

call the said Guardian or Trustee to account for the same and duly inspect what of the said debts they have received or might have received, And if the said Guardian or Trustee fails to give his Account yearly or by fraud or Coun neglect or forbear to recover the same, the said Guardian or Trustee shall stand charged therewith and be accountable for every such Debt them received and not accounted for or neglected or forborne to be recovered.

10. ^{10^{ly}} That all Justices of the County Courts take able & sufficient security for Orphans Estates, and enquire yearly of the security, and if there be just cause that they require now and better security to remove the Orphan Estate into better hands, and further that the Justices of the County Courts shall yearly in June Court enquire by a Jury of twelve men whether the Orphan be kept maintained and educated according to their Estates, and whether Apprentices are yearly taught their Trades or rigorously used or turned to Common labour and the Orphan doe instead of learning their Trades, and if they find the Orphan not maintained and educated according to their Estates, or the Apprentices neglected to be taught their Trades upon pretence that the last year is enough to learn the Trade, That they remove them to other Guardian or Masters respectively. And in case that the Jury shall find that any Apprentice is not taught his Trade, but put to other labour as aforesaid, the said County Court shall condemn the said Master of such ^{an} Apprentice to make the Apprentice such satisfaction as in Justice his years labour or other work shall deserve and five hundred pounds of Tobacco to be paid to the said Orphan.

11. ^{11^{ly}} That the Justices of the County Courts cause the conditions of the Bonds they take of Guardians or Trustees or Orphan Estates to be exactly drawn according to the Act and Recorded in the County Courts, and the Indem