

Total amount in the treasury on the 27th day of January 1826,

335,104 74 3143 95 131,608 58½

Although in contemplation of law, all funds subject to the control of the treasurer, may be considered in the treasury, it may be useful to state to the house, that of the above amount there are actually in the treasury at this time, only the whole of the certificates of the three per cent stock, and the emissions of bills of credit of March 1780, and in current bank notes the sum of

$5860

And in specie

3 23½

$5863 23½

And in bank notes that are not current, viz.

Of the Bank of Somerset

$1197

Of the Merchants Bank of Alexandria

56

Of the Mechanics Bank of Alexandria

25

1253 25

Making a sum in cash in the treasury of $5,116 48½

The balance of the cash, viz. $126,492. 10 is deposited in the Farmers Bank of Maryland, in the name of Benjamin Harwood, Treasurer, as appears by the bank book of the late treasurer, and a certificate of the clerk of said bank.

Recapitulation of Cash.

In the treasury

$5116 48½

In the Farmers Bank of Md. 126,492 10

$131,608 58½

All which is respectfully submitted.

J. M. Baden, Clk.

Which was read.

Mr. Montgomery presents a petition from Willam Sloan, of Harford county for support; referred to the committee on similar petitions.

Mr. Millard reports a bill, entitled, An act to divorce Elizabeth Hammond, and her husband, Joshua Hammond, of Washington county.

Mr. Willson reports a bill, entitled, An act to empower the judges of Montgomery county court to direct the sale of the lands therein mentioned.

Mr. Eccleston obtained leave to bring in a bill, entitled, An act to alter the common law definition of larceny in certain cases. Ordered, That Messrs. Eccleston, Ennalls and Chapman, report the same.

Mr. Thomas obtained leave to withdraw the bill relative to the admission of attorneys at law in the courts of this state.

On motion by Mr Barnes. Ordered, That the bill relative to the inspection of flour in the city of Baltimore, be the order of the day for the 14th inst.

The house adjourns until to-morrow morning, 10 o'clock.