

Enacted by the King and Queen, most Excellent Majesties by and with the Advice and consent of this present General Assembly and the Authority of the same that the Commissioners of each County shall once every year vizt upon some day betwixen the first day of September and the twentieth day of October as the said Justices or Commissioners shall think fit to appoint and meet together in their respective Counties to consult of what highways are most fit to be made and cause to be marked out the most convenient highways and paths through their Counties as also to make passable for horse and foot the heads of Rivers Brooks Branches and fountains as are most convenient, and to adjoyn to such highways already begun or made. Provided that this Act do not to the apparent damage of any particular person by making or marking any highway or path through his yard garden Orchard or Close and upon neglect of the said Commissioners for appointing Overseers they shall be fined four thousand pounds of Tobacco in Cash and every Overseer for the highways the sum of two thousand pounds of Tobacco and Cash for his neglect and every labourer who shall refuse and neglect the labourer shall be fined five hundred pounds of Tobacco and Cash and the Clerks of the County Court to grant warrants for the same ex officio on penalty of two thousand pounds of Tobacco in Cash the one half of which fines to go to their said Majesty for the support of Government the other half to the Informer or him or them that shall sue for the same to be recovered in any Court of Record within this Province by Bill plaint or otherwise whereon no Stay or protection or waver of law to be allowed, and that the said Overseers begin their respective works att or before the tenth day of October and also on the tenth day of March yearly on penalty as aforesaid, and every Clerk of each County to affix this Law at the Court house doors that Ignorance may not be pleaded.

An Act for the better Administration of Justice in probate of wills grants Admōcon Recovering of Legacies and securing filiall portions
Whereas for the due Admōcon of Justice it is most necessary that there be a settled succession from the dead to the living and that the wills of all persons dying who in their life tyme make their wills may be duly proved and letters of Admōcon of all persons dying without wills may be granted to such person who have the best right to succeed thereto that there may in that case be no fail.