SATURDAY, MARCH 22, 1902.

The United States drinks 63,000,000 more gallons of coffee than it does of beer every year. This is demonstrated the reason what Levering the coffee magnet and incidentally a prohibitionist, favors the coffee pot over the growler.

Mr. Carnegie says that he does not approve of novels being placed in his libraries until they have been published for at least three years. By that time everybody who has borrowed the books from his neighbor, and they will not be needed in the library.

The county commissioners of Kent county held up the bond of the recent elected Treasurer, of that county, until they could see their counsel, Mr. John D. Urie, "as they didn't know anything about it," but when the Treasurer's attorneys hinted a lawsuit they quickly affixed their signature. It would be a saving to the county if it could give Mr. Urie full charge and thereby save the expense of carrying a full stock of expensive ornaments.

The Caroline Star is the latest addition to our exchange table. It is an eight column folio, nicely printed and made-up and has its share of advertising. Its editor, Mr. William W. Goldsborough, in his salutory, says it will be democratic—which we think will be a strong lever in shaping the political complexion of our sister county. It is issued every Saturday morning at Ridgely, one of the most prosperous and enterprising towns on the peninsula, and we fail to see any reason why Brother Goldsborough cannot make a success of his new venture, at any rate, he has our best wishes for success.

The Chestertown Transcript speaks in the following flattering terms of a former member of our bar:

"Mr. Sidney P. Townsend, the new Republican practitioner at the Chestertown bar has commenced to divide honors with the Republican colleague before the police courts. Mr. Townsend has already appeared in several cases in defense of the 'bone and sinew of the Republican party in Kent.'"

It is inferred from the above that "his Republican colleague" is no one but the said Hon. John D. Urie, who it seems is nearly the whole show of the Republican party of Kent county, and if Mr. Townsend makes it too warm for him, he may again ask admission to his former home among the Democrats, as there is a good portion of fowl in his political make-up, and he is liable to flop any old time.

Rev. Wm. C. McCracken writes to the New York Churchman, and which was republished in the Easton Ledger, Thursday, by request, quite a lengthy article defending Bishop Potter for his course "in believing that there was much fraud, delusion and hypocrisy in prohibition." We append the following clause from his letter:

"Now I live in Kansas, and have lived here for some two years, during which time I have been in many of the principal places in the State, and I have made many inquiries, besides noticing the local papers. The first thing that attracted my attention here was the number of drunken men as compared with a Minnesota town where $1,000 license was charged. This place has a population of 6,800, the Minnesota town about 4,000. I saw more drunken men (civilians not counting soldiers) in four months here than I had seen in there over five years. There were four 'saloons' in the Minnesota place. I do not know how many there are here. Some rumor says nine that pay or once paid a fine, other rumors say thirty-two. At all events you can see them, or what is very like them, plate-glass windows, names, bystanders, etc., all along the principal street here. There are eight drug stores on the same street, which rumor says, with one or two exceptions, do a saloon-business. I do not know; but I can see in some cases a 'saloon crowd' around and in a drug store who buy cigars, etc., and I can see many men, perhaps pious, who come from behind the rear prescription counter with a 'pleased expression' on their faces, which I have never observed where castor oil or vermifuge or even Epsom salts had been enjoyed."

It will be seen that the above is not only true in Kansas, but it works advantageously in the local option counties of Maryland. The only reason we can see for taking it from the saloon and placing it in a drug store is because of the "red tape" a purchaser has to go through to get his "smile."

Another man explains in his application for divorce that he "got married on a dare." Strange that these daring people will not take the consequences of their bravado.

At a Delaware college the other day prayers were offered for the success of the college baseball team next season. It is likely that the umpire of those games will need more than man's usual share of Christian grace.

One of our subscribers after reading the temperance law for this district, asks "if a minister would be punishable for serving in his church bread and wine at the Lord's Supper to his members?" We are not competent to answer the question, but according to our construction he would be punishable, as section 193, prescribes:

"It shall not be lawful for any person, house, corporation, company or association, to sell, directly or indirectly, at any place, or to give away at his, its or their place of business, within the limits of Queenstown district, any spirituous, fermented or intoxicating liquors of any origin whatever, cider, or alcoholic bitters."

It seems quite plain that all are included in this section but, we think our whiskey men are too honorable and brotherly to send to Centreville to get an officer to interfere with the doings in our churches.

Practically Starving.
"After using a few bottles of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure my wife received perfect and permanent relief from a severe and chronic case of stomach trouble," says J. H. Holly, real estate, insurance and loan agent, of Macomb, Ill. "Before using Kodol Dyspepsia Cure she could not eat an ordinary meal without intense suffering. She is now entirely cured. Several physicians and many remedies had failed to give relief. You don't have to diet. Eat any good food you want, but don't overload the stomach. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will always digest it for you. J. S. Denney and Wye Mills drug store."

A Horrible Outbreak.
"Of large sores on my little daughter's head developed into a case of scald head" writes C. D. Isbill, of Morgantown, Tenn., but Ducklen's Arsenic Salve completely cured her. It's a guaranteed cure for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, pimples, sores, ulcers and piles. Only 25c at B. E. Cockey & Co.
