Horses his own Riding horse to be kept undivided for the use of the Plantacon Upon which Plantacon his wife should live during her life if she pleased He desired the Chancellor & the said John Jourdain to manage the Estate of his children To Edward Barber he gave a young fillie & a heifer whether he staid with his wife & children upon the Plantacon or not And he the said Jarboe then bid the said Jourdain to take notice that this was his will in case god almighty should take him before he could make his will in writing and then said that the next morning he would send for m<sup>r</sup>. Edward Clarke to putt his will in writing and to m<sup>r</sup>. Foster to give him the last Sacrament And likewise declared That in case any of his children dyed before they came to age that his will was that that childs part should be Equally divided between the mother and the Rest of his surviving children And in case all his children dyed before they come to age he gave his whole Estate to his wife after which and before he the said Jarboe could putt his said will in writing the said Jarboe dyed & left his two younger sonnes in strict rigour of Law to the mercy of their elder Brother In tender consideration therefore of the distressed condition of the said younger Brothers & as a reward of the faithfull Services
