

act, on the first day of January annually. Resolved in the affirmative,

Mr. Teackle moved the following:

And be it enacted: That nothing herein contained shall be construed to exonerate the medical professors from their obligation for the payment of interest as required by the act of 1821, chapter 88, or in any wise to impair the public security in that regard, but that it shall be the duty of the said professors and of their successors, to continue and confirm the obligation and other requisitions of the said act. Resolved in the affirmative.

Mr. Howard moved the following:

And be it enacted, That this act shall go into effect and operation on the 1st of June next, and not before.

Mr. Kennedy moved the following as a substitute.

That if in the opinion of the chief judge of the court of appeals, this act in all or any of its provisions is unconstitutional, or violates in any degree the act of incorporation of the University of Maryland, the same shall not go into effect before the close of the next session of the legislature.

Determined in the negative.

The amendment proposed by Mr. Howard was assented to.

The question was then put, Shall the said bill pass?
