

...ing people love the
...tion that keeps the mills going at good wages, but hate the sharks that close the mills four months out of the year and then force up the price of the goods made.

Everybody loves "Old Red Bandanna" Thurman, except the Chinese and the robbing Pacific railroads.
They hate him.

The Democratic party loves all American citizens except those that try to rob the people. It hates the thieves who prey upon the poorer classes.

The final passage of the Mills Tariff bill by the House of Representatives on Saturday last, puts the issue squarely before the people of low or high taxes. Under this bill and their St. Louis platform the Democratic party is before the people in favor of a reduction of war taxes, and it is now for the people to choose between the two parties. The Democrats are in favor of cheapening clothing and the necessaries of life, and the Republicans are in favor of high priced clothing and necessaries and cheap whiskey.

Hon. Charles Gibson, who is more familiar with Indiana politics than any man living outside of the State, is of the opinion that Governor Gray's defeat for the vice presidential nomination will have no effect in disturbing the Democratic majority in that State. He is of the opinion
