

EACH Vestry Man forfeits Two Hundred Pounds Tobacco, for neglecting to put up Marriage Tables, or to chuse Wardens as above: The Minister being always excepted.

THE Church Wardens so chosen, shall take the usual Oaths, and shall declare on their Oaths to be administered by the Vestry that they shall well and faithfully execute that Office, for the ensuing Year, according to the Laws, and Usages of the Province, to the best of their Skill and Power, and until they shall be thereof duly discharged: And any Person so chosen Church Warden, who shall refuse to serve, and qualify, by taking the said Oaths, shall be fined One Thousand Pounds of Tobacco.

THE Church Wardens and Vestry are authorized and required to take constant Care to satisfy and pay the Parochial Charges; and all necessary Repairs and Amendments of their respective Churches, Chapels, or Church-Yards to cause to be amended and repaired, out of such Goods, Gifts, or Chattels, as shall come to their Hands, for the Church or Parish Use.

TOWARDS the Payment of the Parochial Charges, all the Fines, Forfeitures, and Mulcts by this Act incurred, shall be levied by the Church Wardens, in each respective Parish, and by them thereto applied accordingly: And if insufficient to answer said Charges, it shall be lawful for the Justices of the County Court, upon Application from the Vestry, and Church Wardens, to assess the Parish by any Sum of Tobacco, not exceeding Ten Pounds per Poll in one Year; which Assessment shall be levied as other publick Dues, and paid to the Vestry for the said Uses, by the Sheriff, he not deducting above Five Hundred Pounds Tobacco for his Salary.

No Minister, or Incumbent, shall at one Time, hold more than two Parishes, nor two, unless at the Desire, and by the Agreement of the Vestrys of each Parish, and Appointment of the Ordinary.

THE Vestry, where there is no Minister nor Incumbent, may provide some sober, and discreet Person as a Reader, and present him to the Ordinary, who may allot him part of the Forty Pounds per Poll: And upon taking the Oaths, and procuring Licence from the Ordinary, he may read divine Service, Homilies, and such other good Authors of practical Divinity, as shall be appointed, at the usual Times, and shall demean himself according to the Liturgy of the Church of England.

THE first Tuesday in each Month is fixed and ascertained for the holding of a Vestry, at the usual Place, by eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon, without any Notice to be given; at which Time and Place, the major Part of the Vestry Men then present, (such Majority not being under the Number of three Persons) shall be deemed a Vestry.

IN Case any Vestry Man remove from the Parish, or voluntarily neglects to give his Attendance, or otherwise become unfit, or incapable to execute his Office, the Residue of the said Vestry, or Majority of them, (not less than three) after giving publick Notice three Sundays, shall have Power to remove such Person, declare his Office void, and to summon a Meeting for electing another in his Place, who shall, after giving a Fortnights Delay, proceed to a new Election accordingly.
