BY THE HOUSE DELEGATES, February 22, 1823.

Gentlemen of the Senate—We passed an order last evening requesting the governor to cause a salute to be fired in commemoration of this day. We should have sent you up a resolution, at your house not being in session, we were apprehensive, that if we had deferred it until this morning, 'twould have been too late, we therefore hope that you will concur with us in the request we have made. By order,
J. BREWER, Clk.

On motion by Mr. Estep, the following resolution was read, assented to, and sent to the senate.

Resolved, That all proceedings on the part of this state against William Gover, security of Basil Bowling, formerly sheriff of Prince-George's county, be and the same are hereby suspended until the first day of March 1825, provided the said William Gover shall pay one half the debts due to the state from Basil Bowling and William Gover aforesaid, with six per cent interest, and all the costs, on or before the first day of March 1824; and the remaining half said debts, with interest, and any additional costs that may accrue, on or before the first day of March 1825; provided nothing herein contained shall be construed to release the right of the state to any property, real or personal, which has been already taken in execution, or the property of any of the persons aforesaid, and if the first payment is not punctually made on or before the time specified, this resolution shall then be considered null and void.

The resolution relative to Saulsbury Academy, was read the second time; Mr. Allen moved to strike out from the word "Resolved."
