On motion by Mr J. S. Spence the whole bill was reconsidered.

On motion by Mr Julius Forrest, the question was put, That the words, "from and after the fifteenth day of February next," be stricken out of the clause fixing the period when the law is to go into operation? Resolved in the affirmative.

On motion by Mr Semmes, the question was put, that the following be added to the said bill:

And be it enacted, That from and after the passage of this act, the levy court of Baltimore county shall fix the salaries of the several inspectors of Baltimore city, in the same manner as the salaries of tobacco inspectors are regulated in other counties, and that the said inspectors are hereby prohibited from receiving any other salary or perquisites of office whatever." Determined in the negative.

The question was then put, Shall the said bill pass? The yeas and nays being required, appeared as follow:

The house adjourns until to morrow morning 9 o'clock.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 1822.

The house met. Present the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read.

The further supplement to an act entitled, An Act to regulate the inspection of tobacco, was sent to the senate.

Mr Riggs presents a petition from Joseph Delaplane, of Montgomery county, praying a special act of insolvency; read and referred to Messrs Riggs, Duvall and B. S. Forrest.

The Speaker laid before the house a report from the trustees of Hillsborough Academy; which was read.

Mr Moffett delivers a petition from Alexander Waters, of Queen Ann's county, praying the commissioners for building a bridge over the narrows of Kent Island, may pay him his claim for lumber furnished, out of the funds now in their hands; read and referred to Messrs. Moffett, Nicholson and Steven.

Mr. Orrick delivers the following report:

The committee to whom was referred the petition of sundry inhabitants of Baltimore county, praying that a law may pass to open a road from Hampstead to the Riester's Town turnpike road, have had the same under consideration, and report as their opinion, that the law passed at this present session authorising the levy court of Baltimore county to open roads, will embrace their case, and that the prayer of the petitioners ought not to be granted; and that they have leave to withdraw their petition; all which is respectfully submitted.

Which was read.

By order,

JOSEPH IRELAND, Junr. Clk.

Mr. Craig delivers the following report:

The committee to whom was referred the petition of John C. Hull, beg leave to report:—
Whereas, it appears to this General Assembly of Maryland, by the petition of John C. Hull, that he in the year 1816 discovered a piece of land which he conceived to be liable to confiscation, and made application to the governor and council for the benefit of the several acts of assembly relative to confiscated property, in consequence of which the executive ordered a survey to be had thereon, & a valuation thereof made, and for the amount of which your petitioner executed his bond with William Hull as his security for the sum of eighteen hundred and seventy-five dollars, being two thirds the value of said property, and that a caveat was filed by the persons in possession of the lands against a patent issuing therefor to the said Hull, and that upon a final hearing thereof, the Chancellor decreed that a patent should issue for the same; that the said Hull became embarrassed and could not pay the amount of the said land, and without the payment whereof no patent can issue for said land, and that a suit has been brought by the state against the said Hull and his security, which must eventually terminate in the ruin of his security, and that therefore he prays this general assembly to cause his bond to be cancelled upon his giving up all his claim to the said property, it appearing reasonable to do so; Therefore, Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, that
