AMUSEMENTS. Ford's Grand Opera House.—Week of Octo-ber 13th—Melody-Mirth-Minstrely.—Next Monday, October 13th., following the opera season of "The Merry Monarch," Primrose and West with their constellation will visit this city and occupy Ford's Grand Opera House. All their people will appear here, they have no other company either white or black playing elsewhere. The company coming next Monday is "one and indivisible." It has no section in the rice field-or in "Darkest! Africa." All those that Primrose and West control will appear then in this city and nowhere else. Primrose and West have ever been esteemed as progressive, liberal managers, and have always achieved success through their personal merit and the absolute excellence of their associates. Dockstader, for instance, engaged at a great salary, a man of rare accomplishments, scholarly, a brilliant mimic, reconter and improvisatore, always Stevenson, Dr. R. C. Massenburg, Samuel J. Paul Kauver, a peasant, and Diane de Reaumount, daughter of the Duke. fall in love with each other, which is distasteful to her father. The Duke has to fly from France, and the daughter decides, after a struggle, to follow her father. Marquis de Vaux, who also loves Diane, induces Paul, who is one of the leaders for the Reblic, in his irresponsible condition from grief at leaving his love, to sign a blank warrant upon which the Duke is arrested and condemned to the guillotine. Paul, in despair at finding what he has done, managers to take the Duke's place, and is led away to the block, from which, however, he is saved by an abbe, the brother of General Delaroche, whom he afterwards, in gratitude, while on parole, saves from his enemies. In a strong scene in the last act, when the mob is making things hot, Paul clears the way, shows his honor to be clear, and is reunited to his wife. The piece is crowded in every act with powerful situations.

Holliday Street Next Week .- The great play A Verdict of Manslaughter .- Henry Adams colored, was tried on the 2d and 3d inst. in the Circuit Court for Baltimore County on the charge o killing John Wilson, colored, at a pic-nic held at Catonsville on the 1st of August last. The jury ren-The shooting occurred during a pic-nic held by colored people in Catonsville Park on the night of August 1st. Wilson, the murdered man, was a member of the Catonsville brass band, which ren dered the music. Adams, whose home is in Carroll ton, in the Annex, with half a dozen other young colored men, drove to the pic-nic in a wagon. Both men had quarreled the week before at a dance a Carrollton, and it is claimed that Adams knocked Wilson down. Wilson was advised by Officer Stein acker to have Adams arrested, but Wilson replied "Never mind: when Adams comes up to Catonsville we'll fix him." One of Wilson's friends saw Adams at the Catousville pic nic, and pointed him out to Wilson. Wilson accosted Adams at the en trance to the dancing floor. An altercation fol lowed, during which Adams fired, the bullet striking in Wilson's abdomen, inflicting a wound from which Wilson died at 5 A. M. the next day. The prisoner stated that the shooting was in selfdefense. He was standing at the entrance to the dancing stand, in Catonsville Park, when Wilson accosted him and demanded to know the reason why he struck him a week before at Carrollton .-Adams denied the striking, and said he never saw Wilson before. Wilson placed his hand to his hippocket in a threatening manner, saying, "You ---_____, I'll make you know me." I then fired to

Ball, pastor, has just been completed by the contractors, Messrs, Philip Walsh & Sons, Baltimore, and was opened for the first service on Sunday morning, 5th inst. Rev. Mr. Ball announced that it would be formally dedicated when the new organ was placed in the choir gallery. The church cost $60,000, and later a parsonage to cost $15,000 will be erected, adjoining on Preston street. The seating capacity of the auditorium and galleries is into the Sunday School room the capacity can bo increased 1,600. October 14, 1889, the corner-stone was laid. The church fronts on Preston street .-The main building is 30 feet from the street, and the annex lecture room is 90 feet from Preston street. This space is terraced and covered with a green sward, and when the shrubbery grows will present an ornamental grass plat with flowers. The nterior wood work is of quartered oak, polished on the natural wood. The pulpit is handsomely carved. The exterior is of Fall's Road gneissoid sandstone, with trimmings of Ohio stone, The style of architecture is Romanesque, and the archi-tect has very successfully bleuded Grecian architecture with the Oriental in producing the proper et feet. The church is regarded as one of the handsomest in the city, its architectural beauty being much admired. The Messrs. Walsh completely carried out the ideas of the architect. A Decree as to Elm Anenue. - Judge Burke on the 6th inst. filed an opinion and order dismissing the bill of complaint in the case of Laura Lee Capron vs. Edw. M. Greenway, Jr. The suit was instituted to obtain a decree of Court requiring defendant to open Elm avenue from Merryman's lane to Twentysecond street. The plaintiff claimed that she is entitled to an easement in the proposed avenue by virthe of a covenant contained in a deed from Brown & Brune, trustees, to defendant. The property lies between Merryman's lane and Cold Spring lane, and binds on both those highways. Brown & Brune, as trustees under the will of a Mrs. McCormick, sold to defendant on February 16th, 1872, a lot of ground on Merrymany's lane, with a reservation of a right of way, and providing how the same might be opened. In June, 1873, the same trustees sold to opened. In June, 1873, the same trustees sold to Thos. P. McCormick all the land of testatrix except that which had already been conveyed to defendant. By this deed McCormick became entitled to the right of way reserved in the deed to Greenway. On November 16th, 1875, McCormick conveyed to Greenway a lot of ground between his first purchase and the land now owned by plaintiff, and embracing a part of what is now known as Elm avenue. This is an absolute fee-simple deed and contains no reserva-tion whatsoever. There being no reservation, and the opening of the road not being a necessity, the Court holds that the plaintiff is not entitled to relief, and the bill is dismissed, with costs to the de-

A Rudden Death .- On Wednesday, 8th inst John H. Hartman, who lived on the York Road, Waverly, died suddenly while in a hack on his way to Mt. Hope Asylum. When the carriage reached the Park-gate on the Pimlico road Hartman opened the door of the carriage and got out on the road. His brother-in-law, Anton Weifert, who was in the vehicle, jumped out and, with the assistance of Sergeant Moog, put the insane man back in the carriage. He made some slight resistance, but seemed exhausted and fell back on the cushion and expired shortly afterward. The relatives who were with him at the time were Mrs. Catharine Hartman, his mother; Miss Elizabeth Hartman, his elster, and his aunt, Mrs. Gertrude Holtman.

An Accident to Two Young Ludies .- On Saturday afternoon, 5th inst., a horse driven to a buggy in which were seated Misses Dora Miles and Dora Price, near Spark's Station, on the Northern Central Railroad, made to one side of the road as they were going down the hill, and Miss Miles becoming frightened attempted to jump out of the buggy. the got caught by the reins and was thrown and dragged a short distance before she was rescued. The buggy was upset and Miss Price was thrown est, but fortunately escaped with but slight injury. Miss Miles, who was considerably bruised, was taken to the residence of M. Price, near by, where he received all attention.

A GALA DAY FOR TOWSON. In view of the fact that the Chemical Engine intended for Towson Station will arrive in our town and be formally delivered to the County Commissioners on Wednesday next, 15th inst., the citizens of the town have determined to make a gala day of the occasion.

The County Commissioners have consented that the entire Department shall be present upon the oc-casion, and Fire Marshal Morgan has power to sum-mon all the companies here. In addition to this, in order to make the occasion the more interesting he Veteran Firemen's Association of Baltimore city have been invited to be present and have consented to come and will bring with them their old Suction, which, in days gone by when Baltimore had a volunteer department, did such excellent service in quelling the devouring elements. To add still further to the eclat of the occasion Capt. Jas. L. Burgoyne has tendered the services of the Towson Cornet Band, which will go to the city and escort the Veterans from their Hall to the Maryland son Guards.

Armory. The County Commissioners Answer the Committee.-Messrs. George G. Hooper, Henry Schwarz and J. E. Clark appeared before the County Commissioners on the 7th inst. and propounded ie following questions that were put before the Neighborhood Improvement Association at its last 1st. Is it true that for the five years accounting from 1885 the Board have withheld and spent elsewhere the sum of $8,804.43 collected in the 9th District being a part of the two-thirds of the total amount of taxes levied and collected in said District for roads and bridges? If so, under what authority has the Board acted? The reply was that this statement is not true, and an examination of the books of the county will show how and where the road and bridge funds have been expended. 2d. Is it true that from the 1st day of January 1889, to the 1st day of May, 1889, there was paid to the county for additional taxes over $14,000, and i , why does the annual statement of expenses o Baltimore county for the fiscal year ending May 1889, and published by order of said acknowledge the receipt of but $3,885.64? and every dollar received for additional taxation is accounted for in the annual statements. Is it true that the State taxes on foreign stocks and bonds are not collected by the officials of the county from the taxpayers of the county holding the same, and if not, why not? This question was referred to the counsel of the Is it true that the work of repairing the bridges of the county is given to a man named Hedrick without any competition, and if so, what good reason can be assigned for not inviting proposals so as to award the work to the lowest re sponsible bidder? No work has been done on any bridge for an large amount unless by contract except in one o two cases where the urgency was so great that the delay in advertising and awarding centracts would have proven a serious delay to public convenience

5th. Is it true that any member of the Board has been interested in any contract in reference to any bridge or bridges erected or being erected in the county, and if so, what explanation is to be made No member of the Board had the least connection with any contract for bridges in any part of the Mr. Thomas Todd sold a contractor some county. dressed stone and heavy timbers at regular market rates--in fact, something under the rates, after the contracts had been awarded. 6th. Is it true that the books of the county for 1888 and 1889 remain open in many particulars in which they ought to be closed, and if so, why are they not closed? The books have not been closed because it has not been thought advisable to close them until it is thought all the back taxes have been collected.—

In the Toils Again .- William Smith, colored who was a participant in the affray at Catonsville Park, and whom it is stated stabled Geo, Boston colored, made himself scarce until last Friday, when the officers started for him and he was taken in custody. It appears that on the 23d of last August it is said that 8mith cut Boston so badly that for some time his life was despaired of, and the latter, in order to evade arrest, fied from the neighborhood and kept his whereabouts concealed. He suddenly made his appearance at his old home in Catonsville. Steps were immediately taken to apprehend him, but, getting wind of the Constables' intention, he dashed off for the nearest cover, with several officers and a number of citizens in hot purents. The fugitive proved much too fast for the when the officers started for him and he was taken in the Circuit Court. To Aid the Confederate Home.—Arrangements have been made by the Confederate Society in Maryland for a series of lectures to be given on the battle of Gettysburg at the Cyclorama of the Battle of Gettysburg in Baltimore on the evenings of October 80th by Lieut. OBITUARY. Charles Hasson. Charles Hasson, for many years employed at the Mt. Vernon Cotton Duck Mills, Baltimore county, died at his residence, Stone Hill, Mt. Vernon, on the 5th inst., aged 64 years. He was a native of Linwood, Scotland, but has been a resident of the United States for over fifty years. He was foreman of the Union Factory at Ellicott City for a number of years, and about forty years was foreman of the Mount Vernon Duck Mills. On account of an at-tack of white swelling when a child his right leg was amputated at the knee. Mr. Hasson was a well known Democrat, and much confidence was placed in his judgment. He was a frequent delegate to Democratic County Conventions, but never allowed himself to accept any office. His funeral took place from St. Thomas' Church, Hampden, on Tuesday 7th, Rev. John D. Boland saying a Mass of Requiem. The remains were interred in St. Mary's Cemetery, Hampden, Edward Kelley, Jas. Keller, Robert Forem, Stephen Barton, David Woods and S. B. Forster acting as pall bearers. Mr. Hasson leaves a widow and two sons and one daughter. George B. Graham. Geo. B. Graham, who resided at his beautiful country seat near the old Frederick Road, about 1 mile from Catonaville, died on the 5th inst. at his residence from malarial fever superinduced by surgical fever produced from a wound in his throat, Mr. Graham having out his throat with a razor whilst shaving on the morning of the 25th of September last. He was 25 years old. He had not been in good health, and it is believed that this fact caused him to commit the rash act. After the act he expressed remorse for what he had done and was anxious that he might recover for the sake of his wife and daughter, the latter but five years old Mr. Graham's mother was a sister of the late Gen. George S. Brown. Mr. Graham's father was a member of the firm of Alex. Brown & Sons, and through that firm inherited one million of dollars.

Rebert Cathcart. Robert Cathcart. a well-known citizen of Baltinore, died at his residence, 131 South Broadway. on the 5th inst., aged 76 years. He was a son o Robert Cathoart, a defender of Baltimore in the year 1812. At the time of his death he was the Republican Supervisor of Elections for Baltimore city, aving been appointed by Gov. Jackson. In 1867 he was Deputy Surveyor of the Port of Baltimore. He always took a leading part in Republican poli-tics, and was a fair man in all that he had to do. He leaves three sons and three daughters.

Mrs. Hannah Norris. On Monday last, 6th inst., Mrs. Hannah Norris, widow of the late George Norris, and mother of Dr. Geo. W. Norris, died at her residence near White Hall.

Prof. John H. Hewitt. Prof. John H. Hewitt, a man of versatile talents, music and literature, died at his residence, 1502 East North Avenue, on Tuesday, 7th inst., aged 90 years. He was a graduate of West Point Military Academy, and was in that institution in 1818 from Massachusetts. He was a class mate of the Hon. John H. B. Latrobe. Upon graduating he resigned and entered upon teaching of music and writing for the press, and for magazines. His contribution in this respect are voluminous, and upon every subject. Much of his poetry contained elegant thoughts. For a few years he was a correspondent for the Journal and wrote under the nom de plume of "Jenks." He was genial and kind hearted and had hosts of friends who esteemed him. A Musterious Case-A Woman's Body Found.—Considerable excitement was created in the vicinity of Highlandtown on Sunday morning pearances the body had been in the water several days, and there were two heavy Belgian paving blocks fastened to the body by a rope. The corps presented the appearance of a woman apparently presented the appearance of a woman apparently in the Misses Elder, Mrs. Charles D. Fisher, Mrs. Charle about 30 years of age with a fine suit of black hair. The following gentlemen were summoned as a jury, and Justice Hevern held an inquest on the remains: James Gilmor, foreman, N. B. Wells, William Klingenberg, J. E. Maguire, Frank Marshail, Robt. Sievens, J. A. McCullough, August Lehmann, B. F. Brandau, L. Guise, W. J. Brand, Carvel Grace. Charles Sweeny testified to having had his attention directed to the body by some persons in a wagon. He followed their directions and was horrified to find that the receding tide had revealed part of a body. When he started to drag it ashore he saw it was the body of a woman weighted down Dr. A. S. Warner made a post mortem examination and gave as his opinion that the woman was dead when thrown into the water. The examina tion convinced the physician that the woman had been a victim of malpractice. Dr. Warner found a plate in her mouth upon which were four false teeth. This important discovery was taken in charge by Justice Hevern, and it will be used in trying to find the woman's identity.

The jury rendered a verdict that the woman came to her death by the hands of a person or persons unknown. It was the opinion of all present that the woman had died in Baltimore and that interested persons had thought to bury the secret in the waters of Back River. No Belgian blocks can be picked up where the body was found and there are no quarries anywhere near the place. The woman was about 4 feet 10 inches high, and from appearances had been good looking. On Tuesday, 7th inst., Constables Alex. Hughes and Frank Hoff arrested a man named Ezekiel Jolley on information received from George Bass-Messrs. Bassford and Schultz state that Jolley told them he helped to throw the body over the bridge and knew all about it. He would say no more, and afterward contradicted himself by denying that he had ever said such a thing. On the well-built man, with a large crop of hair and a rather intelligent face. He laughed when first arrested, but later seemed to appreciate his grave position and paled. Base Ball-Combination 10, Towson 3 .- On Saturday last at Oriole Park the Towsons again met the Combinations, whom they had previously defeated in four out of five games, and went into the game with colors flying. Soon it was apparent the flag would have to fall to half mast on this occasion. The first run was made on a base on balls, two stolen bases assisted by two inexcusable errors on the part of Grason and George. The Towsons in their effort to cover this began with a vim and soon had the bases filled with one hand out. A quick double play on the part of Lyston at third turned great expectations into a surprised blank. From this time on the Combinations not only kept the lead but increased it nearly every inning. They hit freely, and the Towsons vied with each other as to who should make the most errors. Stocksdale got wild and failed to put the ball over the plate, Ensor threw anywhere but over a base, Grason argued with the umpire and forgot the base, Isaac II. endeavoring to kill two birds missed both, Turnbuil tried his best to hit the top seat on the grand stand, George · miled as the balls rolled untouched baskets were suggested, Isaac R. alone held up the previous record of the team. It was by far the worse played game of the season, yet where there ment their batting, while the work of McGann and Carson was particularly fine. The score follows:

The Towsons will play the Combinations at Catonsville to-day (Saturday.) ELKTON BASE BALL CLUB IN A ROW.

Elkton has again figured in a row over a game of A Dastardy Assault.—On Thursday evening, 2d inst., as Miss Elizabeth Kavanaugh, an adopted daughter of Mr. John Kavanaugh, of Ellicott City, on the Baltimore county side, was on her way home she was met by a negro named Will Williams, alias Will Boston, who attempted an outrageous assault upon her. The negro seized hold of her and a struggle ensued, during which she was choked almost to unconsciousness and dragged to one side of the road and thrown against a bank, the negro all the time endeavoring to accomplish his base purpose. Her acreams, it was thought, finally frightened the brute off before he had accomplaned his design, and the girl, half dead from fright and exhaustion, dragged herself home. Her throat was lacerated by the man's finger nails, and her dress nearly torn off Wilson left the neighborhood and nothing was heard of him until Sunday, when he was found secreted in his fathers house at Grays.—
He was taken before Justice Albert Smith at Catonsville, who committed him to jail at Towson to The victim of the assaultis a prepossessing young woman, now in her eighteenth year, and has been in the Kavanaugh family since she was five years f age.
Wilson claims that he only intended to repay her by whipping in the way of revenge for certain information she had given some time ago to Mr. Kavanaugh regarding the larceny of a musical in-kavanaugh regarding the larceny of a musical instrument from that gentleman, and subsequently found in the possession of Wilson.

The outrage has caused the most intense feeling against the brute, and had he gotten in the hands of the young woman's friends his stay on earth would undoubtedly have been of short duration. NUPTIAL NOTES. Fenby-Tracey.—On Wednesday, 8th inst., "High-land Grove," in the 4th District, the residence of Mr. Joshua Tracey, was resplendent with a large several officers and a number of citizens in hot pursuit. The fugitive proved much too fast for the pursuing party, and bounded like a deer over the hills in the direction of Ellicott City. The particulars were communicated to Officer James E. Vansant, who instituted a close watch for the fleet-footed runaway. He received information directing him to an old stable on the Baltimore county side of the river, into which some one had been seen to enter. On going to the building, Officer Vansant's rap was answered from the loft window by a man, who was recognized at once as the missing man. Smith was invited from his comfortable quarters and conducted to the Ellicott City jail, where he remained and Mrs. Thomas Coffeli, and many others. A ducted to the Ellicott City jail, where he remained that the was handed over to Officer Nagle, of Catonsville, to be taken to Towson, to await his trial in the Cirouit Court.

A Gala Afternoon 1986, the Minetage Cited,

On Saturday afternoon last, 4th inst., there was a notable gathering of society people at the Kennels of the Elkridge Fox Hunting Club. The youth and beauty of Baltimore city, as well as the surrounding country, was assembled to witness the jumping contest and steeplechase. At 4 o'clock Martin O'Brien gave the signal for the assembly and the contestants made ready. The judges of the race, Messrs. Edw. A. Jackson and T. Swann Latrobe, took their positions on the stand and gave O'Brien
the signal to get the horses bunched. The starters were as follows: "Lara," Miss Isabel Brown, ridden by Stewart Gittings; "Kitty Krankie," W. S.
G. Williams, ridden by owner; "Luke Murray," J.
A. Ulman, ridden by owner; "Theo," J. McK. Merryman, ridden by owner. The chase was about one yman, ridden by owner. The chase was about one and a half miles for a silver cup, presented by Mr. E. A. Jackson. At the start Luke Murray took the lead, with Theo second. Lara third, and Kitty Kran-kie fourth. The hurdles were cleared without a At Charles Street avenue, where the turn was flaw. At Charles Street avenue, where the turn was made, Luke Murray bolted and dashed on down the avenue. Theo then took the lead, and with Lara second dashed to the finish. At the last hurdle Theo kicked off the top rail. Lara pushed hard on under whip, but Theo won by a neck, Lara second, Kitty Krankie third and Luke Murray fourth.

This contest was for a silver cup presented by

Gittings, Bantam, Sterett Gittings: T. Swann Latrobe; Mrs. E. A. Jackson, Talisman, James McK. Merryman. The Judges were: Messrs; Henry Morris, Jacob Ulman and Carey McHenry. The first jump was a plank fence; second, post and rail; third, a stone cleared all the jumps but the third, and knocked a lot slight touch. My Choice, with T. Swann Latrobe up, took the jumps next, striking the fourth jump. Willi Williams rode Morns, and she balked at the first jump, and hit the second and fourth. Mrs. E. A. lackson's Talismen, ridden by James McK. Merryman, made a dash across the lawn, and, as she did so, cheers went up from the throng. Talisman balked at the jump, and then took it beautifully, as he did the third, but balked again at the fourth, and gave up his rights to the cup. Spinter, with Willie Williams up, next took the jump, and cleared all, with the exception of two slight touches. Ster-rett Gittings, on Bantam, took the jump last, and cleared all, except the foorth of which he knocked a rail. The judges called Shylock, Spinter and My Choice back to ride over again. During the wait Martin O'Brien rode Willie Williams' Fanquier and cleared the jumps. At the fourth Fauquier balked. The start was again made, Gittings Shylock first. The first jump was cleared, at the second Gittings was thrown. When he regained his feet, Shylock was quietly grazing. He mounted and finished the jump without another ball Spinster made nearly a clean record, and My Choice touched the second and fourth jumps. The contest then narrowed down to Spinster and My Choice. Spinster would have won but for touching on the last jump. Again they rode over, My Choice win-ning, Mr. T. Swann Latrobe carrying off the cup. Lunch was then served. An orchestra of fifteen pieces sent forth sweet strains of a waltz. The affair closed with a dance. Her funeral took place on Sunday after-10th District, and was very largely attended by the people of the surrounding country by whom she was held in high esteem. The Rev. Nelson Miles, of the M. E. Church, and the Rev. Hiram McAllister, of the Independent Methodist Church, Baltimore conducted the services, which were profoundly solemn and moved the large congregation to tears. Messrs. J. March McComas, John Almony, Wm. Elliott, Josiah Carlin, George Tyson and Cornelius Henderson acted as pall-bearers. Mr. John T. Young, of Monkton, was the undertaker and furnished a beautiful casket for the remains, which church. Mrs. Baker was about 77 years of age at the time of her death. She was born in York county, Pa., and came of the old Pennsylvania German stock, noted for their industrious habits, their honesty in dealing, and their unswerving piety. She was a truly Christian lady, beloved and respected by all who knew her. She was the mother of 15 children, 11 of whom are still living. There are also quite a number of grand and great grand-children. Her aged husband, who is bordering upon 89 years of age and nearly heartbroken by his great loss, followed his beloved wife to the grave sup-ported by some of his children. Helen, the 11 year-old daughter of Mr. John W. Shepperd, residing on "My Lady's Manor," met with an accident a few days ago which nearly cost her her life. It seems she and a smaller sister were playing on the porch of their residence when she came too near the edge and was about to fall over (a very small distance,) and in her struggle to save herself she grasped a large pot of boiling water, which she overturned, the most of it running over her person. She was fearfully scalded from the neck down. Dr. A. H. Price was hastily summoned and attended to her injuries, which are many and exceedingly painful. We are informed that she is n an improved condition. Miss Zona Gent, of whose severe attack of ty phoid fever we spoke last week but who was also getting better at the time, has had a hard time of it since. She was taken much worse a few days ago and was delirious most of the time. Grave appre hensions for her life were entertained. She has ral lied again, however, and may get over it. "WATELDE BEAUTY"

Dr. Bolling W. Barton, of Baltimore, under the above caption, in a letter to the Garden and Forest, New York, thus refers to the wayside beauty along a well known public road in the vicinity of Pikesville, Baltimore county. The readers of the Journal in the locality noted will readily recognize the road referred to: To the Editor of the Garden and Forest: Sir. - The several articles upon 'Country Roads' which have appeared in Garden and Forest we have chosen to receive as words of personal approval, so well has their sentiment chimed with the spirit which has been moving us to better and to beautify a short bit of road which leads us daily to the station on the one hand, and to the village, less than a mile away, on the other.

A very few years ago this road was at times so deep with mud that it would become nearly impassable, and farm wagons especially were compelled to make quite a long detour to reach the station from the turnpike or from the village. The neighborhood becoming more popular and more populous, and the demands for better roads increasing, the county officials were induced to take this particular piece of muddings in head. ticular piece of muddiness in hand. The grade was first improved by cutting, filling and ditching.—
There was then laid down a good bed of rock most convenient to the locality and known even to the geologists as "nigger head." This is an extremely hard gabro, occurring mostly in nodular masses and very difficult to crush, but when once in place and tightened by the pressure of wheels it makes, by reason of its toughness, perhaps the best of road metal. The neighbors now come to the front, and of their own means and motion they covered this rough stony bed with a layer of oyster wall, and fourth, a gate. The first to enter the contest was Lucille, ridden by Williams. She

From ously, and that cuts out the Shock patent. time instead of oyster-shells we determined to try crushed blue lime-stone, which brought by rail from near Waynesborough, Pennsylvania, the railroad giving us special rates. Of this stone, broken to pieces the size of chesinuts, we made a last covering of about four inches in thickness. The road is now perfectly smooth and hard, and is nearly as white as when covered with shells. This whiteness, which some might object, is by no means glaring disagreeable, as the read is mostly shaded. On the contrary, it is found to be very convenient by night in enabling one to keep the track. In spite of repeated insinuations of untidines and, indeed, of outspoken demands for the use of the scythe and the axe, we have succeeded thus far in preserving vegetation quite undisturbed, with the exception of pruning some overhanging and interfering tree-limbs. On the ugly red slopes of a long cut, through which the road passes, and also on the face of a rather deep bluff, we planted a good lot of Chinese Honeysuckle. This has outdone expectation, and has given us the densest walls of green in place of the ugly scored banks which were continually washing down or sliding into the roadside gutter. The fragrance, too, of its flowers fills the air, as well as our senses, with its sweetness, and bees and humming-birds abound. The other trees and shrubs which border our lane are essentially our own-that is, are Americans-and occur in sufficient variety to give a caste to the seasons,

THOMAS H. GILL, et al. IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR BALTIMORE COUNTY,
IN EQUITY. The object of this suit is to procure a decree for a sale of about, one hundred seres of land near Woodensburg in Beltimere county, State of Maryland. The bill states that on or about the 5th day of September, A. D. 1854, Jabez M. Gill and wife conveyed certain real estate described in complainable with the conveyed certain real estate described in complainable with the conveyed certain real estate described in complainable with the conveyed certain real estate described in complainable conveyed certain real estate described in conveyed certain real estate ce ant's Exhibit A to one Christopher M. Gill in trust for the benefit of John H. Gill and Thomas H. Gill, and that since the execution of said deed said John H. Gill and Thomas H. Gill made and executed to Christopher M. Gill in trust a deed of partition in which they divided the land described in Exhibit A, and it further states that the interest of the said Jno. H. Gill has been sold by the then Sheriff of Baltimore county and that Martha A. E. McComeasia now more county, and that Martha A. E. McComas is now the life tenant; and it further states that Thomas H. Gill has not been heard from for a very long time, and that it is supposed that he is, if living, a resident of one of the Western States, and that he

s not a resident of the State of Maryland; and it further states that the said real estate is in bad con-dition, and that it will be for the benefit, advantage and interest of all the parties in interest, and particularly for the benefit, interest and advantage of the 8th day of November, 1889, and that the Trustee named in said decree sold said property therein named on the 19th day of June, 1890, to Sarah R. Clark for sixteen hundred dollars, and that said sale was reported to the Court and by it finally ratified and confirmed: that subsequently thereto the said purchaser filed in said Court a petition asking that said order of ratification be resoinded and said sale set aside, for the reason that under and by virtue of a clause in the deed from Jabez M. Gill and wife to Christopher H. Gill, (Exhibit A filed in said cause) the respective brothers and sisters of said John H. and Thomas H. Gill have a contingent interest in said property, and upon certain contingencies would become entitled to participate in the fund arising from such sale, and should have been made parties. It further states that Jabez H. Gill, father of John H. and Thomas H. Gill, left him surviving the following brothers and sisters of said John H. and Thomas H. Gill, to wit: Richard H. Bill, who is married, but whose wife's name is uncili, who is married, but whose wife's name is unknown, who live in Baltimore city; Jabez H. Gill, who is married to Sarah Gill, non-residents, living in Pennsylvania; Andrew Gill, who died some years ago, leaving a widow and children in the State of Connecticut; Christianna H., who married Joseph H. J. Rutter, and who resides in Baltimore city; Sophia H. Gill, who married George Miller, and resides in Carroll county; that it is unknown whether Thomas H. Gill is living or dead, or whether he has children or descendants of chilwhether he has children or descendants of chil It is thereupon ordered and adjudged by the Court, this 29th day of September, 1890, that the plaintiffs cause a copy of this order, together with the object and substance of the original "Bill of Complaint," as well as the "Supplemental Bill," to be inserted in some newspaper puplished in Baltimore county, once in each of four successive weeks before the 3d day of November, A. D. 1890, grant notice to the absent and non-resident defendants in said original and supplemental bills, of the object and substance of the same, and warning them to be and appear in this Court, in person, or On or before the 19th day of November, next, to answer the premises and show cause, if any they have, why a decree should not pass as prayed.
