

That Benton Harris, John Selby, and Thomas Martin, Esquires, or any one or two of them, be judge of and hold the election for Worcester county.

That the mayor, recorder, and aldermen of the city of Annapolis, or any three or more of them, be judge of and hold the election for the city of Annapolis.

That James Calhoun, John Merryman, and William Aisquith, Esqrs. or any one or two of them, be judge of and hold the election for Baltimore town.

That if any of the said elections cannot be carried on for the want of judges, the committee of observation for the county in which such election is to be made, shall appoint judges, who shall qualify and proceed as aforesaid.

That a clerk or clerks be appointed by the said judges for taking the polls at the said elections.

That every judge of the election, before he proceeds to take or receive any vote, shall take the following oath or affirmation, to wit. "I, A. B. do swear or affirm, that I will permit all persons to vote, who shall offer to poll at the election now to be held for _____ county, _____ city or _____ town, who in my judgment shall, according to the resolutions of Convention, be entitled to poll at the same election; and that I will not admit any person to poll at the same election, who before his voting shall be objected against by any candidate, or any two of the electors, if such person is not in my judgment qualified to vote as aforesaid; and will in all things execute the office of judge of the said election, according to the best of my knowledge, without favour or partiality. So help me God."

And every clerk, before he enters any vote on the polls, shall take the following oath, to wit. "I _____ do declare, that I will well and faithfully, without favour, affection, or partiality, execute the office of clerk of the election for _____ county, the city of Annapolis, or Baltimore town, according to the best of my knowledge. So help me God."

That the said judges certify under their hands and seals to the Convention, on the day appointed for their meeting as aforesaid, the names of the members chosen in their county, district, city, or town, respectively.

RESOLVED, That nine persons be elected by ballot a Council of Safety, and be and continue such until the intended Convention shall make further order therein, and that until that time, they or any four or more of them, having taken the oath prescribed by the December Convention, shall have and exercise the like and same powers as the present Council of Safety had or might exercise under the resolutions of the several Conventions heretofore held for this colony. And may on good ground for suspicion, cause any person to be arrested, and put to security for his good behaviour and appearance at the next Convention, or may order any such suspected person to remove to and continue within any particular place or limits within the province they shall assign, or commit him to close prison until the meeting of the Convention.

RESOLVED, That on the said first day of August next, this present Convention shall be dissolved, and all the power and authority thereof cease and determine. And that the delegates elected shall meet at the city of Annapolis, and hold the next Convention on Monday the twelfth day of August next.
