

On motion by Mr. J. B. Eccleston, the question was put, That the whole of the bill be stricken out from the word 'Maryland' in the first clause, to insert the following: 'That the judges of Baltimore county court shall dismiss the petition of Thomas Owens, now pending in said court, preferred under an act entitled, An act to regulate the manner of obtaining and altering public roads in this state, praying that a public road may be opened according to the provisions of the above mentioned act.' Resolved in the affirmative.

On motion by Mr. J. B. Eccleston, the title was amended so as to read, An act respecting an application for a road in Baltimore county court by Thomas Owens.

The question was then put, Shall the said bill pass? The yeas and nays being required appeared as follow:

Resolved in the affirmative, and the bill sent to the senate.

On motion by Mr. S. Stevens, the following message was read and assented to, and with the bills therein mentioned sent to the senate:

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, January 20, 1821.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

We return to your honourable body three bills, one for the relief of Peter Ulrick, one for the relief of Ernest Voight, and one for the relief of Benjamin Rawlings, all of the city of Baltimore, wherein you have omitted to insert the words, 'or commissioners,' in your amendments thereto. We therefore hope you will reconsider your amendments for the purpose of inserting the words 'or commissioners.'

By order, J. BREWER, Clk.

On motion by Mr. J. P. Kennedy, Leave given to bring in a bill, entitled, An act for the relief of the Medical College Lottery. Ordered, That messrs. J. P. Kennedy, Boyle and B. Forrest, report the same.

The clerk of the senate delivers the bill to encourage the destruction of crows in Kent county, and the bill to make valid a deed from Daniel Carroll to Thomas Simpson, severally endorsed "will pass." Ordered to be engrossed. A bill, entitled, An act to alter such parts of the constitution and form of government as relate to the council, and to the appointment of certain officers, endorsed "will pass;" which was read. And the bill authorising Letitia Rochester to convey the lands therein mentioned, and for other purposes, endorsed "will pass with the proposed amendment;" which amendment was read, assented to, and the bill ordered to be engrossed. The bill to provide for the building a court house in Anne-Arundel county, endorsed "will pass." Ordered to be engrossed. The bill to allow Daniel Schnebly, late sheriff and collector of Washington county, further time to complete his collection, endorsed "will not pass." A bill, entitled, An act for the relief of Sarah Cahall of Caroline county, endorsed "will pass," which was read. The supplement to an act, entitled, An act to incorporate the Roman Catholic Congregation in Baltimore town, endorsed "will pass with the proposed amendment;" which amendment was read. The further supplement to the act for regulating the mode of staying executions, and for other purposes, endorsed "will pass with the proposed amendments;" which amendments were read. And the following message:

BY THE SENATE, January 20, 1821.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

We send you the bill, entitled, A further supplement to the act, entitled, An act for regulating the mode of staying executions, and for other purposes, which from its endorsement appears to have passed the senate on the 22d of December. We have now to state, that we detained it with a view of examining whether some further amendments were not necessary. Having become satisfied on this subject, we send it, accompanied by this message, to shew that its detention has not been owing to negligence or inattention on the part of the senate, or its officers.

By order, J. N. WATKINS, Clk.

Which was read.

Also the bill to authorise the levy court of Charles county to build a bridge over Allens Fresh Run, endorsed "will pass." Ordered to be engrossed. The bill for the benefit of John Herbert; the bill for the benefit of the sheriff of Allegany county; the bill to authorise the collectors of the city and county of Baltimore to complete their collection; and the bill for the benefit of John Iglehart, of Anne-Arundel county, severally endorsed "will not pass." With the following message:

BY THE SENATE, January 20, 1821.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

We have rejected your bill for the benefit of John Iglehart, of Anne-Arundel county, because the relief prayed for is already extended to him by the 11th section of the act passed at November session 1796, chap 57, entitled, An act relating to negroes, and to repeal the acts of assembly therein mentioned, and we have uniformly rejected all other bills which the existing laws render unnecessary.

By order, J. N. WATKINS, Clk.

Which was read.

On the second reading of the report of the committee relative to the Cecil election. On motion by Mr. Wilson, the question was put, That the blank for the commissioners be filled up with the names of James Sewell, Frisby Henderson, and John R. Evans. The yeas and nays being required appeared as follow:
