[Written for the Maryland Journal.] MADRIGAL FOR MUSIC. In a black satin boot Time's kissed her dear foot. The daintiest prize ever seen : It is moulded of grace From a Fay's, all can trace, Seen tripping the down's wild pastures green. Nature made it her prize For delighting men's eyes, Seeing butterflies flitting the air, As stars they both shoot, Bewildering eyes they come near. As it flickers in flight, Like a wild dancing sprite.

Nature's model, her own, sweet to view : As if winged it will float, Making pictures, Love wrought Its curves so enchanting, so new As a sunbeam it shines Through the dells, fairy lines, As a meteor it lights up the night. Leaving fairy Kings there To which, spell-bound, repair To chronicle vows "spirits rite."

Adorned buttoned boot.

Bright glow-worms-her feet, Seen galtered so neat. Jewels of price long tressured by me; They are matchless I know, As their moulding does show Wranglers, step out, Exhibition's all free. PROF. F. NICHOLLS CROUCH, F. R. S. BALTO. MD., Nov. 27th, 1890.

ALLITERATIVE AND MUSICAL. That all the music has not yet been worked proven by the following from the Baltimore Sun of the 1: t inst:

Prof. John Philip Sousa, the leader of the which are thus described: expresses the opinion that while "American compositions, everything else being equal, should be given the preference on all official days, no composition should be performed simply because it is American." He adds, with lively alliteration: "Much has been said about excluding foreign compositions. I contend that if we are to admit foreign machinery, why straight line to the place of beginning, which gals? No. Mr. Editor, we cannot conscientiously extend an invitation to our friends across the way to visit us, and then restrict dollars per annum. Also, ALL THAT PARCEL OF LAND, ware, but not your harmony; your cutlery. but not your counterpoint; your mutton, but laurel wreath bedeck the brow of him who he calls his home Senegambia or Sioux City, eighty six feet; thence south thirty-one degrees Pumpkintown or Patagonia." This is not only east three hundred and fourty-four (344) feet to the witty, but wise; but then it smacks of free northern limits of the Baltimore and Fredericktown trade, and, of course, nothing looking in that Turnpike Road; and thence bounding on the direction has any chance under the high-tariff twenty-three (323) feet to the place of beginning. regime. We may invite all the world to our containing Fair if we please, but we couple the invitation with the warning that the exhibitors cannot recent popular remonstrance against the pro-hibitory tariff, and are beginning a musical folio 207, etc.) campaign for reform.

WHY BUTT AGAINST THE WALL? Says McKinley and Reed and Quay: "The people don't understand the real hid den beauties of the tariff tax, and we will keep on with the course mapped out and will put the Force bill in operation." Whereat the Globe-Democrat recites them fable as follows: "There was a young man once who wept because he had broke his arm. When a friend pointed out to him that, under the circumstances, he was lucky in not breaking his neck instead of his arm, he braced up.' "A pretty fable, calculated to make the weep ing eyes of the G. O. P. see rainbows through its tears. But there is another pretty fable more applicable to the present situation and condition of the G. O. P., which runs thus: 'There was a young man who once ran his head against a stone wall and went to the doctor and asked him to set his arm. When the doctor told him that his head and not his arm was broken he laughed at the doctor and ran full tilt against the wall again to prove that his head was all right, and they gathered up his brains and laid him away forever."

____ THE ELIXIR OF LIFE. How Koch's Anti-Consumptive Lymph is Prepared.

The lymph used by Professor Koch for the cure of tuberculosis is prepared in an incubating stove within a space that is hermetically from fungus. The interior of the air-tight | case of Williams vs. the Safe Deposit and Trust Comspace is divided by an unglazed porcelain diaphragm into an upper and lower section. In CHANGE SALESROOM, No. 122 East Fayette Street, the upper section is placed a salted meat broth | Baltimore city, in a gelatinous state containing colonies of the tubercle germ. This mass gradually liquefles and the gelatine liquid drops slowly through particles retain sufficient strength to detach The improvements are a large modern and expel the dead germs, together with the dead tissue. The separative process ensues and Barn and necessary outbuildings, and the shore healing follows.

HIDDEN AT GETTYSBURG-When going into gagement. He was killed in the battle. Am bros, too, was shot in the flerce fighting in the Devil's Den and while lying helpless among the rocks bethought him of the packet for his might get it from his body, he concealed it between the rocks. Ambros was taken to the hospital unconscious, and lost a leg there.-After the war he wandered out West. He is at Mckeesport, and that reminded him of the packet. He went to Gettysburg and found the turned over to Mrs. Mason.

The Commissioners of the District Columbia ask Congress to provide them with is high liquor license law. It would increase the revenues of the District to a large amount and be the means of getting rid of a large number of low groggeries run by white and colored persons.

The police report the number of inhabitants of Baltimore city at 455,427. This is 21. 476 more than the Federal census in June. when it was reported at 433,951. As New York does not seem likely to get a recount, neither will Baltimore. If New York does so should Baltimore.

ODD FELLOWSHIP. ITS HISTORY AND MANUAL. BY THEODORE A. ROSS, SECRETARY TO SOVEREIGN GRAND LODGE. This work is the most succinct and correct history and chronological record ever prepared by any historian of the Order. Mr. Ross, from his constant association with the internal workings of the Order or many years past, and his prominence in official station, makes him the best qualified person to prepare such a history as he presents. The work, besides, is a complete Manual to the nterested Odd Fellow. It corrects many facts as to the origin and wonderful progress of the Order. No intelligent Odd Fellow should be without the ork.
