WASHINGTON LETTER. Some News Collected at the National Capital by Our Regular Correspondent. WASHINGTON, June 16th, 1902 .-The inquiry into the connection of the Sugar Trust with the agitation in favor of Cuban reciprocity, which was installed by Senator Teller's resolution, has produced extensive and, to the republicans, alarming results. F. B. Thurber, of New York, who had several times been called before the committee on Relations with Cuba, finally made his appearance and from him was elicited the statement that Havemeyer, president of the American Sugar Refining Company, had contributed $2,500 to a fund used by Thurber "to educate American sentiment in favor of reciprocity" and that General Wood, acting for the Cuban government, had contributed to the same fund the sum of $2,880. General Wood was obliged to admit the payment saying that he had made it in accordance with the wishes of the secretary of war and Havemeyer has made no denial.

Acting upon the testimony of Mr. Thurber, eighteen senators, of whom Elkins is the leader, resolved to contest the passage of the Cuban bill to the end and to notify the democratic leaders that such was their intention. The news of Thurber's disclosures was telegraphed to the President then at West Point, and he abandoned his intention of spending a day with his family at Oyster Bay and returned to Washington immediately and on Fri day sent a special message to Congress urging that body to pass the Cuban reciprocity bill and incidentally mentioning that he could not approve of the rebate scheme put fortl by the "insurgent" senators. While the President's statement is a very fair exposition of his views it does not appear to have produced any impression upon his oppo nents in the Senate and the question of Cuban reciprocity is as far from settlement as ever.

In this connection it should be borne in mind that were the President or the republican senators who desire to befriend Cuba, willing to take any action which would tend to decrease the profits of the Sugar Trust, the way to aiding Cuba would be made clear. The eighteen republican senators, who oppose straight reciprocity with Cuba on the ground that it would result merely in augmenting the profits of the trust, would gladly vote for the reciprocity bill as it passed the House and which removed the differential on refined sugar and they could count on the combined support of the democrats. The support of the "insurgent" republicans and a large number of the democrats could also be secured for the substitute bill of Senator Dietrich, which would transfer the duty now imposed as a differential on refined sugar to the raw product and then grant straight reciprocity to the extent of 25 per cent to Cuba. The difficulty with which the President and his supporters in the Senate are contendg is their effort to serve two masters the Sugar Trust and Cuba and the indications are that they will fall between the two and that republican harmony in the Senate will suffer as severely as it did in the House when the same bill was considered there.

On Thursday the Senate will vote on the Nicaraguan Canal bill, the concensus of opinion being that the Spooner resolution will be adopted. But two appropriation bills remain to be considered in the Senate and they will be disposed of with com-paratively little debate so that the ate will be face to face with the Cuban dilemma and some action will have to be taken. The President still insists that if adjournment is taken without action on the Cuban matter sion. All day Friday the Senate spent in secret session, the supporters of the President endeavoring to secure confirmation of the nomination of Gen. Crozier as Chief of Ordnance, but without avail, and the session adjourned without action. On Saturday Senator Elkins introduced a resolution providing for the annexation of

INFANTICIDE SUSPECTED Centreville's Citizens Aroused over the Inter ment of a Negro Infant

Tuesday afternoon Contables Coursey and Whiteley summoned a coroner's jury, Justice Woodford acting of a twenty-eight-hour-old colored infant in Centreville. The child was and died the following evening about nine o'clock under suspicious circumstances. The mother of the child is Wilhemina Smith, a young colored girl, who lives near the old academy ouilding, in the suburbs of Centreville. Saturday afternoon two colored boys, Diek Handy and "Dickey" Kilson—turied the infant in an open box without a permit or the sanction of the authorities. Woodford notified the constables and the state's attorney and Dr. J. M.
