

For Saint Mary's county, John T. Hawkins, John L. Millard, Stephen H. Gough, and Richard Thomas, Esquires. For Kent county, William B. Wilmer, Joseph Mann, David J. Campbell, and James Boon, Esquires. For Anne-Arundel county, Charles R. Stewart, William J. W. Compton, Robert W. Kent, and Abner Linthicum, Esquires. For Calvert county, George Bourne, Richard J. Somerville, John J. Brooke, and Mordecai Smith, Esquires. For Charles county, John G. Chapman, Thomas Rogerson, John Hughes, and Philip King, Esquires. For Baltimore county, Abraham H. Price, James M. Buchanan, James Turner, and James W. McCulloh, Esquires. For Talbot county, Thomas P. Bennett, Stephen Reyner, Spry Denny, and Robert Banning, Esquires. For Somerset county, William Done, Littleton J. Dennis, Henry J. S. Gibbons, and Littleton D. Teackle, Esquires. For Dorchester county, John H. Pitt, Brice J. Goldsborough, Martin L. Wright, and Samuel L. Rauleigh, Esquires. For Cecil county, John W. Thomas, Joseph Harlan, Richard B. Thompson, and John S. Maffitt, Esquires. For Prince-George's county, William D. Beall, Richard Peach, Edmund Du Val, and Benjamin L. Gantt, Esquires. For the city of Annapolis, Joseph J. Speed, and Richard J. Crabb, Esquires. For Queen Anne's county, Robert Stevens, Charles K. Nicholson, James Winchester, and Richard Ridgaway, Esquires. For Worcester county, Samuel R. Smith, John P. Slemaker, George Bishop, and Levin Hitch, Esquires. For Frederick county, John C. Cockey, Samuel Barnes, Thomas Sappington, and William P. Farquhar, Esquires. For Harford county, Thomas Hope, Alexander Norris, Samuel Sutton, and James Montgomery, Esquires. For Caroline county, Robert T. Keene, Thomas Saulebury, William M. Hardcastle, and John Brown, Esquires. For the city of Baltimore, John S. Tyson and John Stricker, Esquires. For Washington county, Thomas B. Hall, Robert M. Tidball, Jonathan Newcomer, and William H. Fitzhugh, Esquires. For Montgomery county, Edward Hughes, John P. C. Peter, Willy Janes, and John W. Lansdale, Esquires. For Allegany county, William Ridgely, Jacob Hoblitzell, Robert Armstrong, and William Shaw, Esquires.

Your committee further report, that since the return of the elections held in Frederick, Dorchester and Kent counties, John C. Cockey, John R. Pitt and Joseph Mann, Esquires, delegates elect and returned for said counties, have deceased, and that warrants of election, to supply the vacancies in the delegations from those counties, have been issued; the result of which elections, when ascertained, will be reported to the house.

Your committee beg leave further to report, that they have received a communication from two of the delegates from Dorchester county, relative to a constitutional disability to hold a seat in this house on the part of Samuel L. Rauleigh, Esq. a delegate elect and returned from said county. Your committee beg that said communication, which accompanies this report, may be read as part of said report and that your honourable body