

dyeth Intestate that then the Administration shall be granted to such person or person whom the said Intestate shall have appointed overseer for his Estate if any such be and in default of appointing such Overseer, then administration shall be granted to the wife of the Intestate if shee be living if not living then to the next of the blood of the person soe dying Intestate who shall enter into bond with sufficient securities such as the Judge for probate of wills and granting administrations shall approve of well and truly to administer of the Estate of the said person soe dying Intestate and thereof to make a true and perfect Inventory and appraisement of all and singular the goods and Chattels Rights and Credits belonging to the said person soe dying Intestate at the time of the Intestates death and deliver the same to be Recorded into the Secretarys office under the hands of Sworne appraisors for that purpose to be by the said Judge appointed at a certain time by the said Judge to be limited and also to give a true and perfect account of the said Estate soe by him administered of unto the Judge within twelve moneths next after the obtaining the said Administration And if the said Administrator shall fail to give an account within the time aforesaid being by the said Judge thereunto summoned that then the said Judge shall grant administration and to some other person as in his discretion he shall think fitt and revoke the former administration which said person of new appointed shall putt in security as aforesaid to execute and doe all things as is before in this Act required and appointed and may sue and Impound the former administrator for an account of the Estate and in case of wasting or Imbezzling the said Estate by the former administrator that then the said Judge to assigne over the bond Entered into by the former administrator and his security unto the new administrator to be holden against them for such wasting and Imbezzlement And also that the said Judge upon the account given by the said administrator as aforesaid shall make division of the Overplus of the Estate after debts paid and funerall expenses defrayed allowing to the wife of the Intestate if shee be then living one third part thereof and the Rest is to be divided amongst the children if he have any then living and in case he have none children then to the next of the blood of the deceased Intestate and after such division and apportionment of the said Overplus of the said Estate by the said Judge as aforesaid made that then the said Judge shall transmit the same to the Justice of the severall Respective County Courts who are by this Act appointed Authorized and Enjoyed to take care and see to the preservation of the said Orphanes Estate according to the Rules and directions hereafter by this Act prescribed Established and ordained and not otherwise and that those following Rules shall be Rules not onely for the Judge for probate of wills & granting administrations but also for the Justice of the severall and Respective County Courts to proceed by and noe other allowance shall be made to any administrator or Guardian to any Orphan upon his or their accounts except for debts by them truly paid out of the said Estate and Really owing by the Intestate vizt.

First