Also the following communication from the executive:

COUNCIL CHAMBER, Annapolis, February 16, 1818.

Genitemen.

I have the satisfaction to communicate to the honourable the general assembly, that the payment of the claim of the state of Maryland, for the expenses of the militia called into service during the late war, has been assumed by the general government. The enclosed letter from the agent, at Washington, contains an assurance also, that the claim will be settled with promptitude and liberality. The assumption of this claim, as soon as its nature was properly explained, affords the most satisfactory evidence of its intrinsic justice, while the documents before communicated illustrate the distinguished ability and zeal with which it has been enforced by the agent of the state.
