CHURCH HILL ITEMS.

CHURCH HILL, March 26, '88. We are still having rough weather...

Under our Church Hill items will be found an essay on education by our correspondent from that place.

Mr. Robt H. Gr. of our popular butcher, was appointed a Justice of the Peace on Monday.

Thursday afternoon was the first clear weather we had this week.

The law to divide this district into two precincts, passed the house on Tuesday.

The bill to legalize primaries in this county has passed the House and Senate.

On account of the long continued wet and cold weather our farmers are away behind in their work.

The directors of the Talbot County Fair Association have fixed the date of the Talbot county annual fair.

To day is the last day allowed by law for sailing and dredging oysters.

The bill to resubmit the question of local option to the voters of this district, was reported unfavorable.

On Saturday night last, Mr. Geo. Stichberry, of Tarsers woods near Easton, Talbot county, had a horse stolen from his stable.

The advertisement of the well-known and reliable house of Messrs. Hamilton, Easter & Sons, will be found in this issue of THE NEWS.

The cry of fire, fire, fire! Aroused our citizens about 3 a. m., yesterday morning.

In Brief, And To The Point. Dyspepsia is dreadful. Disordered liver is misery.

The human digestive apparatus is one of the most complicated and wonderful things in existence.

Remember—No happiness without health and happiness to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist for a bottle.

Baby Bunting Again. One of the greatest literary hits of the season is the story of "Baby Bunting."

The papers containing the opening chapters of this wonderfully popular romance appeared on the news stands this morning.

On Tuesday the 27th he captured the schooner. W. H. Vickery, Capt. S. B. Gladden, Sch. J. C. Maboney, Capt. W. W. Mash, for illegal dredging in Chester river.

They had a hearing before Justice Winchester who held each of the boats in the sum $125, bail and each of the captains in $250, or their appearance at court. May term.

WINCHESTER ITEMS.

Things are moving here as usual—only a little more so when struck by the blizzard—carried away some old people and a good many trees—but thanks to his majesty none of us!

The weather is not yet settled and of course unsets us. The sun probably got hung on the line in attempting to cross it, and this may account for the unsettled weather.

The oystermen are trying to work between times, but oysters are scarce and prices low so that their labor doesn't amount to much.

The steamer Gov. Hamilton and the dredgers had a big fight on Sunday night last, so says report.

Where, oh where, is Winchester famous gun? Reports says looked up in a stable in town.

Perhaps it is not generally known that the people of Winchester are largely quakers and opposed to war and fighting.

The intense fog that has prevailed for the last few days, has made it quite dark on our bay and river.

Orphans Court. This court met pursuant to adjournment. Present, John Dodd, chief justice; Edward S. Valliant and James R. Sudler, associate justices.

The steamer Gratitudine has become a regular visitor to our section, making her trips daily.

Two small lots of about one acre of ground each were offered for sale on Saturday last.

The weather is still gloomy fish such as rock, perch and cat-fish more plentiful.

The adjourned quarterly conference of Queen Anne's Circuit did not hold its session as advertised.

At this meeting the advisability of dividing this circuit will be in agitation. No doubt if we had to serve for awhile as pastor and ride the distance between the charges every Sunday and travel as specimens of any kind of road from the "very best" to the "very worst" we would be in favor of dividing. Such is the sentiment of Mr. Marshall.

Mr. Harry Covell has returned succeeding Mr. Orrell in business, and is as always ready to cast a smile on any one desiring anything in his line of trade.

The River and Harbor Bill. Under the bill Maryland is to receive $245,000, this amount being distributed as follows:

Baltimore harbor, $250,000; Breton's bay, $3,000; Choptank river, $7,500; Corsica river, $10,000; Susquehanna river, $10,000; Chincoteague bay, $50,000; Patuxent river, from Benedict to Hill's Landing, $5,000; Cambridge harbor, $5,000; Fairlee creek, $5,000.

New Surveys—Nanokin river, Somerset county; La Trappe river, Talbot county; Tuckahoe river, Caroline county; Warwick river, formerly Secretary creek, Dorchester county; Wicomico river, Wicomico county; Wetupin river, Wicomico county; Chester river, between Crampton and Jones Landing, Queen Anne's county and Kent county; Sassafras river, Kent county; Still Pond harbor, Kent county; South East river, Queen Anne's county; North East river, Cecil county; Wicomico river, mouth of Potomac, St. Mary's county.

No recommendations are made or the harbor at Annapolis, St. J. oe's bay, the piers at Battery Island bay, the piers at Battery Island, or the passage between Deal's Island and the mainland.

It will be seen from the above figures that Maryland was faithfully represented on the committee by Representative Gibson. In the last river and harbor bill Maryland was to have received but $242,500. Baltimore harbor, $200,000; Breton's bay, $2,500; Choptank and Corsica rivers, $2,500 each. The Susquehanna river received $10,000, the same as in the new bill while the provision for Chincoteague bay was but $25,000.

KBNT ISLAND ITEMS.

Some little excitement was caused in town on last Saturday evening.

Mr. Harry Hopkins horse breaking away and running around town in a circle and coming in contact with Mr. Emory Skinner horse and carriage that was standing in front of Miss Cook's Millinery store.

We notice that one of our young townsmen has tacked up a notice an offer of reward.

Two applicants here for the position of Capt. of the police schooner Frolic, now commanded by Capt. Stanley Bryan, we do not know anything about the gentlemen applying for the position.

The intense fog that has prevailed for the last few days, has made it quite dark on our bay and river.

Orphans Court. This court met pursuant to adjournment. Present, John Dodd, chief justice; Edward S. Valliant and James R. Sudler, associate justices.
