NEW DEMOCRATIC U. S. SENATORS. The elections last week make it certain that after the 4th of March, 1891, four new Democratic United States Senators will enter that body to replace Republicans now there, viz: Senators Evarts of New York, Farwell of Illinois. Spooner of Wisconsin, and Ingalls of Kansas. By the aid of the "rotten borough" system the Republican majority in the present | the opening of the fair in securing advertise-Senate is 14. In addition to the States above | ments. named the Democrats have elected a majority in the Legislatures of New Hampshire and South Dakota, but in both States it is announced already that the Republicans will the members of the fraternity should feel for practice some of the old returning board tricks. | the patient hours of labor they gave for at If the Democrats get only the Senators from | least a year in advance of the fair, their deft the four States named, it would reduce the Re- | fingers fashioning all manner of dimity which publican majority to 6. Should the Republicans practice any of their old-time tricks it would tend to make the people of the States | ticles contributed to the fair by the generous hurry up their departure from power, for they broke the ice on Tuesday 4th, and will not rest | the State, was through these brave, earnest, until they have full justice. They were incensed at the passage of the McKinley tariff bill, with its general increase of duties to 60 per cent. The people seem to have waked up as to the hardships they will be obliged to endure under the McKinley bill as to all the products they will be compelled to use not only in their families but in their business likewise.— Before the passage of the McKinley monstrosity waters, which will return in good deeds to not pretty much all the life was squezed out of the farmer, and when the McKinley Tariff bill came along it was the last feather which broke the camel's back, and they rebelled. Added to this was the infamous Force bill and the outrageous action of Reed, which added incentive to the voter to make a pretty clean sweep, and he did it most effectually. And it will be still worse for them when 1892 rolls around. Whilst Reed and his cohorts were drunk with the power they were wielding the people were quietly nursing their wrath for the day of wrath. A remarkably small piece of paper did the whole of it—it was the majesty of the will of the votor which said to four prominent me in the four powerful States of New York, Illi nois, Wisconsin and Kansas: "Ye have heap upon me unnecessary burdens grievous to borne, therefore will I chastise you; take the 'ticket of leave.'" Other States will gradua fall into line in the good cause. They w send men to the Senate who will lighten burdens of the tariff. They will see to it the no more political buffoons like Reed gets in Nowhere in the United States is the opportunity sive tax upon tin plate of so much importar as here in Maryland, and especially in Ba more and Harford counties, where a lay amount of the canning industry is located. | Wisconsin. 2 7 | 8 When Mr. McComas announced his favor of the tax the Democratic press to a unit, and many of the Republican press, came out boldly in opposition thereto, and showed not only how unjust it would be to our people, but also to the entire country wherein tin goods are used; and where are they not to be found? It is the most oppressive tax of the entire list in the bill, as sixty-four millions of people use tin, from the baby with its rattle on up by every child, man and woman, and in every branch of business. There is no business in which tin is not used, and there are no persons who do not use tin, except, possibly, a South Sea Islander, who wears no clothes and has no hut where cooking is prosecuted, but lives upon the fruits of the earth. Here is what the Pittsburg Press, Republican.

has to say now about the tin tax : "The effect of Tuesday's election will be to frighten capital away from the proposed tin plate industry, and tin plate must come as heretofore from abroad. In view of this reasonably founded assumption why should what was intended to be a prohibitory tariff on tin be maintained? Its effect would only be to enhance the price of tin to the consumer without enlarging the industrial capacity of the country by a new enterprise on a large scale for the benefit of American labor. Under these circumstruces it would perhaps be wise for Congress at its next meeting in December to repeal the tin plate clause of the new tariff act, and the motion should be made and carried out by Bepub. licans. It is better to recognize facts in politics, and it is a fact now that the tin plate tariff cannot benefit anybody, and its repeal cannot disturb any trade or branch of industry

When we reflect that there are no tin mines in America, and that all the tin used here comes from Europe, the creating of a high duty upon tin is for the benefit solely of the few persons engaged in its importation, it is outrageous to contemplate that sixty-four millions of people must be made to pay tribute to a handful of millionaires who control the importation of tin. No wonder the people rebelled on Tuesday 4th by completely obliterating the Republican majority of the House, which consummated this great wrong

By the above extract it will be seen the Press is scared, and well it may be. The American filed sworn statements that they had paid people are not yet done with the Republican majority which has laid the heavy burden of the tariff tax upon their shoulders. They will again speak in 1892.

BEN. BUTTERWORTH'S OPINION. Benj. Butterworth, who has represented Ohio in the House for many years, gives the following as his testimony as to the cause of the political upheaval on Tuesday, 4th: "In my opinion, no man could have made a successsful race for the Presidency of the United States standing upon the issue of the McKinley bill, and I think the high tariff path the rockiest one to travel for the public office at the present time.-The people of this country are in such a state that not even the most prosperous class will stand the addition of another feather's weight of tax. It was the most unwise policy that any party could pursue to take the stand of favoring an increase in the tariff when it is and has been apparent that a reduction is what has been needed and wanted. "I think I saw what was coming at least my ac tions show that I pursued a wise course, and other

Republicans only knew too well the inevitable consequence of the McKinley bill's adoption. I received a letter from a Minnesota Congressman this morn ing which read: 'How terrible was the slaugeter You saw the trouble and slid out, but I stayed like a lamb and was butchered beautifully. The McKinley bill and the Farmers' Alliance were too much for me.' Nearly every one knows that the Democratic gains were made because the mass of epublicans are becoming more and more disgusted with high tariff teachings. Now that the prophet has spoken and a lessen been taught I have no doubt that proper adjustments will immediately

The Hon. Ben. saw the storm approaching and got in out of the wet by declining a renomination. Discretion was the better part of valor. But, how does it come that the Hon. Ben., though entertaining the opinions as above given, voted for the McKinley bill upon its final passage? That was rather inconsistent.

-A NOTABLE BANQUET.

One of the most notable banquets which has ever taken place in this country occurred on Thursday 13th at Columbus, Ohio, it being in honor of the 77th birthday of that noble old Roman, Allen G. Thurman. One thousand distinguished gentlemen, Democrats from all portions of the country were present, including ex-President Cleveland, who shared the honors with Mr. Thurman. The banquet was held under the auspices of the Thurman Democratic Club of Columbus. Ex-President Cleveland made a brilliant speech, as did also Mr. Thurman. Gen. Thomas Ewing, ex-Senator Joseph E. McDonald, Hon. R. A. Harrison, Senator Carlisle, Hon. W. C. P. Breckinridge, Hon., W. K. Wilson, Hon. Don. M. Dickinson, and Governor Campbell, of Ohio, made addresses.

THE LATE MASONIC FAIR.

The Masonic Fair which closed on Wednes day night of last week was a grand success from every standpoint. The net amount which will be realized from it will be about $63,000. General Thomas J. Shryock, the Grand Master, showed that he was not only an organizer but a worker. He infused enthusiasm amongst his co-laborers on the several committees, and exhibited executive abilities of the very highest order. He was ably seconded by the practical advice and carnest labor of Past Grand Master John M. Carter, Chairman of the Executive Committee, and one of the ablest men in the Grand Lodge, and also by such earnest workers as C. C. Isaacs, who had charge of the lunch department; Jacob E. Krebs, in charge of the chance department; to Wm. M. Isaac, of Towson, who had charge of the "Masonic News." by which $5,200 was collected upon advertisements. This was a matter of severe labor, Mr. Isaac devoting fully two months thereto, one month of which he was occupied previous to

Last and best of all, when the ladies come to be considered, words of commendation are but feeble to convey the sense of deep gratitude lay upon all the various tables. It may safely be said that ninety-nine hundredths of the arcitizens of not only Baltimore, but throughout patient ladies, whose hearts were in the work. and who never took nay for an answer in their solicitations. And then to consider the tremendous services they rendered in the five weeks of hard work in which they were engaged in the fair shows what woman can do when she gives vent to her energies. They have been merely casting bread upon the only the members of the fraternity, but to the ladies themselves. Woman is inseparably bound up in good deeds. At the meeting of the Grand Lodge nex Tuesday Grand Master Shryock will make a full report to the fraternity. The meeting of the Grand Lodge will be one of the most important ever held, and will no doubt be largely

WE HAVEN'T THE HEART.

We haven't the heart to disturb the reveries of our neighbor of the Union after the Republican defeat on Tuesday 4th upon the McKinley | for him to be "counted" but once and that Tariff bill. The "little fairy story" of the when he was expelled from the House on ac-JOURNAL of the week previous as to a Towson lady being obliged to pay 25 cents advance upon a pair of shoes after the passage of the McKinley Tariff bill was a veritable fact. The Union man knows both the lady and the merchant well. He hits the merchant a terrible crack when he says: "Evidently the man who sold the shoes is a sharper. He wanted to put up the price and adopted this scheme to do it." We do not see where the credulity part as to the lady comes in-she merely paid the price the merchant asked. The price of everything was raised by the McKinley bill, leather | otic speech in the House of Representatives on and shoes among everything else.

We are satisfied, however, that our neighbor of the Union has shed no tears over the defeat of the Republicans, for his heart was not in the fight. He was lukewarm throughout the | great cause to be proud of his vindication by

A GOOD LAW.

A law of New York provides that under the Corrupt Practices act, passed at the last session of the Legislature, every candidate for office whether successful or defeated, must file with the County Clerk a sworn statement showing a detailed account of the expenses of his campaign-that is, what money he expended or caused to be expended—within ten days after election. From the accounts as published in the Herald it appears that W. Jennings Demorest, the Prohibition Mayoralty candidate. though with no possible show of election, spent $3,577.96. Some of the Prohibition candidates nothing. The entire list as published is quite an interesting one. DO NOT RELAX ANY EFFORT.

Notwithstanding the brilliant success achieved by by the Democracy at the polls last week in behalf of tariff reform, no interference with the sacred rights of the voter unawed by federal bayonets, honest pensions, and a general decency in political methods by Tom Reed, Speaker of the House, no Democrat should grow lukewarm until the Presidency is settled in 1892. Do not relax any effort until that time. Let the Democracy celebrate after that event. The snake has only been scotched, not "Eternal vigilance is the price of Lib-Remember that, Democrats.

OVERWHELMINGLY FOR CLEYE-LAND.

We do not believe there is one single Damocrat in Maryland who is not enthusiastically in favor of the nomination of ex-President Cleveland as the candidate of the party for President in 1892; if there is one we have not heard of him. Certain Republican newspapers have borne false witness against Senator Gorman, that he is in favor of Governor Hill, of New York. We have personal knowledge that this is not so. On the other hand, Senator Gorman has been and is now, unreservedly in favor of Mr. Cleveland, and it is the general opinion that the Democracy had better take Cleveland and be defeated with him rather than not to nominate him. He is nominated now by the unanimous voice of the Democracy of the country, and nothing can stay this but his death. The National Convention when it meets will but ratify what the Democracy has determined upon the past two years, and is enthusiastically in favor of now. LET 'ER PANIC.

For about two weeks the "bulls" and "bears" of Wall street, New York, have been in a panicky way, caused by the fall in the price of It is stated that the Stock Exchange has not been so wild since the noted "Black Friday." James Struther, an old broker, died on the floor on Monday, death having occurred from heart disease, produced from the extraordinary excitement. It matters but little to the people of the country how much Wall street becomes excited, as it concerns merely the gamblers in stocks; though at times other interests throughout the country are somewhat involved. The powerful stock brokers generally come out first best, and the minnows are swallowed remorselessly. Quite a number of firms have failed in consequence of the excitement. It is a mere ripple upon business. The "busted" boys, however, will bob up serenely, as you cannot kill off a live Yankee stock

NOT THE DEMOCRATIC HOSTS.

Because a few party devotees are already parceling out the offices to be gotten by the organization of the next House under Democratic auspices, it should not be taken for granted occupied by the political buffoon Reed, who has disgraced himself. The office is too dignifled to be disgraced, but the occupant can disgrace himself. A little modesty, gentlemen. Let us bear heavily upon the crafty designs of the present House, and leave the offices rest a spell, they will not run away.

MAYOR GRANT COON BUNTING. Mayor Grant of New York, with Senator Eugene S. Ives, Park Commissioner Gallup, Lieut. Frank S. Ives and Alderman Rollin M. Morgan, last week enjoyed duck shooting, fishing, and coon hunting as the guests of the Gabriel Ducking Club of South River, Anne Arundel county, and also of Maj. E. C. Carrington, of Baltimore county. In the coon hunt Mayor Grant's eagerness to see and catch a Maryland coon led him too close to a steep embankment, and, making a misstep, he rolled down the bank into the Gunpowder and got a ducking, the hunt having taken place near Loreley, on the Philadelphia branch of the B. & O. The Mayor and his friends were greatly delighted with their trip.

EASILY COUNTED.

From present appearances it does not seem likely that the Democrats will have much difficulty in "counting" the Republicans when the next House of Representatives assembles. The Democratic Speaker will not find it necessary to go into the cloak-room to "count" the hat and coat of a Republican member to make a quorum. The Democrats would serve Buffoon Reed about right if they make it impossible count of the frauds practiced when he was reported elected. The Democrats, however, will conduct the business of the House in a constitutional manner-that's the kind of "blunder" they will make.

KIND WORDS FOR MR. COMPTON. Annapolis Evening Capitol, Nov. 7th. Mr. Compton can now afford to be magnanimous. We felt sure all the while that the outrage perpetrated not only upon him, but his constituency, would be fully vindicated by the people at the proper time. His manly, patrithe eve of his ejectment by the arbitrary rulings of the Speaker of that House left its imression in the minds and hearts of the people of his district, who have voiced their sentiments in unmistakable language. He has the people, and we feel sure he will not betray their confidence and trust in his great triumph | over his enemies. A 20-STORY MASONIC HALL,

The new Masonic building now being erected in Chicago will be an architectural marvel. It is to have a frontage of 170 feet, a depth of 114 feet, will be 20 stories high and the roof will be nearly 300 feet from the level of the street .--There are to be 18 elevators, arranged in a semicircle, having a total carrying capacity of 40,000 passengers daily. The entrance is to be 42 feet high by 28 feet wide, and the rotunda, with an area of 3,700 square feet, will be open to the roof, where visitors will find a pavilion garden from which they can get a bird's eye view of all creation.

HIS NECK IS IN DANGER.

Ernest Forbes, a brutal negro, last week committed an assault upon Miss Bertha Phipps. a respectable young lady of Anne Arundel.-When the citizens of Anne Arundel learned of it they became much execited and it was thought they were about to take steps to take him from the jail in Annapolis and lynch him. The Sheriff thought it prudent to take him to Baltimore city jail, where he now is and will remain until he is called for trial. -----

WHO MUST WE BELIEVE? Ben Butterworth, of Ohio, ex-Congressman, says it was the McKinley Tariff bill which did the business on Tuesday 4th, and Lewis E. Mc-Comas, of Maryland, relegated on Tuesday 4th, says the tariff question didn't have much to do with the defeat. Under which king, Bezonian?

Some of the editors west of the Alleghanies have away of hitting the nail squarely on the head. Here is an illustration from Ohio: "It is easier for a jackass to pass through the eye of a last year's potato than it is for a workingman to extract comfort from any section or schedule of the McKipley bill."

[Mansfield Shield and Banner. Mayor Davidson has finally concluded the purchase of the Western Scheutzen property, on West Baltimore street, where Camp Carroll was situated during our Civil War, for $45,000, for a little over 18 acres for the new Park, provided by ordinance of the City Council.

Gilbert W. Hazletine, who killed Mamie Thorpe in a house of questionable repute in Baltimore some years ago, and who served a term in the penitentiary for the offense, died recently at Conneaut. Ohio.

The "pink" and "blue" and "scarlet" and other hues of "sassiety" "teas" have gone out of fashion and will be known no more.-Alas! alack!! they were a beautiful humbug. The receipts of the passenger department, Baltimore and Ohio Bailroad, during the Knights Templar encampment at Washington in October 1889 was $125,000. It is hoped the Democrats of the New York Legislature will elect Gov. Hill United States Senator to fill the sest soon to be made vacant by Wm. M. Hvarte.

WETTMAURSHAUSEN.—Near Ellicott City, Balti-more county, on November 12th, 1890, Babette WETTMAURSHAUSEN, aged 74 years, relict of the late Frederick Wettmaurshausen, of Bavaria. in memory of mas. And pure joy thrilled my heart to see her face-Its softened peace and even majesty, Endowed her with such an attractive grace. No costly clothing wrapped her mortal frame, Nor blazing rainbows of earth's jewels rare, No diamonds in their leaping, splendid flame, Showing sordid earthly toil and care. The thought that strongly pressed me-she good! Though she of this too humble was to boast : We knew she felt the power of Jesus' blood, And daily did her duty at her post. Yes, she, the ever-true, dear friend, has gone, Death opened the door to a better land, Where she in purity before God's throne, Surrounded by angelic hosts, shall stand. The world seems lonely now without her smile; We mourn that we shall see her here no more; D may we faithful be a little white Until we join her on the shining shore.

The Rev. Dr. Crosby of New York denies that he made use of the statement that he knew of a certain ex-Police Captain in that city that had made $70,000 in blackmail in one year of saloon keepers who kept their salcons open on Sunday. A New York Herald reporter says it was at a public meeting where Dr. Crosby made the expression and that he is willing to swear to the exact words. The Police that Washington grows trees closely rivaling Department took the matter up and brought those of California.
