

Our Washington Letter.

From our regular correspondent. Washington, April 20 1888

Since I last wrote to you there has been in the House of Representatives a struggle that is destined to be memorable in the political annals of the United States.

The ranks of the opposing forces in this battle are considerably diversified. Under the same banner fight the uncompromising free trader, the advocate of a tariff for revenue only, the member whose sole aim is to reduce tariff revenue by a removal of tariff duties, and the weak-knee protectionist who believes that concessions must be made to satisfy public opinion, or who feels the he is fighting a cause ruinous to the industries of the country, and to his party, but who is whipped into line by the partisan lash and by threats of the penalties of desertion.

On the other side is an army no less variegated in views and discordant in utterances. Standing shoulder to shoulder may be seen the extreme protectionist, the man whose principal desire is to reduce the revenue but who prefers to accomplish his purpose by checking all revenue from imports by means of a prohibitory tariff, the man who resists a reduction of import duties simply because he is interested in the removal of internal taxation from tobacco or fruit brandies, the free-trader in theory but opponent of the practical enforcement of the theory in this country, or at this time, as if applied to some local manufacturer or industry, and lastly the rear-guard, similar to the corresponding branch of the opposing army, who do not bother with political economy, but who are for their party, wether right or wrong.

This motley appearance, in motive and opinion, presented by the allies on both sides of the question, gives an uncertainty to the contest, and adds to its interest as a mere spectacle. It being known that the debate on the Mills tariff bill would open on Tuesday, the Hall of the House was full both the floor and the galleries. Mr. Mills, of Texas, the Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, led off in the contest with a speech which his sympathizers on the tariff question regarded as masterpiece and an unanswerable appeal for tariff reform as embodied in the bill.

Mr. Mills is one of those old-fashioned statesmen who disdain to write speeches out beforehand, and he delivered his without even notes to guide him, though by his side sat the clerk of his committee, armed with the official statistics and documents that the speaker was likely to need. When he closed there was a loud shout of applause and the whole Democratic side of the House crowded round him with congratulations. Mr. Randall and several other Democratic unbelievers, who sat coldly attentive to the speech while it was being delivered and coldly abstained from any demonstration of approval at its close.

The opposition was led by Representative Kelly, of Pa. who is a Republican, an enthusiastic protectionist, having been called in past years Big Iron Kelly, because of his vigorous advocacy of high tariff on that metal for the protection of the industries of his State, and the oldest man in Congress as well as the one who has served the greatest number of years in that body.

The President sent to the Fifteenth Congress this week his first batch of vetoes of private pension bills. They were three in all two against bills which originated in the Senate and one against a House bill.

A bill was introduced into the Senate by Senator Stewart asking a pension of $5,000 for Mrs. Marian Waite. He said he did this in reply upon his own responsibility for the reason that he believed the widow of the Chief Justice should be provided for in the same manner as widows of ex-Presidents.

There seems to be considerable credence given to the rumor that the President has determined to appoint Hon. E. J. Phelps, of Vermont, at present Minister to England, to the vacant Chief Justice of the United States. Mr. Phelps is sixty six years old, it is true, but he is well preserved, and it is said that under all the circumstances, Mr. Cleveland does not deem it wise to select a younger man to preside over those old veterans of the Supreme Court Bench.

Let that colds of yours run on. You think it is a light thing. But it may run into catarrh. Or into pneumonia. Or consumption. Catarrh is disgusting. Pneumonia is dangerous. Consumption is death itself. The breathing apparatus must be kept healthy and clear of all obstructions and offensive matter. Otherwise there is trouble ahead.

All the diseases of these parts, head, nose, throat, bronchial tubes and lungs can be delightfully and entirely cured by the use of Doan's German Syrup. If you don't know of people can tell you. They have been cured by it, and know how it is, themselves. Bottle only 75 cents. Ask any druggist.

The pool room over the News office is open at all hours. The public who are fond of the sport are invited to call when in town.

LOCALS AND GENERAL NEWS.

GULLED FROM THE COUNTY AND ELSEWHERE.

The Republicans of this county hold their primary meetings to-day. We had heavy frosts and light ice on Tuesday and Wednesday mornings of this week.

A colored concert troupe visited our town this week and gave three concerts, the attendance was very small.

The candidates who are looking for appointment in our oyster navy from this county, were out in force in Centreville, on Tuesday, and were very busy button holding their friends.

A prisoner in Centreville jail, named McAllister, awaiting trial for stealing out a hole through the wall on Monday night and made good his escape.

COURT ADJOURNED TO MEET TUESDAY NEXT.

Democratic Campaign Clubs. Democratic Campaign clubs are to be organized in every principal town and district in the United States for the President campaign. They will hold a grand convention in Baltimore July 4th, of this year. This is the platform.

"The general and familiar principles of Democracy are of course the basis of Democratic clubs. Specific measures to which the Democracy is absolutely pledged in this year's campaign are as follows:

"1. That the general Government shall not use its power of taxation for the benefit of individual or class interests.

"2. That we indorse the measures recommended by the President of the United States in his message to Congress, and that we favor speedy and effectual legislation to carry the same into effect.

"3. That the Civil Service laws which have been enacted shall be maintained, and that President Cleveland in his interpretation and enforcement shall be upheld.

"4. That the combination of corporations through trusts to destroy competition, endanger the rights of individuals and create monopolies, shall be prohibited by stringent laws.

"5. That the agricultural public lands shall be reserved to sell settlers for settlement, under the Homestead laws, and we recommend the reclaiming of lands heretofore granted to corporations, so far as the same can be legally done."

Wheat is looking finely in our vicinity weather very cool, roads good, news scarce, as all are busy in their work. We were disappointed in not receiving our valued "Queenstown News" last week, suppose it was overlooked. Miss Alice Startt is very much improved and able to receive visitors at this writing. Mrs. Leonard Harley has been quite sick, but is now visiting her parents - Mr. John Bishop - for a while. Wye M. P. Church welcomed their new pastor, Rev. S. J. Smith, last Sabbath, April 22d., who gave them an excellent opening sermon, principally from the text "So I am with you always." It was forcible and forth the duties and responsibilities resting upon both pastor and people. Yet most beautiful showing in whom to trust for help in time of need. The congregation was quite large. Rev. Mr. Poole visited Wye church Sunday, and was warmly welcomed by all. He briefly addressed the Sunday School upon the lesson. Mr. T. Chew Pace is better and bow at his farm, boarding with Mr. Thomas, tenant.

M. J. Cordray Loud, wife and child

Mr. Albert Groves, of Kent county, spent several days at Mr. Albert Groves last week.

Mr. Albert Groves, if weather is favorable, will finish planting 2 large fields of corn by Saturday, April 22d.

We notice peach trees of two years old are in a flourish condition and full of blossoms.

Mr. John Thomas met with an accident Thursday; being thrown from the carriage and contents spilt and several things broken, but was not injured himself. BLIZZARD.

KENT ISLAND ITEMS.

Our farmers are all now busily engaged in plowing up their ground for corn.

One farmer, an old gentleman living near Kent Island ferry, name not known, by your correspondent is done planting his corn crop.

On last Saturday, 21st, a company of young gentlemen started Annapolis in Mr. Charles Ringold's pleasure yacht to witness a very interesting game of base ball played by the Annapolis college club and a visiting club composed of some young men from the island and their college companion but when about half way across the bay the wind got to high for them and they had to reef and put back home, without seeing the game of ball, but I guess the game went on all the same.

Fish are getting better and more plentiful, shad and rocks are now becoming a common catch with pound nets and seine gilliers are catching pan rock and very fine shad. Mr. George Lowe is catching high as 15 barrels at a fishing consisting of shad, herring, rock, perch and bay flounders, and plenty of alewives.

One day last week while Mr. John O. Cocker, living down the island was driving one of his cows out of one field to another the dog he had helping him drove the cow out in the creek and kept her there until she was drowned, causing him quite a loss as it was a fine animal, and for pay. He got his gun and shot the dog.

The steamer Gratitudine was sighted from Love point passing out of the river on Sunday last, on her way to Baltimore and was also seen to return in the afternoon late she must have been out on a Sunday pleasure trip.

There is some talk of the Steamer Gratitudine of the Corsica river line having a wharf here on the island off Mr. J. M. Carville shore we hope she may succeed as it would be a great convenience to the lower part of the island and besides opposition is the life of trade.

MEZEPHA. CHURCH HILL ITEMS. Since our last writing death has come suddenly in our midst. Mrs. Jane Wilmer died very suddenly with paralysis at the residence of her son, in Wilmer's Neck, on Friday night. The funeral took place at her late residence on Sunday afternoon, the Rev. T. O. Crouse of Centreville officiating, assisted by Rev. Q. A. Wheat of the place. The pall-bearers were Wm. E. Temple, Wm. McKenney, Wm. D. Gould, Wm. J. Price, Wm. J. Hopper, J. T. Hyson. Honorary pall bearers, Lemuel Wright and Collins Wright. The remains were interred in the family burying ground on the farm where she lived. Mrs. Wilmer was about seventy five years of age she was a good christian woman, warm hearted, generous, never speaking any harm of any one, but kind and generous to all. She leaves a son and three daughters to mourn her loss. They have the sympathy of the community. Mrs. Hunter also died very suddenly near here on Thursday night of last week.

A very pretty marriage took place at St. Luke's church on Wednesday evening, the contracting parties were Mr. Austin Condon and Miss Jennie Mayhool, both of this town. Rev. Dr. Duhamel performed the ceremony the bride was handsomely attired in cream colored henrietta cloth, the groom wore the conventional black. Miss Katie Friel presided at the organ. The ushers were Mr. Raymond Sparks John Friel, Spencer Newman and Howard Weatherly. The bride was given away by her uncle, Mr. Mitchell of Greenboro, Md.

A valuable horse owned by David Clark, of Delaware got a leg broken in the stable here one day last week. Mr. W. E. Temple, Jr., dr. Dr. Hurlock have returned from their trip down the bay and St. Mary's Co., HUB.

An Opportunity for the People of Queenstown.

In Baltimore one of the most rapidly growing enterprises of the last few years, and one of the most appreciated as well as the most profitable, has been the Installment Business. Its great advantage and benefit especially to the medium and poorer classes, cannot be overestimated. Formerly people in ordinary circumstances were compelled to do without a great many necessary comforts of life: that their houses were scantily furnished, and only because they could not at anytime raise sufficient cash money to properly furnish them. What little furniture they had, was of the poorest and cheapest class and never made a respectable appearance, or gave any satisfaction. Now on the installment plan any honest person, no matter what his or her circumstances are, no matter how poor or how rich, can get anything in the way of Furniture, Carpets, Stoves, Crockery, Refrigerators, Baby Carriages, Parlor Organs, etc., in fact any or everything necessary to furnish the home complete from cellar to attic - they can get all these things by paying a small amount cash down and the balance on small monthly payments, which are made to suit their circumstances and are always made so low that they will hardly be missed. This plan has become so popular in all the larger cities that over two-thirds of all the people now purchase their household goods this way - in fact all excepting the extreme wealthy classes. Now the People of Queenstown never had this opportunity offered until the People of Queenstown Company, 119 and 119 1/2 N. Howard Street, between Fayette and Lexington Sts., Baltimore, the largest and best conducted and most reliable installment house in Baltimore, a resident of Queenstown or immediate vicinity, the same advantage as the people of Baltimore now enjoy - that is to sell them their household goods on the installment plan at lowest cash prices and make terms of payments low enough to suit any one's convenience. This House not only sells every kind of Furniture, Carpets, Stoves, Refrigerators, Baby Carriages, Crockery, Cutlery, House Furnishing Goods, Parlor Organs, etc., but also carries a complete stock of Silks, Velvets, Foreign and Domestic Dress Goods, Ladies Cloaks and Wraps, Millinery, Gents', Youths', Boys' and Children's, Shoes, Hats, Watches, Jewelry, etc., and in fact they are general outfitters and are the only House in Baltimore where wearing apparel as well as furniture too, can be bought on the installment plan at cash prices and very easy terms of payment. This House will always be glad to have the people of Queenstown call on them whether they intend purchasing or not - will be glad to have them look through their immense Warehouse and get full particulars regarding Terms etc. Any information desired by mail will be promptly furnished.

Grand Opening for a Cannary. FOR SALE OR RENT. I have a two-story house situated on Queenstown river in the village of Queenstown, within fifteen feet of 7 feet of water. The water abounds in oysters, fish and crabs, which can be delivered in boats within fifteen feet of the building. The lands in the district are adapted to the growth of tobacco, peaches and all kind of vegetables. There has been large orchards of fruit trees planted which will come in bearing this season. I will either rent or sell the above described property. For further particulars apply to T. A. EMBERT, 4,2113 Queenstown, Md.
