A man's honesty must be of the most rugged sort to leaving the church in a hurry struck stand fast amid such surroundings. It is now as plain as the nose on our face that powerful interests are working to prevent action by the Senate at this session on the Nicaragna Canal bill. The strongest factor is the adjournment programme, but there are others. Members of the mittee, before which the bill now is,

Meanwhile the Congressional leaders are figuring on adjournment early in June and working everything toward that end. If attention from officials and mbers of both branches of Congress means popularity, Hon. Theodore Roosevelt is the most popular man who has been in Washington for many months, as he certainly received more attention during the three or four days he has been in Washington than has been paid to any other man since this Congress met, and the attention he received was not from members of any one political party.

This week will show whether it require a fight to get a vote on e Clark resolution in the Senate, as enator Chandler has given notice that he intends trying to keep the resolution before the Senate, when it comes up under the agreement, until a vote is taken. The split in the opposition to the shipping bill, indicated by two minority reports has revived talk about pushing the measure through before adjournment, but the chances are against any action at this session.

After the debate reached blood heat the particinants started in on the Jeffries-Cor bett style but it soon became apparent that Dorrell was too much man for Smith and, after realizing the same, Smith thought it best to cut Dorrell down to his size so it would be interesting for the audience and himself. Without any further ceremony he got his razor in shape and, only for the timely warning of the audience, Dorrell might to-day be suffering with the same disease as the chicken. Justice Roberts, of Centreville, gave Smith two months in the House of Correction so he could have time to hone his razor.
