

Courts do. Justices and persons appointed by the first of April next in England and also enacted by the Authority aforesaid that the County Courts of each County shall and may and are now by ~~the Authority~~ and as often as to them shall seem convenient to make and Ordain such necessary Rules and Orders for the well governing and ~~the~~ regulating the said County Courts and the Officers to the same belonging and sutors to the same as to them in their discretion shall seem requisite and under such Sums as they shall think fit not exceeding one hundred pounds of Tobacco for any one officer all which Sums to be Employed to the use of the poor of each Respective County which Rules and Orders to be made and Ordained shall be fairly transcribed by their severall County Clerks and att every the County Court to be kept at the Court house door that all persons may view and peruse the same and regulate themselves accordingly And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid that where any Judgment is had in any County Court for any matter or thing whatsoever and after such Judgment is had and obtained the party against whom the same is had manifestly flies into another County out of the Jurisdiction of the said Court It shall and may be lawful for the plaintiffe to procure a Certificate from the said Justice of such parties flying and thereupon the Justice of the Provinciaall Court shall award Execution against the body or goods of the said party any Law Statute or usage to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding, And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid that any bills, bonds or other Specialties Books debts or accounts proved before two Justices of the peace of any County or one Justice of the Provinciaall Court and Just Credit given to the same and that the balance thereof is wholly paid and unpaid and certified under the hand of the said Justice shall be sufficient Evidence as well in the Provinciaall as County Courts within this Province any Law Statute or usage to the contrary notwithstanding this Act to endure for three years or to the next Generall Assembly which shall first happen

An