P O S T M E R I D I E M.

Convention met. Mr. George Plater, a delegate returned for Saint-Mary's county, and Mr. Benjamin Brevard, a delegate returned for Cæcil county, appeared and took their seats in the house.

Upon reading a remonstrance from the judges appointed by the last convention to hold the election of delegates for Worcester county, and it appearing to this convention from the said remonstrance, and the acknowledgment of the delegates attending, that the election for the said county was held contrary to the resolves of the last convention, ascertaining and declaring the qualifications of voters, RESOLVED, That the said election is null and void, and that an election for the said county be held by the judges aforesaid, agreeable to the resolves of the last convention, on the 27th day of August, at the court-house of the said county, and that the members now attending be discharged from further attendance.

RESOLVED, That all friends to America, and to the interest, peace, good order and happiness, of this province, are required, if necessary, to be aiding and assisting to the judges of the election of delegates for Worcester county in the execution of their office, and this convention will support and maintain the said judges in the discharge of their duty, and such friends who shall give such aid and assistance as shall be necessarily required.

RESOLVED, That the hours for sitting for dispatch of the public business during this session be from nine o'clock in the morning until one in the afternoon, and from three till six.

ORDERED, That the following rules be observed during this session.

That
