

15. When the speaker shall decide any question, the same shall be final, unless the yeas and nays be required.

16. The speaker may vote on every question except on an appeal from the chair on a question of order: he may from time to time call any member to the chair, and when on the floor, he shall have the privilege of entering into debate.

17. Every bill or resolution originating in this house, or received from the senate, shall read on two several days with an intermission of one day at least, during which time it shall be on the table for the perusal of the members, unless on very urgent occasions the house shall, by special order, dispense with this rule, which order shall be entered on the journal.

18. Conferrees, and members appointed on draught, if required by three members, shall be elected by ballot, and the number, in no case, shall exceed nine.

19. No bill or resolve shall have a second reading until every member in the city be called upon to attend, except he be excused by the house for indisposition, or necessary attendance on public business.

20. No petition, memorial or other application to the house, shall be received, unless presented by a member.

21. All questions of order shall be determined by the speaker; but there may be an appeal by any member to the house from the decision; and the determination of the house in such case of appeal, shall be final.

22. No motion shall be made after the hour of adjournment, without leave of the house.

23. All misdemeanors which shall happen in the house, shall be censured or fined by the house.

24. No member shall answer on the yeas and nays who did not divide on the question; and if any member divide on one side, and answer on the other on the yeas and nays, the same shall be noted on the journal, at the request of any member.

25. All fines imposed by the house shall be paid to the clerk, and applied as the members shall direct.

26. The substance of all petitions, memorials or other applications, shall be entered on the journal.

27. The clerk of the house shall, during the first week of the session, put into the hands of the speaker a correct list of all papers referred from the preceding session.

28. On motion or debate any member may call for the reading of any law, journal, record or other public proceeding, which may relate to the subject matter.

29. No member shall take out of the house, any bill or other paper belonging to the house, without leave of the speaker, under the penalty of such fine as may be imposed by the speaker not exceeding _____ dollars, and no original paper shall be delivered to any person during the recess of the legislature, without a written order from the speaker.

30. No member shall nominate more than one person on any committee, and in making such nominations shall rise and address himself to the speaker.

31. On an election to any office of trust or profit, no ballots shall be counted unless the person for whom the ballot shall be given, be named to the house, before the balloting be gone into.
