On motion by Mr. Jenifer, the question was put, That the house adjourn? Determined in the negative.

On motion by Mr. Forwood, the following order was read: Ordered, That this house will continue session till 9 o'clock this evening, and that no motion for an adjournment shall be in order before that time.

On motion by Mr. Lecompte, That the same be stricken out from the word "ordered" for the purpose of inserting the following as a substitute;

That this house has been in session from 9 o'clock this morning until this hour, now wanting minutes of seven o'clock, that the house now adjourn.

A division of the question was called for by Mr. Forwood, and put on striking out. Determined in the negative.

On motion by Mr. Jenifer, the following order was read:

This house having been in session since 9 o'clock, this morning, and the previous question having been called for and carried, since 5 o'clock this evening, and the minority in this house having been barred the right to express their sentiments upon a most important and interesting question, in relation to the Calvert county contested election, and it being now late in the evening, the house will now adjourn. The yeas and nays being required appeared as follow:
