BRIDGE RULES AND REGULATIONS.

Rules and Regulations to Govern Travel over Chester Bridge, at Chestertown, and all other Bridges spanning Chester River, as passed in joint session by the Commissioners of Kent and Queen Anne's Counties, July 23, 1890.

No. 1. All persons who travel over the bridges shall keep to the right and go in a walk.

No. 2. No dancing, singing, boisterous language or disorderly conduct allowed on the bridges.

No. 3. No person shall drive over more than ten horses or ten cattle or one hundred sheep or fifty hogs at any one time.

No. 4. All loaded teams shall be three spans or forty yards apart.

No. 5. Persons will not be allowed to congregate in groups to the annoyance of the traveling public.

No. 7. Bathing not allowed from off or under the bridges.

No. 7. No bills or advertisements allowed to be posted or painted on the bridges.

No. 8. No wheelbarrows, push-carts or baby carriages allowed on the bridges.

No. 9. Persons will not be allowed to ride a velocipede, bicycle or tricycle over the bridges.

No. 10. No smoking allowed on the bridges.

No. 11. Any person violating the rules from one to ten inclusive will be fined the sum of two dollars and a-half.

No. 12. No fire-works or fire-arms allowed to be discharged from the bridges.

No. 13. No person shall tie a sailboat or steamboat to the bridges or approaches.

No. 14. No person shall place any obstruction of any kind on the bridges, nor damage the bridges in any way,

No. 15. No person other than the bridge-keepers or their assistants shall turn off the draw or tamper with the fastenings.

No. 16. Any person violating rules 12, 13, 14 or 15 will be fined ten dollars.

No. 17. All captains, owners, masters and sailors of vessels going through the draw of Chester bridge at Chestertown and the draw of the bridge at Crumpton are required to lower and take in as much sail as shall be necessary to prevent damage by carelessness before going through the same, and at a sufficient distance therefrom to remove liability or injury or damage to said draw-bridge by the headway of said vessel; and shall use in the management of said vessel reasonable care to prevent injury, and any person who by reason of gross neglect or inattention shall violate this section shall be fined $10 for each and every such offense, and pay all damage that may be done to the said bridges,

No. 18. The bridge tenders are hereby authorized to enforce the above regulations and rules,
