The champion man man hails from Missouri. He bought a Bible with counterfeit money.

Mr. Tongue has been re-elected to Congress largely on his record of silence during his first term. "What's in a name?"

With the release of Neely, Bathne et al., what becomes of Senator Bridge's illustration of the purity of our colonial administration?

President Roosevelt is quoted as saying that "Life is too safe." Perhaps it is to some. Others, however, have found strata of hard luck in it.

It is said the Tobacco Trust has already cornered the Cuban tobacco crop. We sincerely trust they will put some of it into five-cent cigars before long.

The summer headquarters of the nation will be at Oyster Bay. If there is anything in a name, those of the War Department ought to be at Cham Creek.

If some financiers were as careful to keep water out of their stock as the coal operators are to keep water out of their mines, there would be less complaint.

The coal barons say there is no sentiment in their business. No one accused them of being weakly sentimental when they gave that second tilt to the prices.

The President can order other people to keep their mouths shut, but in the splendid isolation of his position there is no one to perform a like service for him, and so protect him from himself.

There is a spirited controversy going on as to whether George Washington was a Christian. It is a profitless controversy. The effort should be to get more Christians to act like Washington.

The annual summer suicide epidemic is, apparently, well under way. If it would only include in its victims the boat-rocking idiot and the thermometer fiend, much might be forgiven to it.

It is a safe bet that the man who pays $8 or $10 for a Panama hat for himself is the very same one who raises the biggest howl when his wife spends $5 or $6 for a new headgear for her own use.

The June bridegroom should not repine because of the attention given June bride, to the exclusion of himself. The grocer, milliner, dressmaker et al., will give him due recognition later on.

It is said the Boers should be encouraged in starting life anew with as much as 10 days' rations. Some romantic couples in America have been known to start life on only a sugar-candy type of emotional affection.

Some people predict that as the result of the invention of the automobile the horse will gradually become extinct. At the present writing, however, it looks as if the human race, rather than the equine, would be the one to become extinct.

Senator Hanna is urging the Republican party to adopt the campaign cry of "Let well enough alone." Mark's idea of well enough is a condition wherein the trusts exact oppressive tribute from the people and the Republican party gets a rake-off from the trusts.

When the Maryland legislature, at its last session, passed a law to prevent the desecration of the American flag, it performed a patriotic duty and paid a notable tribute to the nation's emblem. To-day has been set apart as Flag Day, as a time for giving our children a lesson in the fact that the people of this land love the old Stars and Stripes. Under that banner their armies and their navies have won victories which have helped to make this nation what it is and to place it preeminent among the mightiest powers of the world. That flag is free from national dishonor and it must and shall be kept free. To-day proves your love for it. Unfurl it in the June breezes and, as you watch its starry folds, renew your patriotism and your love for the land in which you live.

"Everything looks fine, even the weeds," writes a correspondent of a farm paper. "The roads are passable, the farmers are rushed with work from every direction, and it is an impossibility to hire good workmen even at $22 and $25 per month and board. That means still more pastures and meadows."

Seven Years in Bed.
"Will wonders ever cease?" inquire the friends of Mrs. L. Pease, of Lawrence, Kan. They knew she had been unable to leave her bed in seven years on account of kidney and liver trouble, nervous prostration and general debility; but, "Three bottles of Electric Bitters enabled me to walk," she writes, "and in 3 months I felt like a new person." Women suffering from headache, backache, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, fainting and dizzy spells will find it a priceless blessing. Try it. Satisfaction guaranteed. Only 50c. B. E. Cockey & Co.

Nelaton's Remedy for Rheumatism is Curing Thousands.
Within the past half year, when NELATON'S REMEDY FOR RHEUMATISM was brought to public attention in this section, the sales have doubled almost every month. The fact that in not one case in a thousand is it necessary to refund the money—which is always done wherever Nelaton's Remedy fails to cure—gives people who suffer from Rheumatism and kindred ills a confidence in this great medicine which has induced thousands to try it, and find the relief it will surely give.

A Terrible Explosion
"Of a gasoline stove burned a lady here frightfully," writes N. E. Palmer, of Kirkman, Ia. "The best doctors couldn't heal the running sore that followed, but Bucklen's Arnica Salve entirely cured her." Infallible for cuts, corns, sores, boils, bruises, skin diseases and piles. Only 25c. B. E. Cockey & Co.'s drug store.

E. H. Brown
This signature is on every box of the genuine Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets the remedy that cures a cold in one day.

MOTHERHOOD
The greatest ambition of American men and women is to have homes blessed with children. The woman afflicted with female disease is constantly menaced with becoming a childless wife. No medicine can restore dead organs, but Wine of Cardui does regulate derangements that prevent conception; does prevent miscarriages; does restore weak functions and shattered nerves and does bring babies to homes barren and desolate for years. Wine of Cardui gives women the health and strength to bear healthy children. You can get a dollar bottle of Wine of Cardui from your dealer.

WINE OF CARDUI
123 Market Street,
New York, N. Y.
In February, 1901, I took one bottle of Wine of Cardui and in three days I felt better. I had been married five years and had never been able to have a child until I took Wine of Cardui. Now I have a healthy baby girl which was born March 31, 1902. The bottle which I took is now in my home as well as my own baby. I feel as well as any woman could feel. Now my wife is happy and my home is without Wine of Cardui in my home.
