Resolved in the affirmative, and sent to the senate.

The clerk of the senate delivers the following message:

By the Senate, Dec. 29, 1825.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

The senate have received your message, proposing to go into an election, on Thursday next, to fill the vacancies occasioned in the office of register of wills of Frederick, Charles, Kent and Caroline counties, by the death of the late incumbents, and would respectfully propose to change the day for the said election from Thursday next to Wednesday next, at 11 o'clock, A. M. as this arrangement would comport much better with the convenience of the senate than the day proposed by your honourable body. Messrs. Kent and Miller have been appointed by the senate to join the gentlemen named by you to count the ballots, and report thereon.

By order,

W. Kilty, Clk.

Mr. Kilgour reports a bill, entitled, An act to compensate jurors for services therein mentioned.

On motion by Mr. Duvall, the following message was read, assented to, and sent to the senate:

By the House of Delegates, Dec. 29, 1825.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

We have received your message proposing to change the time of electing to the vacated offices of registers of wills, from Thursday to Wednesday next, and assent thereto.

By order,

Jno. Brewer, Clk.

The house adjourns until to-morrow morning 10 o'clock.

Friday, December 30, 1825.

The house met. Present the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read.

John T. H. Worthington, esquire, a delegate returned for Baltimore county, appeared, qualified, and took his seat.

The speaker laid before the house, a communication from the treasurer of the western shore, relative to the school fund; referred to Messrs. Maxcy, Duvall, Edelen, Potter and Harris. Also an account current of funded stock as trustee; also relative to the sinking fund for the reimbursement of the Maryland Penitentiary five per cent stock, and the Maryland University five per cent stock; severally referred to the committee of ways and means.

Mr. Ennalls presents a petition from John T. Shanks, of Dorchester county, praying for a divorce; referred to the standing committee on that subject.

The speaker appointed Messrs. Teackle, Brooke, M'Culloh, Goldsborough, Duvall, Ennalls, and S. R. Smith, to be the committee, to take into consideration the order proposed by Mr. Teackle, relative to a plan
