to the Failure of Enforcement. Ovster dealers in Baltimore city have addressed a communication to the Board of Public Works in which attention is called to the failure of the authorities to enforce the oyster laws, and suggestion is made that more stringent measures should be adopted this season for the protec-

forty thousand dependants. Nature has year after year renot equivalent to the number of as well in the dark. bushels taken by the oystermen annually. Thus, the beds are affording largely decreased supplies and smaller stock to an extent for the last six years that alarmingly threatens the destruction of the beds and the ruin of the industry.

"The destructive agencies are not star-fish, but oystermen who violate the oyster laws—not rigidly and fear-lessly enforced by those who ought to do their duty.

"For several years the Democratic party was gravely charged with much leniency towards evaders of the ov ster laws. The cull law-the very life and preservation of oyster beds, better than the gold mines of Klondike-they treated as a farce.

"After the Republican party officials took control of the oyster navy and appointed the commander and deputy commanders of their party faith, a feeling of confidence arose in the minds of thousands whose living depends on the oyster trade and its normal continuance, that all packers, dealers and oystermen would be made to obey and respect the oyster law.

"Last fall the trade opened in measured. Had the adoption of these notice. regulations, which well complied with the law, been permanently and properly enforced all would have gone well, and to-day the Republican party and oyster navy would stand nigh in the estimation of Maryland oystermen and others interested.
