

Faithfully to Execute that Office for the Ensuing Year, according to the Laws and Usages of the said Province, to the best of his Skill and Power, and until he shall be thereof duly discharged. And any such Person or Persons so Chosen Church-Warden or Wardens, that shall wilfully refuse to serve in the said Office, and take the Oaths aforesaid, shall be Fined One Thousand pounds of Tobacco to our Sovereign Lord the King.

Parochial Charges
how arising.

And the Church-Wardens and Vestry are Authorized and Required to take constant Care to satisfy and pay the Parochial Charges, and all necessary Repairs and Amendments of their respective Churches, Chappels or Church-Yards, and cause the same at all times to be Repaired and Amended, as need shall require, out of such Gifts, Goods or Chattles as shall come to their Hands for the Church or Parish's Use: And towards the Payment of which Parochial Charges all the Fines, Forfeitures and Mulcts by this Law incurred shall be Levied by the Church-Wardens in each respective Parish, and by them accordingly applied. And in Case they shall not have sufficient Effects to pay Parochial Charges, as aforesaid, or to make such Necessary Repairs as are required, then, and not otherwise, it shall be lawful for the Justices of the County Courts, upon Application of such Parish, Vestry and Church-Wardens, to Assess the respective Parishes, by a certain Sum of Tobacco, not exceeding ten pounds of Tobacco by the Poll, in any one Year; which Assessment made by such County Court, and a Certificate thereof under the County Seal, shall be Sufficient to the Sheriff of such County, to Levy such Tax by the Poll, on the Taxables of such Parishes, in the same manner as other publick Dues are Levied, and shall not deduct above Five per Hundred for his Salary, and pay the same to such Vestry, for the Use aforesaid.

Assessments.

And to the Intent that this Act may answer the End of the Makers, which is, that his Majesty's good Subjects of this Province may be instructed in Religion, and therein of their Duty to God, His Majesty, themselves, and those Pious and Exemplary Persons that shall Labour therein suitably provided for; Be it Enacted by the Authority, Advice and Consent aforesaid, That no Minister or Incumbent shall at one Time hold more than two Parishes, nor two, unless by the Desire and Agreement of the Vestry of the said adjacent Parish, and Consent of the Vestry where he Resides, and Appointment of the Ordinary; and where there are not, or shall not be Ministers in any Parish, it shall, and may be lawful, for the Vestry to provide some Sober and Discreet Person, as a Reader, and present him to the Ordinary, who may sequest part of the Forty per Poll to pay him for such Service, and the rest to be applied as the Law in Cases of such Vacancies directs. And upon such Readers taking the said Oaths appointed by Act of Parliament, subscribing the Test and Association, and procuring License from the Ordinary, shall, and may, Read Divine Service, Homilies, and such other good Authors of Practical Divinity, as shall be Appointed, at the usual times, in such Church; or Chappel, and therein shall demean himself according to the Liturgy of the Church of England, as aforesaid.
