

English or white woman that shall after the Publication of this Law, either intermarry with or permit her self to be begotten with child by any Negre or other Slave, shall undergo the paines and penalties by this Law hereafter provided against them, That like so any free born English or white woman be she free or servant and shall hereafter intermarry with any negre or other Slave or to any Negro made free, shall Inmediately upon such Marriage forfeit her freedome and become a servant during the Terme of Seven Years to the use and benefit of the Ministry or the Rector of the same Parish at the discretion of the Vestry men of the Parish to which the said woman at the time of Marriage did belong, and if he be a free Negro or Slave to whom the intermarriage, he shall thereby also forfeit his free-dome and become a servant to the use aforesaid during his naturall life But if the said English or white woman as aforesaid at the time of such Marriage as aforesaid if the Marriage be without the connivance or procurement of her Master Mistris or Dame be a servant, she shall finish her time of servitude together wth what damage shall accrue to her Master M^r or Dame by conception of any children that may happen to be begotten of her during the time of her servitude as aforesaid, and after the expiration of her servitude shall pay for the damages as aforesaid (which shall always