Meeting of the School Board.—The School Board met on Tuesday, 21st inst., present Mr. Sam'l M. Rankin, President; Charles J. B. Thorpe, Jacob Shamberger, John P. Clark, Oregon R. Benson, Charles B. Rogers, Secretary and Examiner.

Mr. John Hubner, 1st District appeared before the Board and asked for the building of a new School House pear Carrell to take the place of what is now Monkton Items.—As previously announced in thurch circles, a vote was taken in the Monkton M. E. Church on Sunday morning last, 19th inst. to decide the question: "Are women fit to climb the golden stairs in the great body of the M. E. Church, and to be equal with the men in councils of the different Conferences, and to be admitted as of the different Conferences, and to be admitted as 'laymen-women' to the General Conference, opening wide the doors for the eventual advance as preacher, Presiding Elders, or even Bishops; or would it not be better for them to follow the same occupation in the future they have followed in the past? viz: attend to their various household duties, sew on the buttons on their husband's (if they have any husbands) clothing, and keep their children tidy?" We being one of the unregenerated, had the privilege of taking a back seat, as none but "select" over 21 years of age were allowed to participate in the church ballot. The Rev. Thomas Ewood tried his best to convince his hearers of their House near Carroll to take the place of what is now The present school is conducted in a rented room of a dwelling house, and is unsuitable to the needs of the locality. Mr. O. R. Benson was authorized o negotiate for the leasing of a suitable lot. The rustees of the School are Albert F. Brunier, James H. Brummel and Charles Smallwood.

Mr. John P. Clark reported the completion of the main building of School No. 14, 12th District, High-landtown, the cost being $1,079.65. The Board struck from the book-list the series of Duntonian copy-books on account of difficulty in getting them supplied when ordered, and substituted for them Wood tried his best to convince his hearers of their supplied when ordered, and substituted for them Butler's series of books. The question of replacing Robinson's Arithmetic for the higher grades, was referred to the book committee.

The following district school trustees were aptraction of the school series at this time. From our point of observation was could see that considerable skirming was processed to the consi we could see that considerable skirmishing was necessary to bring out a full vote. Two tickets—for and against—was handed to each member by Mr. Royston Matthews to be chosen from. Mr. Charles E. Cuddy collected the ballots, when it was found that 15 votes had been cast—10 for and 5 against, thus giving the sisters the victory. There were 3 men and 12 women voted. It is conceded that two men voted for, which, of course, would count 4 sisters as voting against, and the reat 8 in number voted "for." Thus ended a ridiculous farce which, in our opinion if successful in this pointed: Charles Marshall for school No. 7, 4th District, in the place of John T. Marshall, deceased; George Gettings, school No. 2, 2d District; William J. Spicer, school No. 4, 6th District, vice Mr. Arnold, resigned.
Teachers' contracts were confirmed as follows:
Charles Hoffman, school 9, District 5; Alice Read, school 5, District 9; Lilla Conrey, school 11, District
11; Victoria O. Hayden, school 1, District 3, and M.
Alice Harney, school 12, District 12.
The Secretary of the Board was directed to notify farce, which, in our opinion if successful in this country, would tend to injure the church beyond redemption. In this opinion we are supported by many eminent writers and other indisputable au-Mr. Henry W. Her husband and her sister, Mr. Elias Shepperd, an old and well-known resi dent of "My Lady's Manor," had quite an attack of typhoid. He is getting about again.
Mr. James A. Shepperd met with a misfortune on last Saturday, 18th inst. which does not come often in a fellow's lifetime. From some unaccountable cause his tongue began to swell during the day and by evening he was nearly speechiess. Now, Uncle Jimmie is not in the habit of using bad language, therefore if this phenomenon was sent to rectify this habit it fell upon the innocent. The swelling, however, subsided during the night, and the old man was able to discuss breakfast in the morning with real satisfaction. An Interesting Service.—On Wednesday even-An Interesting Service.—On Wednesday evening, 22d inst., an interesting and entertaining service was held at the Towson M. E. Church. The Sunday School room was filled with people, a large proportion of them being children, who had been specially invited to attend to assist in the "Church Building." Mr. S. E. Robinson, of Baltimore city, exhibited a beautiful white wooden model of a church, representing Christ and His Apostles, and as each part was brought forward successively by the little assistants, Mr. Robinson gave a running comment, consisting of Scriptural quotations, refcomment, consisting of Scriptural quotations, rel erences to legendary history, and appropriate original explanations and exhortations. His history of the Apostles, bringing out the prominent characteristic of each, was very interesting, while the denial of Christ by Peter and the betrayal of the Savior by Judas, were specially dwelt upon as a warning to all of Christ's disciples. Mr. Robinson insisted on the duty of every man to belong to Christ's church on earth, that he may be housed in the church triumphant at the last day.
