000 to benefit a syndicate of Englishmen who own the only tin mine there is in the United States in South Dak ota. The money contributed by the Knights of Labor for their brethren who struck upon the New York Central Railroad has arrived at Albany. Some of the men received the enormous sum of $1.25, others received $2.50 for five weeks of idleness. To say those Knights are mad does not express the situation. The Committee retired and reported in thirty min-utes through the chairman, Hon. Henry Vanderford, the following resolutions:

The Democracy of the Second Congressional District of Maryland in Convention assembled heartly commend our Representative in the present Congress for his sturdy opposition by voice and vote against the arbitrary measures of the Republican majority; for his efforts against the unjust tariff bill, and particularly for his efforts against the increased tax on tin, in the interest of the whole people, but especially the canning industry, which is so closely allied to agriculture and upon which so large a number of our people are dependent.
We arraign the Republican party for a violation of its promises of tariff revision and civil service reform; for its wasteful extravagance that has exhausted the surplus of $100,000,000; made a deficit of $50,000,000 for the present fiscal year probable; for unseating duly elected representatives of the people without cause merely to consummate its infa ous schemes; for its attempt to deprive the people of their right to elect, untrammeled, their representatives, by a Force Bill that has passed one branch of Congress; for its financial policy that is now threatening a panic, and for its legislation for the millionaires and an utter disregard for the rights of the people and their interests.

We declare our earnest opposition to a system of taxation that lays the many under tribute for the benefit of the few, and favors taxation to meet the legitimate needs of government, believing the rate necessary to produce the required sum sufficient and ample to fully cover the difference between the

DEFAUCATING ATTORNEYS. We regret exceedingly to be obliged to frequently record in the columns of the JOURNAL accounts of defalcations (shortages they are called) of young members of the bar, especially, having in charge estates in trust. These shortages (in plain English, thefts) are no doubt the result of the rash spirit of speculation which now so terribly afflicts a certain class of the American people. It seems that the temptation cannot be resisted at the present day to use the money of other people to speculate in stocks and thus gain a quick and handsome return and pocket the difference arising therefrom or even to go to the gambling table and there risk large sums with the hope of winning and then return the amount "borrowed" and no one be the wiser thereof. But, alas! things do not favorably materialize, the result is the other way, all is lost. Then more money is taken to recover what was lost before, and more is lost; and so it goes on until exposure is the inevitable result and disgrace and ruin wind up the scene, with, nine cases out of ten, the distressed wife and family to bear the

The latest shortage of this character we have to report is that of Mr. George R. Gies. Mr. John G. Goodmanson is the son-in-law of Mrs. Gies, who is the widow of Wm. F. Gies. Gott stated to Mr. Goodmanson that he had the fund invested and Mr. Goodmanson petitioned the Court that the Baltimore Guarantee and Trust Company should be appointed Trustee in place of Gott. Mr. Gott named Tuesday 9th inst. to transfer the securities. In the meautime, however, he left the State, and his whereabouts are not now known. Mrs. Gott is much distressed on account of the disclosures and her husband's absence. Further developments will no doubt add still more paid and grief to his distressed

It is a fashion to roundly abuse Trust and Security Companies acting as trustees in the care and distribution of estates. But what stronger arguments in their favor could possibly be used than these constantly recurring "shortages." It is scarcely possible to corrupt an entire trust company, but the public witnesses the frequent recent peculations of trustees where one person alone has control of them in trust. Trust companies are now being | Some Illustrations of How the Consume very often used in the settlement of estates, and frequent defalcations strengthens the coufidence of the public in them.
