Resolved in the affirmative.

Mr. Kennedy moved to fill up the blank with "the 10th." A call of the house being asked for, Mr. Williams moved to dispense with the rule permitting the call.

The question was then put on filling up with the "10th?" Determined in the negative.

Mr. Estep moved the 9th. Resolved in the affirmative.

Mr. Edelen offered the following as a substitute:

By the House of Delegates, March 1st, 1826.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

Having agreed some time since to close the session on this day, but finding, from a view of the bills and business yet unacted upon, that it is utterly impracticable so to do and not being able at this time, from the amount of important business yet to be acted upon, to name any particular day in which we shall be able, with certainty, to close the session, have therefore named no day, but propose to close the session as speedily as we can, consistently with the duty we owe to our constituents.

By order,

John Brewer, Clk.

The yeas and nays being required appeared as follow:
