Which was read. And the following message:

BY THE SENATE, January 11, 1820.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

We return you a bill, entitled, A supplement to an act, entitled, An act relating to insolvent debtors in the city and county of Baltimore, which contains so many interlineations, erasures and blots, that the meaning of several parts thereof is thereby rendered doubtful and uncertain. We presume it has been sent to us in this condition by mistake, and return it that your honourable house may take such order on the subject as in your judgment shall be right.

By order,   J. N. WATKINS, Clk.

Which was read.

Also the further supplement to an act, entitled, An act for the recovery of small debts out of court, endorsed "will pass with the proposed amendments;" which amendments were read.

The resolution relative to the school fund, was read the second time, and the question put, That the house assent to the same? The yeas and nays being required appeared as follow:
