The clerk of the senate delivered the following message; which was read:

By the Senate, December 30, 1826.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

We have received your message of yesterday, in which you state you cannot concur with us, in constituting a joint committee to contract for the printing of the acts of the legislature during the present session, and the journal of the proceedings of the two houses. In making this proposal, we did not intend to intrench upon your privileges, or to extend our own, nor did we apprehend that in so doing we departed from our legislative usages. We conceive it will be conceded, that each branch of the le-
