Ford's Grand Opera House,-Week of September 29th--Kefined Novelty, Mark's International Vaudevilles.—This successful and pleasing entertainment will appear for the first time in Baltimore during the week of September 29th a Ford's Grand Opera House. The performance is bright, new and refined throughout, and was given in Philadelphia last week to crowded houses. Of the performance the following from the Public Ledger will give a slight hint: The International Vaudevilles appeared at the Chestnut Street Theatre last evening, to the great enjoyment of the audience, presenting a variety show of high order. It is a strong company. Mons. Leonce gave an excellent exhibition of juggling. and Lieutenant Travis, the ventriloquist, showed uncommon mastery of his specialty. The xylo phone performance of 'The Natuskies' was a musical treat, heartly encored. The contortion acts of the Borani Brothers were really wonderful, displaying surprising agility and suppleness. The Avolos ttwo boys, evidently younger than 16 years, the age announced on the bill) gave an excellent horizontal bar performance. Miss Minnie Cunningham sang pleasingly and danced gracefully. John W. Ransome gave some funny imitations, and Cazman, the 'shadowgraphist,' and Mons. Aldow, the prestidigitateur, furnished entertaining 'turns.' In flue, the show' was an excellent one of its class."

Matinees-Wednesday and Saturday. October 6th-Francis Wilson, the merry comedian. 'The Merry Monarch." Killed by a Blow .- On Friday afternoon, 19th inst., George Rudolph, who was employed at the canning factory of Wm. M. Emmart, on the Dogwood Road, 2d District, Baltimore county, was killed by a blow struck by a man named Simpson. who walked off after he struck Rudolph. Justice James B. Heisse, of Hebbvirle, was notified and held an inquest. The witnesses examined were: Wm. M. Emmart, manager of the factory, Mrs. Annie Plitt, the dead man's sister, and her husband, Albert Plitt, all of whom witnessed the killing which occurred in the factory office, and was about the food and sleeping accommodations which the three hired men were to have received. Mr. Emnart said that Rudolph had brought the men from Baltimore in the morning, and when they were shown their sleeping apartments they expressed dissatisfaction. They did no work, and were quarreisome all the morning. At about 1 o'clock in the afternoon they went to the office. One of them, approaching Rudolph, exclaimed, "Take that!" and struck him a terrible blow on the breast. Rudolph fell dead. At the moment no one imagined he was dead. Mrs. Plitt upbraided her brother's assailant for his brutality and shielded the dead man from further blows. She scratched the assailant on the face, and Simpson then walked off with his associates. The Plitts turned their attention to Rudolph, whom they had supposed was only stunned by the blow. They could not realize for some time that he was dead. Dr. Thomas K. Barber, who made a superficial examination, testified that the blow was the cause of death, and the jury rendered a verdict in accor dance with the testimony of Dr. Barber. Warrants were issued for the arrest of Simpson and the other men who were with him, and on Saturday morning two of the men were arrested near London Park Cemetery. At the Southwestern Station one of the men gave his name as Major Frank Moore and the other as John H. North. Moore, after he was locked up, said his name was Simpson, and that he was from Norfolk, where he had relatives. simpson is young and has sandy hair and mustache, and North, who is an Englishman, is about ten years his senior. As soon as they were locked up the other station houses were notified of the went to the Southwestern Station, and when they saw Simpson Mrs. Plitt exclaimed, "That is the man who murdered my brother!" Simpson tremoled like a leaf. It was his first knowledge that he had killed Rudolph. The scratch that Mrs. Plitt gave simpson was still on his face. Mrs. Plitt told olice Captain Baker that her brother had hired the men in the eastern section of the city to work at the factory. For a time they were to work at skinning tomatoes, after which they were to receive a dollar a day for other labor. Shortly after the arrest of Simpson and North John B. Kahler, the third man, was arrested in Baltimore. At 5 o'clock Justice Helsse arrived in the city and committed all three of the arrested men to the Towson Jail for the action of the Grand Jury. Simpson confessed to the Justice before the trie were taken to Towson that he had struck the fatal blow. Rudolph, the dead man, was 28 years old He leaves a wife and five children, the youngest being less than a week old. The prisoners were brought to Towson by Deputy Sheriff George (

Green Spring Valley Tournament .- On Fri

Preston, of Baltimore, in that masterly manner for which he is noted, and the coronation address by Mr. Jervis Spencer.

The coronation and the ball following was held in the Red Men's Hall, at Pikesville, at night and was largely attended. Prof. Burgoyne's Band, of Towson, furnished music for the tournament, and an orchestra from Baltimore the music for the The officers of the tonrnament wore as follows Marshals Capt. Adolphus Cooke and Geo. H. Elder; Judges, Wm. Fell Johnson Dr. L. H. Naylor and Randolph Barton; Heralds, Jas. Lyon Rogers and A Runaway Near Towson.-On Tuesday, 23d inst., a pair of horses driven by a colored man to a heavy express wagon belonging to Mr. Robert Feast, of Towson, became frightened on Charle street at the sudden appearance of a man from under the bridge over which they were passing and made a sudden, short turn in the road, breaking the wagon pole and throwing the driver out. The frightened horses started on a run for Towson with the wagon. On their way back they struck the phicton of Mr. R. R. Boarman, in which were seated Misses Isabelle Boarman and Sylvene Slingluff breaking both wheels of the photon. Both young ladies were thrown out. Miss Boarman held on to ine lines and was dragged some distance, when the driver of Mr. Feast's wagon came to their rescue and stopped the horse. The young ladies walked back home. They escaped with a few slight bruises and scratches. The runaway horses continued on their way until they ran against the wagon of Mr. Peter Ruhl, near Mr. J. H. Linzey's saloon, in Towson, where one of the hirses was thrown by the collision and before he recovered his feet the team was secured by the by-standers. Strange to say the horses did not receive the least injury, although they ran nearly two miles up hill and down with the wagon attached and the jagged end of the broken pole swinging between them.

Resignation of Mr. A. D. Sanks.-Mr. A. D. Sanks, who has been in the employ of the York Road Railway Company for the past 27 years as Agent, (for several years past being Superintendent of both the turnpike and the railway,) has resigned to take effect on the 1st of October. It s announced Mr. Sanks will be retained to look after the turn pike alone. During all the long service of Mr. Banks he has been faithful to the interests of the Company, and mindful of the comforts and conveniences of the travelling public. He was an earnest advocate of the placing of the stoves in the cars, and for several years past was also an advocate o the reduction of the fare to its present amount, believing it would increase the receipts of the Company, which is now acknowledged to be the fact. Mr Hanka has also been a warm advocate of rapid transit which he urged for many years past, but the Directors did not carry out his suggestions. I is believed that rapid transit is close at hand; in deed, it must needs be if we expect this beautiful country to become what it should be-the most pleasant and easily accessible suburban residence Remanded to the Custody of the Sheriff.— Michael T. Dorsey, who is confined under sentence in Towson Jail for violating the liquor license law at Sparrow Point, sued out a writ of habeas corpus before Judge Harlan, of Baltimore City Court, through his counsel, Mr. T. C. Ruddel, and Messrs. Thomas J. Campbell, Deputy State's Attorney for Baltimore city, and Frank I. Duncan, State's Attorney for Baltimore county, appeared for the State. Dorsey had been sentenced by Judge Fowler to pay a fine of $500 for violating the liquor license law Judge Fowler afterward changed the sentence to $300 fine and five months in Jail. Under the first sentence Dorsey could have been discharged from Jail by pleading that he was unable to pay the fine. Judge Harlan decided that if there had been an or in the sentence imposed on the prisoner he had his redress by suing out a writ of error to be determined by the Court of Appeals at Annapolis, and therefore his remedy was not by habeas corpus. He was remanded to the custody of the Sheriff of Baltimore county.

Accidentally shot .- On Wednesday, 24th inst. Mr. Louis Muller was shot in the right arm by the accidental discharge of his gun while gunning at Back River. When starting for shore in a boat after shooting, one of the guns which was lying in the boat with the barrels resting on the seat, was discharged by a jar. Mr. Muller, who was in front of the gun, caught the charge in his right arm. The flesh was badly torn. He was brought to Baltimore and afterward taken to his country home, on the Frederick road, opposite St. Joseph's College. Dr. Holliday was called and dressed the arm. M.: Muller's condition is not considered serious.

M. P. Church Rounion at Loreley Park, Wednesday, 24th inst., was a great day for the re-union and pic-nic held at Loreley Park. Tables for dinner were spread on the verandas of a large stone clubbouse near Big Gunpowder station. Rev. J. P. Wilson, Chairman of the Committee of Arrangements. made an address. The other members of the committee were Rev. Wm. H. Dell, J. Frank McBee, J. A. Sheridan, J. C. Touchstone, Charles Hughes, James Cannoles, Grant Scymour, C. A. Parks, Wm, Merriken and J. C. Bell.

A Verdict for $2,000.—The jury in the case of Henry Parks against The Baltimore and York-town Turnpike Company on the 2ith inst. rendered with about a dozen of their friends, went to Elkton town Turnpike Company on the 2ith inst. rendered a verdict of $2,000 in favor of Mr. Parks. This was a case wherein Mr. Park's who was driving a team along the pike in March 1888 and was thrown from his saddle mule and had one of his legs broken in two places. It appears that after the large pipes which had been put down for the temporary water supply of laltimore city were taken up about two miles porth of Towers, that there was a department of the supple of the field to find that they had a picked nine to contend with composed of five pronorth of Towson, that there was a depression in the road caused by the settling of the earth with which the trench was filled. Mr. Parks contended that his mule was thrown by stepping in this trench and that his leg was broken by the mule railing or him. The Turnpike Company sought to prove tha the mule was an animal that was subject to stumb-ling and that having been newly shod it stumbled on the road, before it ever reached the depression in the road, and hence they were not liable fo damages. The plaintiff claimed damages in $4,000 and the jury awarded him one half of the amount. Maj. John I. Yellott and Col. Milton W. Offutt appeared as counsel for the plaintiff. Henry Parks.

District, for treatment, and, as he was evidently suffering, the doctor sent him to the John Hopkins Hospital, in Baltimore, where he was received. In a short while symptons of insanity developed and as the hospital does not treat the insane and said that he did not belong to Baltimore. On Wednesday Dr. Reese, with the man in the hospital yan, appeared in Towson and applied to the County Commissioners to have them take charge of him out as insane paupers are expensive patents to have, the County Commissioners not being sure that the man was a resident of Baltimore county, very properly declined to be burdened with his support. The doctor then sought Mr. Arthur P. Shanklin, Burke, who advised that the man be committed to all by a Justice of the Peace until a judicially in-

Overcrowded City Schools.-President Morris of the City School Board, stated at a meeting of the Board on Tuesday night 23d, that the schools in the city were overcrowded, and that a large num-ber of children who applied for admission would have to be denied. The main point seemed to be that if all who applied were admitted additional eachers would have to be employed and as the School Board has but a stipulated amount to run the schools there would be a shortage in funds at the end of the school. Last week 15,000 children in New York city were debarred admission to the public schools because there was no room for them.

The Public Schools of Baltimore county are constantly upon the increase in numbers, and as a con-sequence it puzzles the School Board how to make both ends meet. There is also a constant demand for new school houses, as well as enlargement of old houses. On every hand we hear praise of our Board for its management of the schools considering all the circumstances. A question has been raised in the city, if a man children are denied admission to the public schools whether he could be required to pay taxes. The Examination of the Treasurer's Books. -The matter of the examination of the accounts in the office of Mr. George W. Yellott, the Treasurer and Collector of Taxes of Baltimore County, came before the County Commissioners on Tuesday, 23d inst., on the declination of Mr. John Crowther Jr., to act as one of the Examiners. Mr. Crowther explained that his duties as Cashier of the Towson National Bank would not permit him to give that attention to the accounts which he deemed it necessary, but he would assist Mr. Rogers, the accountant, with any advice he may want or information that he might possess as to the nature of the ac-Mr. Yellot desires to have his accounts excounts. amined at the earliest practicable time, and then, if it be deemed necessary by the County Commissioners, the accounts of former Treasurers could be gone into. Mr. Rogers has commenced his work. t is stated that the Grand Jury is waiting for the erification of the accounts before commencing the investigation into the safe robbery. John Learned the Thimble Game .- On last Saturday night, 20th inst., John Forman, g dusky resident of Owings' Mills, went to Baltimore to have a good time. On his arrival in the city he stepped into a saloon where he met a lot of congenful companions, who opened up a little thimble game. Forman put $2 down, which soon disanpeared. Samuel Cooper was accused of having the noney, but he quickly passed it on to another .-The proprietor of the saloon, fearing there would be trouble, but the whole crowd out, and, as he did so, they walked into the arms of the police. Cooper was arrested and committed to Court by Justice

Hebb. Forman did not recover his money, and went back home much wiser than he came. Against the Revenue Laws .- Mr. John ' Ensor, U. S. District Attorney for Maryland, on the 21th inst. secured the conviction in the U. S Court of Wm. Kelly, who keeps a place on the Annapolis Road, on the charge of selling spirituous and malt liquors, tobacco and cigars without pay ing the government special tax. He was fined $100 and sentenced to sixty days in jail on one account, and $10 fine and costs in each of the other two counts. On July 4th last Kelly took possession of the porch of the unoccupied Revenue House, at the Relay, and sold whiskey, beer and cigars all day, from 9 A. M. to midnight. He had fifty kegs of beer, but claimed to have made only $22.

A Bridge Fell In.—On Wednesday, 24th inst. while the hands under the direction of Mr. R. B Hyland, Road Commissioner for the 9th District were at work taking down the old bridge on Court Lane near the Green Spring branch of the Northern Central Railway, for the purpose of replacing it by a new structure, the bridge fell, precipitating several men with it. One of the men was unscrewing a bolt, which loosened the structure. James Kearns, one of the men, who lives at Mt. Washington, was badly injured about the breast, and the other men were only slightly bruised. A horse and cart. which were on the bridge at the time, were un-

Asking for Road Improvements.-Messrs. S C. Pennington, J. Newton Gregg, J. W. Harvey, Thomas A. Symington, Blanchard Randall, Theo. G. Lurman, Herman Enis, John Gill, W. G. Bowdoin, Wm. W. Taylor, A. H. Eaton, G. A. Liebig, W. H. Gill, Norval M. Harrison, Jacob Hann, Jr., N W. James, Alex. Honey, A. F. Lawrence, J. J. Williams, John Hubner presented a petition to the County Commissioners asking for the improvement of the avenues at Paradise Park, situated on the Frederick Turnpike near Catonaville. It is stated that it will require $1,800 to put the avenues in good ondition. Cedar Avenue Bridge Open.—The fine iron bridge creeked over the Falls Road and the Northern Central Railroad, connecting Cedar Avenue with Druid Hill Park, was opened to travel on Sunday morning, 21st inst. Capt. Cassell, Superinten dent of Druid Hill Park, was the first to cross in a ehicle, which he did at 5 A. M. Persons from Tow son or the northern section using either Charles street or the York Road, will now save at least 1 miles when they desire to visit the Park by using the Cedar Avenue entrance. Formerly they were compelled to drive to the North Avenue entrance. Orangeville Items.-Work on the muck-talkedof Belt Line Railroad has been begun in earnest in the 12th District, at a place familiarly known as Duncan's Woods. The contractors, Ryan & McDonald, who have the contract for this section of the road have had transported to the above place a steam hovel and appurtenances; also, a small locomotive to be used in hauling dirt-cars in making open cuts and embankments. In a few days a large force

f men will be put to work, and then things will e pushed along at a rapid rate. Examined and Admitted .- Robert Bruce lowie, a nephew of ex-Gov. Bowie, was examined n open Court on Monday, 22d inst., by the Examing Committee of the Baltimore County Bar, lessrs. John I. Yellott and Wm. Grason, and he at 3.30 o'clock. passed a creditable examination. He took the attorney's oath before the Clerk of the Court. Mr. John W. Shanklin, and his name was placed on the roll of attorneys for the Courts of Baltimore county. s against Arthur Ford and Columbus Barry wife and Geo. C. Morgan, through Mr. E. N. Rich their counsel on the 22d inst. filed in the Circuit Court for Baltimore county a petition asking for a decree to sell a farm containing 116 acres in Baltimore county formerly belonging to the late Samuel Found and for the distribution of the proceeds. Left Leg Broken.-Wm. Reynolds, a conductor on freight on the Maryland Central Railroad, whilst engaged in shifting cars at the yards near North Avenue, at 3.30 on Sunday morning, 21st inst., had his left leg broken very badly by the coming to-gether of gondolo cars on which he was standing.

Dignan and Mrs. Parlett, mother of Mrs. Dignan Homestead, was upset near Scheutzen Park through the wheels of the carriage getting caught in the street-car tracks. Mr. and Mrs. Dignan were right badly hurt, but Mrs. Parlett escaped with a Resigned.—Rev. B. H. Latrobe, (a son of Hon ohn H. B. Latrobe,) Rector of Trinity P. E. Church Broadway and Pratt streets, Baltimore, has resigne his charge on account of fast failing health. His first charge was the Church of Our Savior, on Broadway. This church he built and paid for through his energy, and was for eleven years its pastor. Horse Killed.—On Sunday morning, 21st inst...

a veteran horse belonging to Benjamine Hicks, colored, of Towson, strayed on the tracks of the Maryland Central Railroad near the Hillen road will have the appearance of a pyramid of living crossing, and was struck by a passing train and green, beautifully relieved by the somber hue of the burr, as pretty and novel a parlor ornament as

A Horse Commits Suicide.—An aged horse the property of Mr. William Brooks, residing at Woodberry, is credited with walking into the Woodberry dam and deliberately committing sui cide. He seems to have had "horse sense." Ordained .- At St. Barnahas' P. E. Church. Ba imore, on Sunday, 21st, Bishop Paret ordained a class of eight young gentlemen for the ministry.-Among the number was A. M. Rich, son of Rev Dr. A. J. Rich, of Reisterstown.

The Devil's Here.—Col. Odom, in his Sunday afternoon address at Druid Hill Park Gate, stated that the devil had arrived in Baltimore. The Col said his satanic majesty always arrives just before "Speak Easies" in Baltimore.-The cele brated Philadelphia "speak easy" has made its appearance in Baltimore. A colored man established it, but was finally corraled by the police.

69,000 Voters.—At the registration in Baltimore city last week there were 69,000 names registered; it is claimed there are 108,000 voters in the city.

picked nine to contend with, composed of five pro-fessionals from Philadelphia and Wilmington and four amateurs from Havre de Grace and Elkton. This was enough to have unnerved the average village team and have beaten them before a ball was pitched, but the Eikton manager was afraid to trust the honor (?) and reputation of his town to such a strong guard, but added as a safe guard an umpire by the name of Huey from the town of Wilmington, who, for audaoity and dishonesty, has few, and we hope, no equals. When objection was made to his decisions and a substitute demanded, the visi-Col. D. G. McIntosh, counsel for the York Road Company filed a motion in arrest of judgment

The visitors started the scoring in the 6th inning, when Smith which will be argued at an early day; and it is probable that the case will be carried to the Court of Appeals.

Searce the scoring in the out infing, when smith reach first on Newell's fumble, went to second when Denuy gave Issac R. four bad balls, to third on George's single to right, and scored with Issac R. on Ensor's single, which Realey fumbled. I enny then The Difficulties of An Innane Man.—Some two or three weeks ago a man who gave his name as George Bennings applied to Dr. Harrison, of the 11th the 8th on Smith's double and steal and George's single. The home team scored their first run in the 8th on Gibson's hit, a passed ball, steal and Ensor's wild throw to catch him napping. Just before the home team went to the bat for their last turn, umpire Huey remarked to one of the players within have no place for such cases, and the man having no means, he was sent to Bay View Aslum, but the authorities there declined to receive him, as it was said that he did not belong to Baltimore. On roast them this time." He began by giving the first roast them this time." He began by giving the first man at the bat his base on balls. Ensor protested in the most emphatic manner, and appealed to the captain of the Elkton team to give him a new umpire, but was laughed at for his pains. After consuitation Stocksdale decided to toss the ball to the batters, and so coax them to hit it out and depend on his field to prevent them from scoring. The result was that after he had fairly struck out the side, ttorney at law, who presented the matter to Judge they lined out hits enough to tie the score, and it was only sharp fielding which prevented them from the house of the Peace until a judicially injail by a Justice of the Peace until a judicially inquiry could be had. Under this state of affairs Justice A. W. Perrie issued a commitment, and the man was put in charge of Sheriff Beckley until the investigation is had.

Withing. Huey, not rathed with his states to make the game a victory for the home team. He informed Mr. Butler, whose turn it was to call the balls and strikes, that he would perform that duty, and upon the refusal of the Towsons to allow him to do so called the game in favor of the Elkton team by the score of 9 to 0. He had no authority to call the wame nor to exercise any power whatever until a batter had hit a ball and become a base runner.—
Dr. Bratton, the manager of the Elkton Club, told the captain of the Towson's that it was too dark to play and that he did not claim a forfeit, but in this matter, as in all others connected with the game, he proved himself to be other than an honorable gentleman or else to have little or no control over his men. During the game the Towson players were continually guyed and insulted by the crowd, and in several instances threatened with bodily harm. After the visitors had left the field they were approached by a new field they were approached by the control of the field they were approached by the co proached by a number of the gentlemen of the town. who apologized most profusely for the treatment to which they had been subjected, and protested in the most forcible terms that it was not an Elkton team that was responsible for the game, and assured them that they were regarded by all fairminded persons present as the victors in a most unfair battle. The team returned home much dis-gusted with their treatment and minus their catcher's mask and several choice bats. [Through the efforts of some of the respectable citizens of Elkton, who took an interest in the matter, the mask and a bat were received at Towson by express on Thursday evening, 25th.]

Among those who accompanied the Towson players to Elkton were—H. C. Turnbull, Jr., S. C. Tomay, of the Maryland Journal; Walter B. Warner, Dr. H. S. Jarrett, Benj. P. Butler, Wm. C. Rhodes, Burklowe Brown, Edgar Mitchell, Deputy Sheriff John Combination vs. Towson at Oriole Park.-On Wednesday, 24th inst., the Towsons played their fifth game of the season against the Combinations. of Catonsville, and won their fourth victory by a score of 2 to 0. The Towson nine made a number of errors, but always managed to pull themselves together when there was any danger of their adversaries scoring. The Combinations had fewer errors, but they were very costly, besides which some of their plays showed a lack of base ball sense. Stockedale was at his best and his opponents were unable to hit him when men were on bases. McGann also did good work in the box, and had his support been better he would have com-pelled the Towsons to play more than the usual nine innings. Both catchers played beautiful ball, and it is soldom that such catching is seen on amateur teams. The umpiring of Butler and Horsey was more than fatisfactory to players and spectators, not an objection being made to any of their rulings. The game was played as a benefit for Uncle George Foy, the veteran groundkeeper of Oriole Park, who is well known to all the attendants of the Baltimore games. Uncle George is a great favorite among the Baltimore amateurs, who wish him many more successful benefits.

Sparrow Point vs. Towson,-A club from inst., with the Towson Club that was quite interesting, but the visitors were no match for the home team, although several of the best players of the Towson Club were laid off. Mr. Norman Baker, one of the regular pitchers of the Baltimore American Association Club, who is laid off with a broken wrist, came out to see the boys play, and very kindly acted as one of the umpires of the game. The game was called at the close of the 6th inning with a score of 10 to 2 in favor of the Towson Club. This was the first contest the Sparrow's Point Club has had, and put up a very good game. The players on the Sparrow Point Club were; Duke, 3d b. A.; Callendar, 1, f.; Libe, p.; Seidel, c.; J. Wright, Robert Rennert, Frank J. Allen, proprietor of the Astor House, New York, Mr. Robert C. Brown, of New York, and Mr. George G. Cornwell, of Washington. The affairs of the company are in a prosperous condition. Prepared for Winter.—Mr. Henry L. Bewen the well-known Real Estate and Life and Fire Insurance Agent of Towson, who is the owner of the "Law Building" where he has his offices, has fitted out the entire building without regard to toot with hot water heating apparatus of the latest and most approved pattern and make, so that tenants in the different offices will have no trouble with fires the coming winter.

Monkton Items.—Mr. Samual Miller has put a new roof of steel sheeting upon his blacksmith shop. The material came from the West. It makes one of the most substantial roofs known and will last for ages.

Mr. Thomas J. Miller has a large force of carpenters at work putting up another large barn on the property formerly known as the Curtis estate, about one mile east of Monkton.

Some of our folks around here are complaining that their chicken roosts are getting empty much if after than they have any reason to be. Well, we don't know, unless there is another campmeeting going on in the neighborhood of which we have not heard.

A crisis of a possible famine has been averted. The Loyal League Juvenile Temperance Union will give an entertainment on Monday evening, 29th inst., at the Menkton M. E. Church. Seats free.

Col. E. D. Roath, of Marietta, Langaster county, Pa., a brother-in-law of Mrs. Susan Young, has arrived here and will spend a couple of weeks among his relatives. The Colonel has not been very well Mr. Charles H. Prosser, of Corbett, a son-in-law of Mr. Daniel Alder, has gone to Harrisburg, Pa., and secured employment in the car works of that city. His family will move in about two weeks. The running gears of a new and very heavy wagon have arrived here manufactured at the Columbia (Pa.) Wagon Works for Mr. E. A. Young. It is mostly built of iron, and claims to be exceedingly strong and durable. The brakes are differently arranged from other wagons, and work with more safety.

Several runaways took place lately. A few days ago the horse belonging to Mr. Clarence Bosley, hitched to a light wagon in front of the store, took a start and ran about one-half mile before he was captured. The damage was slight.

On Monday evening last while Mrs. John W. Shepperd, accompanied by a lady, was driving a young horse at Corbett's it became frightened at something and run off, upsetting the buggy and throwing the occupants out, who, however, escaped with but slight injury. Not so with a canary bird which the lady carried in a cage. It also fell out, and by the time the ladies had gathered themselves together a neighboring cat captured the sweet song-He managed to have the wagon upsidedown, and had his harness wrapped around his legs when captured. Billy smiled approvingly over his success. For a reward he received an extra tomato can that night for supper. Middletown Items.—The heavy rains that have occurred recently, have washed our county roads badly, and also the fallow ground. Corn in some instances was blown nearly flat, thus not only damaging the fodber but injuring the corn considerably. Mr. J. N. Palmer, near Eklo, raised his barn on last Friday. He had quite a number of his neigh-bors together, whom he treated not only to a supper that would please the taste of the most fastidious epicure, but also to cigars, etc. Mr. P. magnanimous spirit is always exhibited on occasions of this Mr. W. The members of the Lodge assembled at their hall at 9 A. M. About 10.30 the Lodge formed in line, and preceded by Capt. Burgoyne's Towson Cornet Band, marched down the Long Green Turnpike, and thence to the grounds upon the Wilson property, (many years the property of the Haile family.) where a platform had been erected where the tournament was to take place. Here it was expected a short address was to have been delivered by a member of the order, but unloward circumstances prevented him being present. After a statement of the fact by Mr. James H. Hartly, Chairman of the Committee of Arrangements he declared a recess until 1,80, when the tournament exercises would commence. Mr. Hartly advised the people present to amuse themselves in accordance with their wishes, and it being near 12 o'clock, there was a general sauntering towards the vehicles, from whence were produced well filled baskets of deftly prepared and delicious viands of every description usually found upon pic nic grounds. The representatives of the Baltimore Sun and the Journal accepted the kind invitation of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Yellot of Long Green, to partake of an abundant supply which did not give out.
