

land, and the equity and right of the matter, in the same manner and under the same rules and regulations, to all intents and purposes, as justices of the peace are now authorised and empowered to do, when the debt and damages doth not exceed the sum of fifty dollars current money.

Sec. 16. And be it enacted, That in all cases where judgment shall be rendered by the said courts for any sum exceeding ten pounds current money, it shall be lawful for the defendant or defendants, to supersede the said judgment before the court rendering the same, at any time within sixty days from the rendition thereof, which superseas shall stay execution for twelve months thereafter.

Sec. 17. And be it enacted, That the judges of the several county courts within this state, shall not hold plea in said courts of any debts or damages in cases within the jurisdiction given to this court by this act, except where the writ or original process issued for the recovery of the same; shall have been impetrated at any time before the first day of April next.

Sec. 18. And be it enacted, That any judgment rendered by this court for debt or damages, shall be a lien upon any real property, owned by the person against whom said judgment is rendered: Provided the holder of the same shall have it recorded in the county court at his expense; the lien to take effect from the time of recording the said judgment, and the clerk of the county court shall receive the sum of twelve and a half cents for recording the same.

Sec. 19. And be it enacted, That the said court shall have power to issue such process as may be necessary to enforce the payment of any judgment rendered by them, in the same manner as the county court or justices of the peace now issue process for the collection of money, and direct the same to the sheriff of the county, or to a constable at their discretion."
