red a test of ent of the pe

ket price for crude pe rotedm, and many of the contrary, it is more thinly settled than some of our States. Combined with Norway it is the largest country in Europe, except Russia. There is plenty of room for the people; but they do not care to stay there. They prefer to emigrate to our Northwest, with a soil and resources inferior to some portions, at least, of their native kingdom. The New York Press exclaima: It is an extraordinary spectacle—this Swedish emigration—far different in motive and character from any other that seeks our shores.

Professor Rein, a scientist who has ket price for crude pe rotedm, and many of the productivs, pressed by their creditors company is terral, and many of the productivs, pressed by their creditors can be the second to sceep the company's terma. But Gabe, though his credit was nearly exhausted, would come.

"Why, Gabe, how can you work so shard in this heat with your coat on?" one of them cremarked, querulously, as he wiped his brow with a soiled handker-this of their native kingdom. The New York Press exclaima: It is an extraordinary spectacle—this Swedish emigration—far different in motive and character from any other that seeks our shores.

Professor Rein, a scientist who has

Professor Rein, a scientist who has

eded the women.

there is no security with the security of the first player out, yet an anoversioned with the first of the first player out, yet and the first player out, and th singular in this respect. Can it be that the left is generally the better leg of the two, and takes, imperceptibly, the longer stride?

Deformity the Mother of Pashions. Disraeli declares that the origin of sany fashious is to be found in the enavor of the devotee to conceal some ity of nature by recourse to art. thes were invented in England," he by a foreign lady, who by this ingeniously covered a sen on her Wigs were invented by a French o conceal as elevation in the of the Diuphin. Charles VII., hix ill-made legs. Shoes ast Color PERHAPS NOT ALWAYS. Snooper-'Jaysmith, did you hear about my roan horse running away with Jaysmith-"No; I thought you told me you could always hold your own."-Brooklyn Life. MANICURING RUSTY NAILS. These nails I bought her sterday are in a terrible Half of them are rusty."

Salesman (indignantly)—"Well, what if they are. You do not suppose we can manicure every pound that goes out, SIGNIFICANT SHAKESPEAREAN TITLES.

Young Talkley-"He is, indeed. Even the names he gives his minor characters have a deep significance. Look at Pistol, for instance; he was always loaded."—

After the Play-She-"Shakespeare i Canvasser-"Is that so? Well, gimme a dollar, will ger, fer th' hard time I have

A FAIR INFERENCE. Old Mr. Cumso (as the clock strikes twelve)- "Is that young man in the parlor with Mabel a minister? Mrs. Cumso-"What makes you ask Old Mr. Cumso—"I inferred so from the fact that he is holding a protracted RATHER TOO URGENT.

Mrs. Tiptop—"Won't you sing for us to-night, Miss Higheff?"

Miss Higheff (modestly)—"Really, Mrs. 1000,000 in excess of the normal Tiptop, I am so hoarse, I could scarcely

> HER WAY. home by ten o'clock, dear,'

SHE COULDN'T GET HIM TO TREAT. Mary Jane (while passing the ice ream parlor)-"Ob, I feel so thirsty cream parlor)—"Oh, I feel so thirsty and het that I am almost fainting."

John Henry—"Well, let us take a turn through the park. We can get a nice cool drink at the fountain, and then we can sit in the shade for a while."—Epoch.

CORRECT.

The dull boy sometimes displays an nexpected streak of brightness.

Teacher—"Which New England State as two capitals?"

Boy-"New Hampshire."
Teacher-"Indeed! Name then Boy-"Capital N and capital H."-Harper's Bazar.

"It's in the kitchen, Harold, New York Herald. and I'll go right now and fetch it myself. Bridget was so careless as to lose the can opener last night, and I—why, whatever is the matter, dearest?"—Amer-

OH, NOTHING MUCH.

killed; it was your hunting dog."
Husband (wildly) — "Where's gun!"-New York Weekly.

THE NOBLE ART OF SELF-DEPENSE. There stood in the dock a big, burly artisan, a regular Hercules in point of stature, brought up on a charge of as-sault with intent to do grievous bodily "Prisoner," said the Judge, "have you engaged any one to defend you!

"What's that? I don't want body. Come on, say half you!"—De Amsterdammer. "I rec'lect very well," said able man, "when the high ti ducah in '44 kept me a p. three days on a ridgepole of a b "What did you live on, grant "All them three days, children the aged Kentuckian, shudde recollection, "I lived on water dreed the long-tailed ill-made legs. Shoes were invented to reof was on fire."—Detroit Free Press.

WHAT A WOMAN CAN DO. "Is there anything a man can do that a woman can't do?" asked the woman's rights advocate, as she adjusted her spectacles and looked around upon the audience.

"That's it," said a hald headed man in the back of the hall, "put it to "em straight. Bring these opponents of wo-man suffrage right to their mutton." "You see," pursued the lady, "we are not without our friends among the stronger sex. Again I ask the question, Is there anything a man can do that a woman can't do?" "Good, good," cried the bald headed man, enthusiastically; "she can do more.

a woman can do that a man can't do."

"She can talk a man to death, by jingo," said the baldheaded man, "and if you could hear my old woman when heattached a noose, which he twisted He—"I can't imagine what's become of my razor. Have you seen it, my lieve it, and don't you furgit it."

This reservishment.

The Greatest Iron Plant.

Since the death of the elder Krupp, whatever is the matter, dearest?"—American Greecer.

BLOOD ON THE MOON.

Wife—"My dear, that hortid man next door has killed the dog."

Husband—"Well, never mind, my dear; I'll get you another one some time."

Wife—"But it wasn't my Fido that he killed; it was your hunting dog."

three years ago, his only son seems to have many end the great works at Essen, Germany, it has energy and success fully equal to his own. The total number of men employed is 1887 was 20,000; at present it is about 25,000. The works now cover about 1000 acres. Included in the plant are cast steel works at Essen, dermany, several in the plant are cast steel works at Essen, three coal mines near Essen and Eochum.

547 iron ore mines in Germany, several controlled to the plant are cast steel works at Essen, dermany and success fully equal to his own. The total number of men employed is 1887 was 20,000; and treated in the plant are cast steel works at Essen, dermany and success fully equal to his own. The total number of men employed is 1887 was 20,000; and treated in the plant are cast steel works at Essen, dermany and success fully equal to his own. The total number of men employed is 1887 was 20,000; and treated in the plant are cast steel works at Essen, dermany and success fully equal to his own. The total number of men employed is 1887 was 20,000; and treated in the plant are cast steel works at Essen, dermany and success fully equal to his own. The total number of men employed is 1887 was 20,000; and treated in the plant are cast steel works at Essen, dermany and treated in the plant are cast steel works at Essen, dermany and treated in the plant are cast steel works at Essen, dermany and treated in the plant are cast steel works at Essen, dermany and treated in the plant are cast steel works at Essen, dermany and treated in the plant are cast steel works at Essen, dermany and treated in the plant are cast steel works at Essen, dermany and treated in the plant are cast steel works at Essen, dermany and treated in the plant are cast s three years ago, his only son seems to other parts of Europe, a. ground about ten miles le about five miles long, for ers, eleved large furna stoves, 459 steam

If some means are not systematically and methodically adopted to exterminate this bird there will be very little profit in fruit raising in those sect fruits are exclusively produced. A German naturalist estimates as fol-A German naturalist estimates as follows the number of eggs a hen may lay;

The ovary of a hen contains about 600 embryo eggs, of which not more than twenty are matured in the first year. The second year produces 120; the third 125, the fourth 114; and in the following four years the appears decreased. four years the nun twenty yearly. In the ninth year, ten eggs can be expected.

A Horse Dentist.

At the quarters of the Salvage Corps the other day Dr. Welles, a veterinary dentist, paid his annual visit. One by one the horses were brought out into the "He has a terrible nerve."

"You hear," said the lady triumphantly, as she waved her hand, "you hear what the champion of our down-trodder the author at the close of the play the author at the close of the house and backed up against the fence. The doctor seized the first herse by the nose, got hold of the animal's tongue and pulled it out as far as possible. He time the author at the first herse by the nose, got hold of the animal's tongue and pulled it out around the horse's nose, forcing his open his mouth. Then the dentist to a long nickeled tubular instrument, one end of which was attached a chis around which was a guard which res shoved through the tube, can chisel to chip pieces off the making them one height

named McCall, whom I soon

harge of range above us on the Darling River. My flock was to go, as also that of the good-herder to the south of me, and we had t, and were then been called in to receive instructions. Both of us herders were to enter into the with fever to die in about 'te fellow. Each of us had a native dist in managing the teams, and, solub neither of them could speak ten words of English, they were valuable men, and had no difficulty in being understood.

It was about Christmas time, and the weather was very sultry, and we aimed to make only fifteen miles z day. We had a full week's journey before us, and nother than the stood a full week's journey before us, and nother than the stood of the new arrivals, who had already secured their land and built the house secured their land and built the house only long enough to get down to the coast. Williams was so broken up that he livred solve the house only long enough to get down to the coast. We had a full week's journey before us, and the weather was a Scotchman named McFarland. The other, who was an Irish lad of twenty, was to Hara.

When we made ready to start, the two was a full week's journey before us, and nother than the livred solve the house only long enough to get down to the coast. Williams was so broken up that he livred solve the house only long enough to get down to the coast. O'Hara and I saw them drop from the gallows.—New York San.

When we made ready to start, the two was a full week's journey before us, and nother than the livred only long enough to get down to the coast. Williams was so broken up that he livred only long enough to get down to the coast. O'Hara and I saw them drop from the gallows.—New York San.

When we made ready to start, the two of make only lifteen miles a day. We had a full week's journey before us, and nothing of much interest happened until the fourth day. We went into camp a little earlier than usual on that afternoon, sisted by a black, and O'Hara and my little earlier than usual on that afternoon. sittle earlier than usual on that afternoon, as one of the wagons needed repairs. Our vehicles, afer coming to a halt, stood about twenty-five feet apart. While I was building a fire to cook supper by one of the blacks went off after rabbits, and McCall took the other with him to help cut and bring back a lever with which to raise the wagon off its wheels. I was thus left alone for a few minutes, and they had scarcely disappeared from sight in the scrub when a man burst out of the hicket on the other side and came running up to me. His face and hands were scratched and bleeding, his clothing effects about twenty-seven miles, the transport of the side and came running up to me. His face and hands were scratched and bleeding, his clothing effects are and more than that from any regulations. were scratched and bleeding, his clothing in tatters, his hat gone, and he had such a wild and terrible look that I should have run away from him had a wild and terrible look that I should have run away from him had a wild and terrible look that I should have run away from him had a wild and terrible look that I should have run away from him had a wild and terrible look that I should have run away from him had a wild and terrible look that I should have run away from him had a wild and terrible look that I should have run away from him he will be a wild and terrible look that I should have run away from him had such a wild and terrible look that I should have run away from him he will be a wild and the wild have run away from him he will be a wild and the will be a w

I stepped to the wagon and handed him a piece of bacon, some hard crackers, and a handful of tea, and then found voice to ask:

"But why not stop with us for the night?"

"Thankr, but I'm in a great hurry to get back to my herd. I know where I am now, and can get there in three hours. Any matches?"

I gave him some, and he looked all were scratched and bleeding, his clothing in tatters, his hat gone, and he had such a wild and terrible look that I should have run away from him had I been able to do anything but stand and stare with mouth wide open. McCall had told me of escaped convicts and hard cases who had taken to the bush to make a living by robbing, and the man had come upon me so suddenly that I was knocked out for the moment.

"For God's sake, young feller, give me is tite to cart!" he said as he stood before me. "Don't be afraid of me—I'm a sheep herder who has been lost in the bush for three days."

"Brail up or under you go!" shouted a shield not be retained by the street of the moment.

"Brail up or under you go!" shouted a shield not be raised on the scene by this time, armed bush for three days."

"Brail up or under you go!" shouted a shield not he scene by this time, armed bush for three days."

"Brail up or under you go!" shouted a shield not he scene by this time, armed them and the ram again. The farmer arrived on the scene by this time, armed them, and sailed into the ram again. The farmer arrived on the scene by this time, armed them, and sailed into the ram again. The farmer arrived on the scene by this time, armed sailed into the ram again. The farmer arrived on the scene by this time, armed sailed into the ram again. The farmer arrived on the scene by this time, armed them.

once identified him as Eallarat Sam, the man whom't had befriended months before. He recognized mealmost as quickly, and, taking a step forward, said:

"Young feller, do me a greater favor "Young feller, do me a greater favor of furthermore, be kind over to that I wait on to any one that I was an in a chill. As he was a big, strong fellow, and had laughed at the idea of low, and low, and low to sum the at while the

as gen-

We have one which will ansy AREL SHEERCE. Yours truly, -Terre Haute Express

WISE WORDS.

Not to love is not to live. Look up, and you will climb up. Life without hope is living death. Selfishness is the assassin of the soul. If you live to die, you will die to live. not the crown that makes the

If your heart is wrong, your life will

Not to love the good is a proof that you are bad. If you want, to bear the cross easily,

The real giant is the man who ever mes himself. The poorest man on earth is the rho has the fewest trials. The incomprehensible are the things nost admired and desired. People who elevate themselves by flatering each other are like balloons packed with ice for ballast.

One half of the world is steeped in sentiment and the other half languishes in a dull respectability. Most people who make a business of casting bread upon the waters expect it to come back pound-cake. A man can determine how much authority he should have by a comparison It is a law that all bread cast upon the waters shall return; but expectation often grows weary waiting for the tide.

A perfect gentleman is the noblest work of society. The perfect man belongs to an order of things not yet.

For one man to ask another to vote get up in the world. work of society. The perfect man befor him, it is equivalent to asking him to breathe for him, or earn a living for their lives. A man who work

One often thinks of a pretty man, What a nice little woman he would ake." But never of a mannish woman, What a manly man.

If people are only free to do what they are taught, the principle of freedom is destroyed by teaching, and the moral re-sponsibility rests with the teacher.

Profits of the Paris Exposition M. Neymarck has communicata Paris Chamber of Commerce

the profits which accrued to Fri Between May and the close of th ing above a whisper."

Mrs. Tiptop (effusively)—"Oh, we tourists arrived: the Americans had le t obtained gold amounting to $70,600,0 and there were 1,500,000 other fore visitors. Deposits in private baby a sum of $16,500,000. The if I'm not in don't wait from passengers' traffic by $1. dear," said Mrs. Club. What wagonettes and other wh icles earned seems incredi ite past' marck knows the owners' of e, and which did thirty-three double ing about $100 a day .-

about three round trips a day over This would make a day's average of twenty-four miles

"An experienced track walker can tell a loose bolt at a glance. Sometimer it will be caused by a broken rail, and he will see that the joints do not fit. Generally a loose joint will be indicated by a dis-between the sleeper and the rail. In this case the track walker props the rail with a thin piece of wood, which he must carry in his outfit. Fish plates and angle plates are distributed along the line, and the track walker sometimes has to replace broken plates if there isn't time for the section gang to come up before a train is due. In case of a broken rail or obstrucwalker puts torpedoes on the tracks and uses his red flag to warn a passing train.

Then he leaves his patrol and informs the Mrs. Brown—"Why do eman and trackman as soon as possi In emergency cases at night the track walker wraps his red flag about the lantern as a signal. Torpedocs are used

"I never heard of a track walker's being promoted to a better paying position. Once a track walker always a track walker.

"Anybody can get such a job, then," suggrested the reporter.

"Not a bit of it," retorted the patriarch. "You couldn't, for instance. I'd like to see you bolt one of those angle plates; and you'd have to do it in case of emergency. A man must have experience as a trackman first. The foreman picks his track walker out of the trackmen. Their pay is all the same—about $1,35 a day. But if there is any promoting be—There is a position of the contract of the contr ing done, the track walker is never the Deer Valley

"As a rule, track walkers keep at me on the section between Pl day. He star

each is the hole .- Troy In ancient times The lightning

> Popinjay (pr Mercury. Bank Cashier opening his mail ar ment)-"Hello, this drawn in the Oil Reg three days grase on it Trumble (to office boy me if the sporting editor is Office Boy-"He ain't go the bulletin."-Pittsburg Pre Mrs. Brown -- " Why do ye have the doctor come to see

Is it because you get nice thi Little Johnny-"Naw; caus my tongue out at him. when that pauper Bol. Miss Stockanbonds, looked tickled to dowed her with all his Bazar. Mrs. Jinks-"I declare be married! It is fright girls marry nowadays. never think of it until she the age of discretion!" them stay single all the

There is a po