SATURDAY, JUNE 21, 1902.

It would seem as if a five-cent advance in "choice hogs" ought to coincide both the beef trust and the coal trust.

For the benefit of those who cannot afford both, will some scientist oblige with an opinion as to which is the greater necessity of civilized life—coal or beef?

Several Baltimore epicures have discovered that the 17-year locust is "good eating" and pronounce it a rare delicacy—rare because it comes only once in 17 years.

If the coal strike continues until cold weather comes again there will be plenty of popular pressure on both parties to the conflict to induce them to come to an agreement.

Hon. Matt Quay met in convention at Harrisburg, one day recently, non-inflated a ticket and adopted a platform. There being no other business before him, he adjourned.

People object to being requested, when aboard, to doff their hats to a picture of royalty. Yet it is understood that some of them had to be restrained or they would have kissed the hand of Prince Henry.

The Pennsylvania railroad is frowning upon the habit that people have of kissing each other good-by at the train. And yet these good-bys are frequently the forerunners of a community of interest.

These are the days when the average citizen is roused to murderous wrath, but is uncertain whether to select as victim the man who keeps asking is it hot enough or the one who lays down rules on how to keep cool.

The late James Russell Lowell could think of nothing so rare as a day in June. He lived in Boston, where the days are not merely rare, but raw. In this vicinity the days in June are particularly well done— even over-done and burnt.

A Kentucky woman got a hundred dollars' damages from a man who kissed her against her will. With courts rating the pressure of sweet feminine lips at a hundred dollars a press, who dare say the world's male civility has perished out?

A convicted murderer in Kansas let off with a short imprisonment, thanked the jury, saying he felt confident not one jury in ten would have been so lenient. It is not recorded whether these guardians of the public safety felt more impressed with the man's gratitude or with the reflection on themselves in his expression.

A man who claims to be able to draw electricity directly from the air says it is remarkable that the simplicity of the feat has been so long overlooked. When men boast of the great advance of human science and the wonders it performs, nature must chuckle to think how long she has kept her simplest secrets to herself.

A letter was lately received at the Pension Office asking that the writer's pension be reduced, as he thought it was too large. When the first shock was over an investigation was made. The writer was found to be insane. A bit of practical comment on patriotic human nature is to be found in the fact that this result surprised no one.

The Wallis memorial, which was unveiled Thursday in Baltimore's new courthouse, will bear testimony to the worth of one of Maryland's most erudite scholars and most brilliant men. Mr. Severn Teackle Wallis was a leader not only in the profession of which he was so distinguished a member, but in every field of effort which engaged his attention. His acquaintance with the languages and literature not only of his own, but of other times, was that of the ripest scholar; as essayist, critic and poet he showed how versatile was his mind, how varied his accomplishments. This memorial should inspire the young men of Maryland, and especially the young men of the legal profession. It should stand before their eyes as proof that a life attained to noble purposes, one that has no toleration for the low, the vicious and the dishonest, brings its reward in the esteem of those associated with it and in the honor that will be paid to it long after its end has come.

A Baltimore man has made a great effort to reduce the balance of trade in the title market by marrying the widow of a Dutch count. But all he has accomplished is the wiping out of a title.

Pigs are taking the place of dogs as pets in New Jersey, it is said. This is strictly in keeping with the state's reputation as the mother of trusts. The atmosphere has affected her tastes.

Seven Years in Bed.
 "Will wonders ever cease?" inquire the friends of Mrs. L. Pease, of Lawrence, Kan. They knew she had been unable to leave her bed in seven years on account of kidney and liver trouble, nervous prostration and general debility; but, "Three bottles of Electric Bitters enabled me to walk," she writes, "and in 3 months I felt like a new person." Women suffering from headache, backache, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, fainting and dizzy spells will find it a priceless blessing. Try it. Satisfaction guaranteed. Only 50c. B. E. Cockey & Co.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.
 Take Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c.

A Terrible Explosion
 "Of a gasoline stove burned a lady here frightfully," writes N. E. Palmer, of Kirkman, Ia. "The best doctors couldn't heal the running sores that followed, but Backlin's Army Salve entirely cured her." Infallible for cuts, corns, sores, boils, bruises, skin diseases and piles. Only 25c at B. E. Cockey & Co's drug store.

E. W. Grove
 This signature is on every box of the genuine Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets. The remedy that cures a cold in one day.

MOTHERHOOD
 The greatest ambition of American men and women is to have homes blessed with children. The woman afflicted with female disease is constantly menaced with becoming a childless wife. No medicine can restore her. No medicine can restore her. Wine of Cardui does regulate derangements that prevent conception; does prevent miscarriage; does restore weak functions and shattered nerves and does bring babies to homes barren and desolate for years. Wine of Cardui gives women the health and strength to bear healthy children. You can get a dollar bottle of Wine of Cardui from your dealer.

 In February, 1901, I took one bottle of Theodor's Black-Drug, a package of Black-Drug and one bottle of Black-Drug. Now I feel like a new person. My baby girl which was born March 10th, 1901, is as well as any other child and I feel as well as any other mother. I have no more pain or suffering and I have no more of that kind of medicine. Mrs. J. W. C. SMITH.

1837. THE SUN. 1902.
 BALTIMORE, MD.
 THE PAPER OF THE PEOPLE.
 FOR THE PEOPLE AND WITH THE PEOPLE.
 HONEST IN MOTIVE.
 FEARLESS IN EXPRESSION.
 SOUND IN PRINCIPLE.

While maintaining unimpaired the high standards of private life and public policy which has upheld inflexibly for more than sixty-four years. This Sun is also in the front rank of modern journalism in every factor which enters into the production of a great newspaper. Its mechanical equipment is complete and up-to-date in every respect, and its facilities and arrangements for the prompt collection of news are unsurpassed. Its special correspondents throughout the United States, as well as in Europe, China, South Africa, the Philippines, Porto Rico, Cuba and in every other part of the world supplement the efforts of the general agencies by which it is also served, so that it is enabled to print the news every day in the week.

Its Washington and New York bureaus are among the best in the United States, and give the Sun's readers the earliest information upon all important events in the legislative and financial centers of the country.

The Sun's market reports and commercial columns are complete and reliable, and put the farmer, the merchant and the broker in touch with the markets of Baltimore, Norfolk, Charleston, New York, Chicago, Philadelphia and all other important points in the United States and other countries.

The Sun is the best type of a newspaper, morally and intellectually. It is a standard of the highest character, constantly stimulating to noble ideals in individual and national life, and gives all the news all the time.

The Sun is published on Sunday, as well as every other day of the week. By mail THE DAILY SUN, $5 a year, including THE SUNDAY SUN, $5. THE SUNDAY SUN alone, $1 a year. THE WEEKLY SUN, $1 a year.
