Lieutenant General Nelson A. Miles and Adjutant General Corbin, of the United States Army, have been invited to be present on that day and take part in the review.

General Miles visited the Frederick encampment in the summer of 1896 and the guardsmen hope to have the pleasure of tendering him a marching salute at the camp here.

The day will be officially known as "Governor's Day" in camp. His Excellency's staff will wear their full-dress uniforms and they will be mounted during the review. It will be a ceremony well worth witnessing.

Adjutant General Saunders, Brigade Commander Lawson Riggs and other officers of the brigade, arrived in town about noon, Sunday, to the naval reserve ship Sylvia for the purpose of inspecting the grounds and seeing to it that every comfort is provided for the soldiers during their service in the field.

Telephone Line Nearing Completion.

The Diamond State Telephone Company will complete the work of laying wires and making connections this week and the system will then be in thorough working order all over the peninsula as well as having connections with all the large cities.

Connections were made this week with Washington, Norfolk and Savannah via Baltimore, to Cape May. The inspection party was taken across Delaware bay to Cape May and, besides seeing the celebrated sand dunes surrounded by Henlopen Light, reviewed that haven to vessels in a storm—the Delaware breakwater.

Three miles to the seaward we could also catch a sight of the new break-water which will enlarge the safe harbor already afforded.

Rehoboth Beach, which the railroad also reaches, is now a bustling resort as a result of the development there.

Building operations were kept up all the winter to execute the orders for new cottages and the place wears a spick-and-span air of newness that easily fits it as an attractive resort.

Visitors from Cape May make up excursions parties to Rehoboth and the cottagers there respond with trips to Cape May. This has been made practicable by the ferry service established between Lewes and Cape May.

Mr. W. S. Whedon, cashier of the First National Bank of Winterport, Iowa, in a recent letter gives some experience with a carpenter in his employ, that will be of value to other mechanics. He says: "I had a carpenter working for me several days who was obliged to stop work for several days on account of being troubled with diarrhea. I mentioned to him that I had been similarly troubled and that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy had cured me. He bought a bottle of it from the druggist here and informed me that one dose cured him, and he is again at his work." For sale by B. E. Cockey & Co.

"A few months ago, food which I ate for breakfast would not remain on my stomach for half an hour. I used one bottle of your Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and can now eat my breakfast and other meals with a relish and my food is thoroughly digested. Nothing equals Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for stomach troubles." H. S. Pitts, Arlington, Tex., Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat. J. S. Denny.

Levy Court.

The County Commissioners of Queen Anne's county met Tuesday, pursuant to adjournment. Present: George A. Dever, president; John L. Rhodes and John Godwin, associates.

A number of accounts were examined and allowed.
