

requisite ; albeit they be such as of their own Nature might otherwise require a more special Commandment and Warrant, than in these Presents is expressed.

We will also, and by these Presents, for us, our Heirs and Successors, ~~we~~ do give & grant License, by this our Charter, unto the said now Lord Baltimore, his Heirs and Assigns, & to all the ^{present} Inhabitants and Dwellers in the said Province ~~aforsaid~~, ~~both~~ ^{those} present and to come, to import, or unlade, by themselves, or their Servants, Factors, or Assigns, all Merchandises & Goods whatsoever, that shall arise of the Fruits and Commodities of the said province, either by Land or Sea, into any of the Ports of us, our Heirs and Successors, in our Kingdoms of England or Ireland, or otherwise to dispose of the said Goods, in the said Ports, & if need be, within one year next after the unlading of the same, to lade the said Merchandises and Goods again, into the same or other Ships, and to export the same into any other Countrys, either of our Dominion or forreign, (being in Amity with us, our Heirs, and Successors) provided always that they pay such Customs, Impositions, Subsidies & Duties for the same, to us, our Heirs and Successors, as the rest of our Subjects of our Kingdom of England, for the Time being, shall be bound to pay: Beyond which, we will not that the