Mr. Duvall delivers the following report:

The committee on the militia, who were instructed by an order of this house, to examine the situation of the house now occupied as a magazine, and the state and condition of the powder and ammunition therein, and to report on the propriety of building a state arsenal, beg leave to report—That in obedience to said instruction, they visited the house now used as a magazine, where is deposited the ammunition belonging to the state, which they consider as unfit for the purpose, in consequence of its insecurity, and remote location, from any inhabited building; the ammunition is in a good state of preservation. Your committee beg leave to suggest the propriety of building a state arsenal, for the safe keeping of the arms and military equipments belonging to the state, and of a fire proof magazine for the preservation of its powder and ammunition, and respectfully recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the governor and council are hereby authorised to contract, on the best terms, for the building of a suitable arsenal for the safe keeping of the arms and military equipments belonging to the state, and that the sum of _____ dollars is hereby appropriated to accomplish the same.

Resolved, That they are hereby authorised to contract, on the best terms, for the building of a suitable fire proof magazine, for the preservation of the powder and ammunition belonging to the state, and that the sum of _____ dollars is hereby appropriated to accomplish the same, to be paid out of any unappropriated money in the treasury.
