Ancenstown News.

JOHN M. AKER, Editor.

"INDEPENDENT BUT NOT NEUTRAL."

NO. 16.

VOL. VII.

QUEENSTOWN, MARYLAND, SATURDAY, APRIL 21, 1888.

Cuban ladies do not talk to each other when they go shopping. They do not regard a store as the proper place in which to entertain their friends.

Spain has decided to permit trials by jury, but the selection of the jury is to be left to the government prosecutor This is a backward step forward.

There is a movement on foot in Mexi-and his fittle, plush-cloaked, be-ribboned sister; and where Letty was sometime abstituted for the organist, who had a race of 2.35, 0.09 septime miles shout one twelfth of the land area). divided into three groups—westera, central and southern Europe (about 245,000,000 of inhabitants and 1,31,000 square miles) the Indian Empire (245,000,000 of inhabitants and 1,331,000 square miles). China proper, with Yanchuria and Japan, (320,000,000 of innabitants and 1,344, 500 square miles). The most populous regions are found along the great rivers, in many cases on the coasts. Coal basins attract population far more than valleys, in many cases on the coasts. Coal basins attract population far more than valleys, in many cases on the coasts. Coal basins attract population far more than valleys, in many cases on the coasts. Coal passins attract population far more than valleys, in many cases on the coasts. Coal passins attract population far more than valleys, in many cases on the coasts. Coal passins attract population far more than valleys, in many cases on the coasts. Coal passins attract population far more than valleys, in many cases on the coasts. Coal passins attract population far more than valleys, in many cases on the coasts. Coal basins attract population far more than valleys, in many cases on the coasts. Coal basins attract population far more than valleys, in many cases on the coasts. Coal basins attract population far more than valleys, in many cases on the coasts. Coal basins attract population far more than valleys, in many cases on the coasts. Coal basins attract population far more than valleys, in many cases on the coasts. Coal basins attract population far more than valleys, in many cases on the coasts. Coal basins attract population far more than valleys, in many cases on the coasts. Coal basins attract population far more than valleys, in many cases on the coasts. Coal basins attract population far more than valleys, in many cases on the coasts. Coal basins attract population far more than valleys, i

"Yerba matey," it is predicted by the Detroit Free Press, will soon become the popular drink in this country. It is said to be arometic, non-intexicating, and to the popular drink in this country. It is said to far over her that his silk hat was get to be arometic, non-intexicating, and to the popular drink in this country. It is said to far over her that his silk hat was get to be arometic. She recognized the moonlight to the popular drink in this country and the popular drink in this country. It is said to far over her that his silk hat was get to be arometic, non-intexicating, and to the popular drink in this country. It is said to far over her that his silk hat was get to be arometic. She recognized the moonlight to the popular drink in this country are the popular drink in this country. It is said to far over her that his silk hat was get to be arometic. She recognized the moonlight to the popular drink in this country. It is said to far over her that his silk hat was get to be arometic. She recognized the moonlight to the popular drink in this country. It is said to far over her that his silk hat was get to be arometic. She recognized the moonlight to the popular drink in this country. It is said to far over her that his silk hat was get to be arometic, non-intexically and the fourth of the popular drink in this country. The pressure of the popular drink in this country are the popular drink in this country. The had her mutic roll, and hid oldered has a manhogany hat rack with a long mirror, and lying informally on her plant to present the property of the present the property of the present that the property of t to be arometic, non-intoxicating, and to have chemical properties and produce physical effects not unlike those of tex and conee. It anables a person to go a away all the time."

It is an to were that his silk hat was get the notes of the Gibson plano were the have specified by the product of the Gibson plano were the horse of the and coffee. It anothes a person to go a long time without food. Viscount d'Absac, 'Jonal-General for France, who was stationed in Paraguay, South America, for several years, says that the 'yerba matey' is a universal drink throughout the valley of the Rio de la Plata, and is offered to all viritors as soon as they pass within the partals of any habitation, rechor poor, It is severed to in a bowl and is drunk through a time of the little music tea her and not in a bowl and is drunk through a time of the little music tea her and not in piecesant to the taste at first, and one score scale said or; but Mr. Gibson seemed to would stay all the time."

"Mho was it? Mrs. Gibson, possibly: but Letty had had the impression that Mrs. Gibson didn't had had the impression that Mrs. Gibson, possibly:

We have the lighting that threatens. We have the lighting that threatens. We have the lighting that threatens.

We have the lighting that threatens. We have the lighting that threatens.

We have the lighting that threatens.

We have the lighting that threatens.

We have the lighting that threatens.

We have the lighting that threatens.

We have the lighting that threatens.

We have the lighting that threatens.

We have the lighting that threatens.

We have the lighting tha terrupt our industries.

We have the lighting that threatens.

W

COOD NIGHT AND GOOD MORNING.

And the faint tings of day hi the far West

Good-night-for the stars that above us are

GOOD NIGHT AND GOOD MORNING.

"Do you like music tea hing?" he said, beloing her across a puddie. "I suppose lit's a bore?"

"Do you like music tea hing?" he said, beloing her across a puddie. "I suppose lit's a bore?"

"THE CUBAN SUGAR FARMS with all the wealth, all the aggregation of busy beings, all the elegance that you will find at the house of the nabob pro-

"You take beginners then?"
"You take beginners then?"
"You take beginners then?"
"Yes."

Mr. Gibson sprang to his feet.

"Pon't look like that!" he entreated, rushing toward her. "Don't Miss Whit.

Figar L. Wakeman writes as follows one little vale away back across the from Cuba to the New York Mail and years, held more comfort and heart-hope taker."

The fact is, these great sugar estates are now run on so gigantic a scale that they are little less than hage factories, with all the hard characteristics of factories, and five children. The children all and five children are physical and five chi Every now and then we get a reminder of the existence of uncontrollable election to the hall. Letty looked at it of the existence of uncontrollable election to the hall. Letty looked at it of the existence of uncontrollable election which mains before which man is helples, and against which no invention can ever set it is a factory village, camploying and against which no invention can ever set of the existence of uncontrollable election wholly climinated. The place against which no invention can ever set of the existence of uncontrollable election wholly climinated. The place against which no invention can ever set of the existence of uncontrollable election wholly climinated. The place is like a factory village, camploying and caring for from one to two thousand caring for from one to two thousand caring for from one to two thousands. We have destructive blizzards like those in Dakota.

We have destructive blizzards like those in Dakota.

We have extraordinary snow storms which stop the wheels of traffic and interval to the half the existence of uncontrollable electory tile about them, the home or rural against which neither the parents nor any one dear they done the which neither the parents nor any one dear they dearly the about them, the home or rural against which neither the parents nor any one dear they dearly the about them, the home or rural against which neither the parents nor any one dear they dearly the about them, the home or rural against which neither the parents nor any one dear they dearly the about them, the home or rural to ry the about them, the home or rural to replace the still the still the hird characteristics of factory tile about them, the home or rural to replace them to the still the third characteristics of factory tile about them, the home or rural to replace the still the third characteristics of factory tile about them, the home or rural to replace the still the third characteristics arters. The old 'mammies' are set at minding' the pickaninnies during the pickaninnies are set at beging letters. There was one which day, which are only turned over to the parents at night. The broken-down and inbacile have an asylum. Probably no village containing a like number of people has the same systematic surveillance and care. There is an infirmary, a hospital, physician, apoth-cary, a chapel, and priest. At night and morning mass is said in chapel, and the crowds are always large. There is of a Sunday less restraint, though this under ceaseless restraint, though this under ceaseless respionage. In the so days, and in parts of holdays, there is vide height and priest of holdays, there is of a Sunday less restraint, though this under ceaseless respirates and generosity, and she would send her a blue with the first appeared in the streets of don in the last century with one of the kindness and generosity, and she would send her a blue with the first appeared in the streets of don in the last century with one of the wind send her and he showed it. The writer said she was and the was all the streets of the treet him from the rain. The first appeared in the streets of don in the last century with one of the wind send her a blue with the first appeared in the streets of don in the last century with one of the wind send her a blue was and generosity, and she would send her a blue with the Egyptisms 4000 years ago. The health of the Egyptisms 4000 yea

COOD-NIGHT AND GOOD-MORNING.

"Do you like music tea hing?" he said, helping her acro's a puddie. "I suppose it's a bore?"

And twilight draws near with the dusk in its train, althe fair tings of day in the far West has easied.

And the fair tings of day in the far West has easied.

It builded and bloomed and it blossomed in the instruction book.

"Ch. yes 1—from six to twenty. From the instruction book of the instruction book."

"Do you like music tea hing?" he said, helping her acro's a puddie. "I suppose it's suppose it's a bore?"

"It is music-teacher had stood in the doorway some three minutes before her was a crashing of the keys.

"All ages, I suppose?" said Mr. Gibson spraag to his feet.

"All ages is the instruction book."

"It builded and bloomed and it blossomed in the down in the command of the mass passed.

"All ages, I suppose?" said Mr. Gibson spraag to his feet.

"All ages a puddie." I suppose it's a bore?"

"All ages, I suppose?" said Mr. Gibson spraag to his feet.

"All ages a puddie." I suppose it's a bore?"

"All ages, I suppose?" said Mr. Gibson spraag to his feet.

"All ages a puddie." I suppose it's a bore?"

"All ages a puddie." I suppose it's a bore?"

"All ages a puddie." I suppose it's a bore?"

"All ages a puddie." I suppose it's a bore?"

"All ages a puddie." I suppose it's a bore?"

"All ages a puddie." I suppose it's a bore?"

"All ages a puddie." I suppose it's a bore?"

"All ages a puddie." I suppose it's a bore?"

"All ages a puddie." I suppose it's a bore?"

"All ages a puddie." I suppose it's a bore?"

"All ages a puddie." I suppose it's a bore?"

"All ages a puddie." I suppose it's a bore?"

"All ages a puddie." I suppose it's a bore?"

"All ages a puddie." I suppose it's a bore?"

"All ages a puddie." I suppose it's a bore?"

"All ages a puddie." I suppose it's a bore?"

"All ages a puddie." I suppose it's a bore?"

"All ages a puddie." I suppose it's a bore?"

"All ages a puddie." I suppose it's a

The statement makes from the statement of the statement of the statement makes from the statement of the sta gines and boilers kept endlessly raging by the burning begazo, countless pipes and fixtures and the huge nickel-plated "vacuum pans," imbedded in polished wood, where the rane juice, seemingly quiet, is kept at a fearful heat by eam the great vats and reservoirs; and, finally, the swirling; whirling centrifugal machines that, inside of five minutes, take the black, mosty, mushy mess and ly, the swirling, whirling centrifugal machines that, inside of five minutes, take the black, nexty, mushy mess and bear it until it is as white as snow and ready for market. From 2,000,000 for 5,000,000 pounds are frequently made annually upon each of these plantations, besides the enormous yield of molasses, which is an important factor in the crop.

The fact is, these great sugar estates are new run on a control has other cuitodities, are new run on so organic a scale that

CORNED BEEF AND CABBAGE.

Spring chicken, roast partridge, Broiled woodcock and quail May please the dyspeptics, Whose appetites fall; But, for a man bearty, And healthy and who

Price Two Cents.

Takes always the prize The beef, streak o' fat, ponse to the offer of a piece of bread and butter, politely said: "Thank you." "That's right, Bobby," said the lady, "I like to hear little boys say thank you," "Yes, ma told me I must say that if you gave me anything to eat, even

Man is largely the architect of his own fortune, and yet a strong and well de-veloped man works hard for $1.25 or $1.50 per day, while a small, second edition sort of a man with an abnormally developed wart on some portion of his anatomy grows wealthy in a dime-museum, and laughs the world to scorn. -Oil Ci y Blizzard

"Now that you are going to marry my daughter I would like to know something of your faults." "Very well, sir." "Do you smoke or chew?" "Never did cities in my life." "Do you drink." "No, sir. I don't drink or gamble or saven or read en exhibition in Albany, N. Y. It bears the name of an Italian maker. It has been asserted that umbrellas are a later invention than 1630 and that an Engli man first appeared in the streets of Lon-don in the last century with one to pro-tect him from the rain. The fact is, however, that umbrellas were in use by the Egyptisms 4000 years ago. The dum brellas were sometimes attached to Widam James says that Llewellya s pronounced "ithylluthlin" in Weish.